

Medford Woman Now Serving as Museum Hostess

Mrs. Lloyd L. Sanders of Medford is spending the summer in Alaska. While there she is serving as hostess at the Sheldon Jackson museum in Sitka which is a part of the Sheldon Jackson Junior college operated by the Presbyterian Board of National Missions.

The museum contains a collection of native arts and crafts as well as Russian relics. The school is the only private school in Alaska offering secondary education.

Mrs. Sanders plans to visit Anchorage, Mt. McKinley National park, Fairbanks, Skagway, Whitehorse, Glacier Bay and Juneau before returning to Woodburn, Ore., where she spends much of her time with a son, Philip Sanders.

Visiting the Sheldon Jackson museum in Sitka, Alaska, are several teachers participating in a teaching program there this summer. Greeting the visitors is Mrs. Lloyd L. Sanders (left) of Medford who is serving as hostess at the museum. Visitors are (third from right) Mrs. Estella Tiffany, director of student teaching at Whitworth college, Spokane, Wash.; Mrs. Gustav Schlauch, and Dr. Schlauch, head of the sociology department at Whitworth college. The summer program is being conducted at Sheldon Jackson Junior college.—(Bob Stearly photo)

Banana-Cinnamon Rolls

New York — (UPI) — Youngsters will go for these banana-cinnamon rolls. Brush butter on top of 6 brown-serve butter-flake rolls. Partially separate each roll into five equal parts. Combine 3 tablespoons sugar and 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon. Coat 30 slices of banana in the mixture. Insert a banana slice between open sections of each roll. Bake in a greased shallow pan in a hot oven (400 degrees) for 12 minutes.

Herb Sauce for Steaks

San Francisco — (UPI) — Marinate meat for broiled steaks or hamburgers overnight in wine and herbs, suggests the California Foods Research institute. Then make this easy sauce for the grilled meat. Mix 1 tablespoon each of mustard and Worcestershire sauce, 3 tablespoons butter, and 1/2 cup of sherry. Heat slowly until the butter melts. Pour hot over meat.

Drapery Heading

If you're making new cotton draperies, the tedious job of sewing in pinch pleats is no longer necessary. You can buy a special heading for draw draperies and slipping hooks. All you do is stitch the heading onto the draperies, and slip prongs of the pins into the casings. The pleats form perfectly and instantly.

Hardy Tomato Variety Turned Up

Geneva, N. Y. — (UPI) — Research at the New York State Agricultural Experiment Station has turned up a promising new hardy tomato variety known as "Geneva 11."

Development stemmed from a search for an early, high-yielding, well-colored tomato resistant to the destructive verticillium wilt disease.

Cornell University plant breeders here say the tomato is recommended as an early and main crop variety for growers of processing tomatoes. It also may find a place with market gardeners where special attention is given to spacing and harvesting. Total yields of Geneva 11 have averaged higher than any other variety in trials at the Experiment Station, they note.

"Geneva 11 is a promising variety developed from a series of crosses using Red Jacket and lines resistant to verticillium wilt," the scientists said. "It has been planted on a limited scale by growers for the past four years, and in most cases has attracted favorable attention because of its good yield, relative freedom from verticillium wilt, and general good quality."

Former Senator Dies In Denver Home

Denver — (UPI) — Former Sen. Eugene D. Millikin, one of the political giants of Colorado, died here Saturday. He was 67.

Millikin contracted pneumonia Thursday night.

Millikin, often called the triumvirate in the U.S. Senate, was a member of a great triumvirate in the U.S. Senate.

Arthur A. Vandenberg of Michigan and Robert A. Taft of Ohio were the other members of the triumvirate that dominated the Republican side of the Senate for years.

Millikin, often called the senators' senator, served vigorously in the U.S. Senate for 15 years, although a victim of crippling arthritis for more than a quarter of a century.

In July of 1936, senators rose to their feet to laud Millikin for his long record of leadership in the Senate. It seemed that Millikin, a towering figure in the Senate since he took his seat in December of 1921, would continue in Congress until his death. But he announced in 1936 he would retire. He was succeeded by Sen. John Carroll, a Democrat.

A brownie is a brownie? Taint necessarily so. There are plain brownies, frosted brownies, brownie-crusted ice cream pies and now—brownies topped with sour cream! Made from a brownie mix and baked in a pie pan, the sour cream is spooned over the brownies, garnished with shaved semi-sweet chocolate, and then popped back in the oven, just long enough for the cream to set. Cool and then cut into pie-shaped pieces. For the Brownies you will need a 10-inch pie plate, 1 package brownie mix, 1 cup sour cream, chocolate syrup or shaved semi-sweet chocolate. Prepare brownie mixture according to package directions. Spread batter in a buttered 10-inch pie plate. Bake recommended time in a 350 degree preheated oven. Remove from oven. Spread sour cream over baked brownie. Dribble a stream of chocolate syrup lightly over cream or garnish with shaved semi-sweet chocolate. Return to oven for 5 minutes. Cool. Cut pie-shaped pieces. Best when served the same day as prepared.

'Garden of Blind' Slated in Portland

Portland — (UPI) — A scented "garden for the blind" will be one feature of the Garden of Tomorrow at next year's Oregon Centennial Exposition and International Trade Fair here, according to the Oregon Centennial commission.

The garden for the blind, to be described by garden board member Dr. E. G. Chinnard at a meeting here next Wednesday, will be patterned after a similar garden in Brooklyn. Labels on flowers and arrangements will be printed in Braille.

Garden manager Eddie Boatwright reported Friday that 12 nations have signified their intent to participate in the garden so far by sending rare and unusual plant material native to their lands.

Family Outing Ends in Tragedy

Newport — (UPI) — A pleasant family outing ended in tragedy Friday when two persons drowned in the Siletz river on the Walter Dickenson farm about one half mile north of Siletz.

State police said Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Graves of Toledo and their five-year-old niece, Lynn Ellice Thomas of Newport, were having a picnic when Vernon Graves, 36, put his niece on his back and attempted to swim across the river.

Police said the man, who was reported to be an "expert swimmer" apparently went in the water after eating lunch. The drowning occurred at 3 p.m.

Mrs. Graves told police she saw them swim out and about halfway across the river, they appeared to be in serious trouble. She said she went for help.

The bodies were recovered at 3:35 p.m. by Joseph and Robert Miller, employees of the Kennedy Logging company of Sweet Home.

State police said they tried artificial respiration and firemen from Newport used a resuscitator to no avail.

Mrs. Graves was hospitalized for shock.
