

Three valley women Friday afternoon were hostesses for a tea in honor of Mrs. C. Elwood Hedberg who plans to move to Portland soon. The hostesses, Mrs. Marjorie Olds (above left), Mrs. Raymond Fish and Mrs. C. O. Lovejoy (right) greet the honored guest as she arrived at the Lovejoy home on Old Military road. Mrs. Hedberg chose a medium green frock with the new low-waist silhouette for the tea. The Hedbergs have lived in Jackson county many years and recently Mr. Hedberg was transferred to the Portland office of the First National Bank of Oregon. Below are part of the 100 women who attended the event. At left is Mrs. Leonard Mayfield who chats with Mrs. William Edwards, and Mrs. Joe A. Moore. Mr. Moore succeeded Mr. Hedberg as manager of the Medford branch of the First National Bank of Oregon. In the center background in the striped frock is Mrs. Royal Bebb. Many of the guests wore the popular bright floral print dresses.

Afternoon Tea Honors Local Woman Friday

Mrs. C. Elwood Hedberg, wife of the former manager of the Medford branch of the First National Bank of Oregon, was honored at a tea Friday afternoon at the Old Military road home of Mrs. C. O. Lovejoy.

Hostesses for the event were Mrs. Lovejoy, Mrs. Marjorie Olds and Mrs. Raymond Fish. Approximately 100 friends of the honored guest attended the tea between the hours of three and five.

The tea was a farewell event for Mrs. Hedberg who will move to Portland in the near future. Mr. Hedberg was transferred to the Portland office of the bank last month after the family had made their home in the valley for many years.

Pouring during the tea were Mrs. John Moffat, Mrs. Ward Hammond, Mrs. Fred Carr, Mrs. Charles Stafford, Mrs. R. J. O'Sullivan, Mrs. W. M. Hamlin, and Mrs. William Clegg.

Hibiscus floated in a shallow bowl decorated the serving table while dahlias and gladioli decorated the rooms for the event.

Among the guests attending was Mrs. Joe A. Moore, wife of the present manager of the local branch of the Oregon bank.

Family Returns From Reunion In Colorado

Central Point — Mr. and Mrs. Lester P. Mathes, 153 West Pine street, Central Point returned last week from Glenn Haven, Colo., where the Mathes family held its first complete family reunion in 45 years.

The Matheses motored to Colorado for the reunion which lasted from July 19 to 22. Brothers and sisters of Mr. Mathes who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Leo V. Mathes, McAllen, Texas; Mrs. Gladys Richmond, Boulder, Colo.; Mrs. Vesta Turner, Greeley, Colo.; Mr. and Mrs. Roy I. Wood, Hutchinson, Kan.; Virgil I. Mathes, Junction City, Kan.; and Vernon C. Mathes, Riverside, Calif.

Other members of the family who attended the gathering were Mrs. Mae Neal, daughter of the Richmonds, and her three children, of Adams, Colo.; Mrs. Turner's son, Leota Ray, and family, Greeley, Colo.; the Wood's son, Leo Wood and family, Topeka, Kan.; and the daughter of Vernon Mathes, Gerry, Riverside, Calif.

he last family reunion was held in Perryton, Texas, in May, 1957. Plans are being made for a reunion in 1960.

Tea To Aid Needy Patients

Plans are completed for the annual silver tea to be given by the Women's association of the First Presbyterian church of Medford.

The tea is to be held Tuesday, August 5, from 2 until 5 p.m. at the R. A. Skinner home on Hillsdale drive. Traditionally, funds given at this tea are used for medical supplies for use in the mission field of the church. This year, for the first time, the money is to be sent overseas, to be used in assisting needy patients. The sum gathered will be divided among 40 hospitals, to help pay for surgical and medical care of patients unable to pay who are treated in the areas where Presbyterian foreign missions operate.

Musical selections will be provided by Harlaele Wilson, violinist, Mrs. Stanley Lacy, soprano, Mrs. Ward McQuat at the organ, and the trio from the Shakespearean festival.

Members of the executive board of the Women's association will pour during the afternoon.

Two of the guests at the Friday afternoon tea honoring Mrs. C. Elwood Hedberg paused at the serving table to talk with Mrs. John Moffat, one of the several women who poured during the event. In the floral print frock is Mrs. William B. Clegg while at right is Mrs. Robert T. Johnston who chose a sun yellow dress for the occasion. Hibiscus blossoms floating in a shallow bowl decorated the serving table while dahlias and gladioli were used to decorate the rooms for the event.

Bert Elliotts Host Visitors

Recent guests at the Bert R. Elliott home on Hanley road were Mrs. Elliott's five sisters and two brothers, the occasion being a family reunion. The event was held in the Grants Pass park with 48 of the Martin family attending.

Members of the family staying at the Elliott home were Mrs. Anna Clark, San Jose, Calif.; Mrs. Isabel Elder, Los Gatos, Calif.; the Rev. and Mrs. David P. Martin from Cebu, Philippine Islands; Mrs. Ernest McCaw and daughter, Carolyn, of Prescott, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson, close friends of the Martins from Philadelphia, Penn.; and Robert Martin, son of the Martins of Berkeley, Calif.

Other members of the family who were guests during the reunion week included brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William Shepard of Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. James Martin, Estacada, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Brown, Felton, Calif.; and Mrs. Jessie Martin, wife of the late George P. Martin.

The youngest member of the family was Bruce Martin Grubb, born June 23 to Mr. and Mrs. Martin B. Grubb of Los Angeles. Mr. Grubb is a son of Mrs. Bert Elliott.

More recent guests at Elliott Farm were Mrs. Alice Abbie Smith of Somerset, Mass., and Mrs. Maybelle Terry, formerly of Boston, Mass., now living in Oswego, Ore. The Elliotts became acquainted with Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Terry while on a Mediterranean and Holy Land tour in 1955.

July 20 the Elliotts attended the annual reunion of the Elliott family at Dallas, Ore. About 40 members were present. On their return to Medford, they had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCowan of Columbus, Mo. Mr. McCowan recently retired as vice president of Schaffer Pen company. They also were with the Elliotts on the Holy Land tour.
