Foreign Students Tour Valley Industries and Area

Recent valley visitors were four foreign students and a director who were guests of the Medford Junior Chamber of Commerce while in the valley. This is the second year that the Jaycees have sponsored the World Tour exchange.

Arriving here Tuesday were Robert Widmer, St.

Gall, Switzerland; Albert Burger, Lucerne, Switzerland; Asgerd Dehle, Oslo, Norway; Susumu Nagai, Hokyo, Japan; and Miss Laverne Brady, North Carolina, conductor of the tour.

The group arrived by private car and were taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan P. Bosworth Jr. where a reception was held. Among those attending were Mayor John Snider and Mrs. Snider and members of the Jaycees. The students were overnight guests of the Bosworths, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Reeder, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd E. Lewis, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones.

Toured Industries
Wednesday the group accompanied by Charles E. Jones, Jaycee chairman, visited valley industries. They watched pear picking at Hillcrest orchards and the packing of the fruit at Pinnacle Packing company. Following lunch at the Rogue Valley Country club, the group toured Medford corporation where Chandler Drew explained the process from the logpond to the shipping department.

That evening the students accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Jones attended the Ashland Shakespearean festival production of "Merchant of Venice." Thursday morning the group left for San Francisco. Prior to their arrival in the valley, the group traveled through the Badlands of the Dakotas, attended a rodeo at Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, and Crater Lake National park. Medford and Salem were the only Oregon cities visited by the group.
