Greyhound Drivers Cited for Safety

Six Medford drivers for Western Greyhound lines have received recognition for safe driving, according to John M. Mumaw, safety supervisor for the lines, Portland.

Roland E. Worth received a watch for 10 years of safe driving. Other awards went to Julius A. Momen, 18-year award; William F. Morrison, 14-year award; Carl A. Newman, 11-year award; Edo E. Bartolomei, nine-years; and Lewis F. Linton, seven years.

The awards were presented for the month of June. Mumaw said the company estimates that a driver receiving the 10-year safety award would drive about 500,000 miles without an accident.
