Aaron's Hammering Keeps Door Open for Milwaukee

BY MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International

Hear all that hammering?

It's only Hank Aaron keeping the front door open for the Milwaukee Braves and preventing National League pitchers from getting any sleep.

Aaron did some pretty loud knocking Sunday when he drove in three runs with a homer and a single that beat the Cubs, 4-1, and moved the Braves a full game in front.

Hammerin' Hank unloaded his 22nd homer with one on in the first inning off Dave Hillman and singled home Bill Bruton in the third. All that hitting brought rookie Carlton Willey his fourth victory although he needed help from Don McMahon when the Cubs threatened in the ninth. Chicago collected only five hits, all off Willey.

Pittsburgh nipped San Francisco, 2-1, in a 14-inning opener and the second game was suspended with the score tied 3-3 in the eighth because of Pennsylvania's Sunday curfew law.

Wins In 14th

Dick Groat's sacrifice fly scored Frank Thomas with the winning run in the 14th inning of the opener. Reliever Don Gross was the winner. Ray Jablonski homered off starter Ronnie Kline in the seventh and Bob Skinner tied the score with a homer off Al Worthington in the ninth.

The Phillies and Dodgers wound up in "suspense," too, in their twin-bill at Philadelphia.

Philadelphia won the opener, 7-4, with the aid of Willie Jones' two homers and the second game was suspended because of the curfew law with the Phils ahead, 2-1, in the sixth.

Jones' two homers plus a pair of triples by Solly Hemus and another homer by Carl Sawatski gave Robin Roberts his 10th win in the opener.

Cincinnati charged back for a 10-1 victory in the nightcap of a double-dip after St. Louis won the opener, 4-3 behind Larry Jackson's six-hit pitching.

Ex-American Leaguer Alex Kellner set the Cards down on seven hits in the finale while the Redlegs nicked loser Bob Mabe for six hits and seven runs during the 4 2-3 innings he pitched. Joe Cunningham and Frank Robinson each hit homers in the opener.

Yanks Lose Two

Over in the American League, the Cleveland Indians halted the New York Yankees' seven-game winning streak with a pair of identical 7-2 victories. It was the Indians' first victories over the Yanks in Cleveland this season following seven straight losses to the league leaders.

Cal McLish gained his ninth victory in the opener by holding the Yankees to eight hits. In the nightcap Jim Mudcat Grant hurled a three-hitter for his eighth victory and Rock Colavito contributed a grand-slam homer off Bob Turley, who lost his fourth game against 15 victories.

The Red Sox snapped a four-game losing streak with a flurry of four home runs that sunk the White Sox, 7-3. Jackie Jensen hit his 29th homer while teammates Don Buddin, Frank Malzone and Jim Piersall also hit for the circuit.

Roger Maris drove in five runs while leading Kansas City to an 11-6 decision over Baltimore. Maris hit a pair of triples and a single to pace the Athletics' 16-hit attack while Bob Cerv collected two singles to take over the league batting lead with a .330 average.

Washington swept a double-header from the skidding Detroti Tigers, 4-3 and 6-1, on a pair of fine pitching performances by Camilo Pascual and Pedro Ramos.

National Drag Mark Bettered on SOTA's Camp White Strip

A national hot rod record was bettered in yesterdays drag races held at Camp White by Southern Oregon Timing association.

A sleek red and white competition coupe, dubbed "Zombie" by its builders, the Wheelers car club of Medford, had a time of 109.79 miles per hour to better the record of 108 plus mph. Piloted by club president Charles Hewitt, this Buick powered speedster also eliminated all comers and emerged as top-eliminator over all cars at the drag races. Zombie is sponsored by the "21" Club of Medford.

Dragster driver Noel Black, still plagued by bad luck with his Oldsmobile powered dragster, did register the fastest time of the dag before he was forced out of competition by mechanical troubles. His top time of 121.62 mph was certainly fast enough to awe the several hundred spectators who turned out in spite of the intense heat of the desert.

Black did register the fastest elapsed time ever run on the SOTA strip. His time of :11.09 is slightly under the top elapsed time of last year's championship winner and strip record holder, The Glass Slipper's best was :11.15 seconds.

Strip record as set by the Glass Slipper still stands at 134.23 mph. Had any entry broken this record in yesterdays competition they would have won the $100 Savings bond that the Association has posted. At the next drag meet, scheduled for Aug. 10, this bond will be raised to the sum of $125.

Track standards were broken in a total of nine classes as the days 98 entries turned on speed to rewrite the record book.

Bill Sherman from Crescent City, Calif., set a new mark of 89.28 mph in the "C" class for stock cars. The old record was 85.71.

Coquille driver Pete Clausen pushed his 57 Chevrolet up to 94.73 to set the top mph in the Super Stock class. He eclipsed his own best mark of 94.63 set at the last drag races.

Medford's Eugene Cass pushed the "E" Gas speed up to 89.19 with his 55 Chevrolet. Former record holder was Bill Hoffman from Portland.

Ashland roadster driver Louie Wolff gunned his "A" Roadster 103.44 mph to better his old mark of 102.04. Wolff's best time with his Ford powered roadster has been 108.43 at Redding, Calif.

R. E. Rose, Medford, drove to a new high in "B" competition class with a speed of 89.64. He drove a car owned by Ober Logging company that is usually enerted in the local hard top races.

Wally Cannon from Ashland established a speed of 103.44 in "C" class dragsters. The old mark was 100.33 held by the Ashland roadster trio of Wiley, Webber and Perdue.

Fred Johns from Medford gunned his 58 Corvette to 96.77 to claim the standard in "A" Sports cars. In doing so he broke his old standard of 95.84.

Grants Pass driver Les Frazier revved his 1932 Ford coupe powered by a Dodge V-8 to a new "B" altered mark of 89.46. He bettered the 83.33 of Bob Meyers.

Potentially one of the fastest dragsters in the Northwest, the Roberts, Wiltse and Mickle machine from Ashland did not appear at yesterdays races because new parts had not arrived prior to the races on Sunday. This fuel-injected Oldsmobile powered machine has recorded speeds of more than 128 mph on the Camp White strip and 135 mph at Redding, Calif. It will certainly loom as a top contender in the races to be held on Aug. 10.

Coast Golf Toga Goes To Dichter

Astoria —(UPI)— Ralph Dichter, Seaside lumber dealer, captured the men's title here Saturday in the 48th annual Oregon Coast Golf tournament. June Robinson, Tillamook teen-ager, won the women's crown.

Dichter's victory was his second in Coast golf tournaments. He defeated Eugene's Keith Gubrud, 2 and 1, in a hole-by-hole encounter.

Miss Robinson, 17-year-old runnerup for the past two years, polished off Mollie Murphy, Portland, 5 and 4. Last year it was Miss Murphy who eased out the Robinson girl, 4 and 3, for the 1957 title.

Ted Fleskes, Royal Oaks Golf club, Vancouver, Wash., won the 18-hole senior's division with a 1-up conquest over Del Chance of the Portland Golf club. It was Fleskes' third win in five years.

3-Ball Tourney At RVCC Sunday

A mixed three-ball sixsome golf tourney will be conducted Sunday, Aug. 3 at Rogue Valley Country club.

Entries must be in by 1:15 p.m. Sunday and drawing for partners will be held at 1:30 p.m. Entrants may sign up at the pro shop.

Nine-hole play is scheduled with long drive and closest to the pin competition for both men and women.

Miller Captures 2 Meet Events

Portland —(UPI)— Stan Miller of Jefferson high school, Portland, captured two events —the high jump and the javelin —to feature an all-comers track and field meet here on Saturday.

In the 120-yard low hurdles Oregon State's Stu Fors turned in a winning time of 13.5. But Crane of Linfield took the open javelin with a heave of 193 feet, one inch.

White Returns To Giant Squad

Philadelphia — (UPI) — Big Bill White, the San Francisco Giants regular first baseman of two years ago, has rejoined the club from the service—and found his old position being capably handled by rookie Orlando Cepeda.

White returned to the Giants Sunday in Pittsburgh while on terminal leave from the army. It appeared that White may go into the outfield now that Cepeda has done so well at first.

Odds Favor Webb for Ring Scrap

New York —(UPI)— Middleweight contender Spider Webb is favored at 14-5 to beat Germany's Fran Szuzina at Madison Square Garden Wednesday night in a TV 10-rounder that tops this week's boxing schedule.

The Chicago Spider, ranked fifth Ring and sixth NBA, is favored because of his combined boxer-puncher ability, although he took the bout on short notice as a substitute.

Ex-champion Gene Fullmer was originally slated as Szuzina's opponent but Gene had to withdraw when partially healed cuts were re-opened in training.

Stocky Szuzina is unranked but his slam-bang attack has beaten Virgil Akins, Randy Sandy, Al Andrews and Charley Cotton. This year he lost two disputed decisions to high-ranked Joey Giardello and knocked out Johnny Penn.

Records Compared

Webb's 28-3-0 record includes 14 knockouts. Szuzina's 42-19-13 list includes 23 kayoes.

It will be the first Wednesday night fight staged in the Garden in nearly two years, and it will be televised nationally by ABC.

Friday's TV-radio NBC bout at Syracuse, N. Y., pits light heavyweight contender Tony Anthony against heavyweight Archie McBride. Anthony, who may soon step up a class and campaign for the heavyweight crown, is favored at 13-5 because of his skill and punch.

Anthony is from New York; McBride, from Trenton, N. J.

Tony's 34-5-1 record includes 27 knockouts; McBride's 21-13-8 has eight kayoes.

The week's boxing schedule also includes:

Monday—New York St. Nick's—Jimmy Archer vs. Tony DiBiase. Las Vegas, Nev.—Neal Rivers vs. Tony Dupas. Norwood, Mass. — Barry Allison vs. Jackson Brown. Tiajuana, Mex.—Davey Moore vs. Kid Anahuac. New Orleans—Charley Joseph vs. Joe Snow.

Phoenix Whips Portlanders Twice To Go Ahead in PCL

United Press International

The Phoenix Giants climbed aboard their hot bats Sunday and rode back into first place in the Pacific Coast league by sweeping a double header from Portland while Sacramento did the same to San Diego in a bid to escape from the cellar.

Southpaw Pete Burnside held Portland to a five-hitter in the short opening game and was backed by a three-run homer on the part of Bob Prescott and a two-run blast from Andre Rodgers as the Giants laced the Beavers 7-2. Then Rodgers belted a two-run double in the nightcap while Phoenix trampled the Beavers again, 10-3. Bill Wilson added a three-run roundtripper in this one.

Vancouver fell back into second place by splitting with Salt Lake. The Bees won the opener, 7-0, on Eddie O'Brien's three-hitter then George Bamberger hurled the Mounties to a 4-2 win in the nightcap.

Pads Fall Back

San Diego went stone cold against the Solons, who drubbed the Padres by scores of 4-0 and 3-1 while Spokane defeated Seattle twice in the other twin bill, 7-5 and 3-0.

Ah Futility!

Talk about futility! San Diego got 13 hits in its first game but still was blanked by the Solons. Robert Gowman, with an assist from John Kume in the seventh inning, posted his seventh win of the year. Dick Cole helped him with a home run in the first inning. It was served up by Bill Werle, the grizzled southpaw, who took the loss.

Marshall Bridges followed by winning his 12th game of the season as the Sacs got him single runs in each of the first three innings. Steve Ridzik was the loser in a good duel.

Spokane wrecked Seattle's winning streak at five in a row by bouncing the Rainiers twice. Norm Sherry and Jim Baxes each drove home three runs in the first game, Baxes stroking all of his across with a homer. Relief Pitcher Bill George was the winner while Bill Kennedy, the second of four Sud hurlers to toil, was the loser.

Dick Hanlon and Dick Scott then combined to blank Seattle in the finale with Hanlon getting the verdict. Rookie Claude Osteen committed a balk in the seventh inning to help the Spokes get two insurance runs.

Rodgers hit his 25th homer of the season in the opener for Phoenix then Prescott delivered with a three-run clout during a five-run surge in the second inning to start veteran Vic Lombardi toward the exits.

The Giants exploded for another five-run inning in the night-cap and did it their first time up to give Dom Zanni a nice cushion as he posted his 11th triumph.

O'Brien held the Mounties to three singles at Vancouver where Salt Lake also used a five-run rally in the fifth inning to sew up the game. A two-run triple by Carlos Bernier featured the attack and dropped Gordy Sundin to his eighth defeat.

Bamberger, although pelted for nine hits in seven innings, then hurled the Mounties into the black again. Manager Larry Shepard of Salt Lake took over the pitching chores and gave up a homer to Barry Shetrone in the first inning which had the Bees' boss in trouble right away.

Wall Wins In Eastern

Baltimore, Md.—(UPI)—When it comes to playoffs in golf tournaments, put your money on Art Wall.

That appears to be the lesson taught by the Eastern Open golf championship which ended here Sunday with Wall beating Jackie Burke and Bob Rosburg in a "sudden death" playoff for the title. It was Wall's sixth major golf victory—and his fourth via a playoff.

The tourney veteran from Pocono Manor, Pa., tied Burke and Rosburg at 276 for 72 holes by sinking a 20-foot putt for a birdie on the last hole, and then beat them on the first extra hole by sinking an eight-footer for another birdie.

Suggs Nabs Links Title

French Lick, Md. — (UPI) — Louise Suggs, Atlanta, Ga., held the French Lick Women's Open golf championship today —mainly by reason of four missed putts by her title opponent.

Marlene Bauer Hagge looked good to win the crown. After a touch-and-go match Mrs. Hagge had a one-stroke edge, but collapsed with five putts on the 17th green to yield the championship Sunday to the Atlanta golfer.

Miss Suggs carded a 72 for the final round and wound up with 300 for the $7,500 72-hole tourney.

Fay Crocker of Uruguay finished in second place with 302. Mrs. Hagge, who had a 78 for the final 18, was third with 303.

CHINOOK VICTOR

Portland —(UPI)— The feature Red Handicap of an annual three-day regatta on the Columbia River here sponsored by the Portland Yacht club was won Saturday by Jarvis Gould and his crew of the "Chinook No. 1." A total of 57 sailboats were in competition.

ROSE WINS TOURNEY

Deauville, France — (UPI) — Mervyn Rose of Australia won the men's title at the Deauville tennis tournament Sunday by defeating Robert Haillet of France, 2-6, 3-6, 7-5, 7-5, 6-1.
