Stock Prices Rise On Active Trading

New York—(UPI)—Relieved of fears of a margin rise, stocks rose on active trading today.

Higher prices for steel, copper, and aluminum helped the advance along with the best market showing in the metal shares.

Favorable corporation reports dotted the list of companies making their earnings known.

Aluminum issues showed gains ranging to two points in Alcoa which initiated a 7/10th cent a pound rise in aluminum last night. Reynolds Metals followed and other producers were expected to get into line.
