Gasquet Park Setting For Gray-Hoover Rites

Cave Junction—An outdoor woodland setting in Gasquet park was the scene Saturday, July 19, of the wedding of Miss Donna Louise Gray and Thomas H. Hoover, both of San Francisco, Calif. The Rev. Martin Brown of the Bridgeview Community church officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred F. Gray, given in marriage by her father, wore a blue tulle dress with yellow accessories and carried a white Bible with a white orchid.

The maid of honor, Miss Roxie Looper, cousin of the bride, wore a pastel lavender dress with deep purple corsage.

Mrs. David Looper, grandmother of the bride, was soloist.

The bridegroom, son of Mrs. Doris Baker of San Francisco, was attended by David L. Looper, grandfather of the bride, as best man.

White and pastel gladiolus decorated the bride's table where the young couple cut the tiered wedding cake. A picnic dinner was served before the newlyweds left on their wedding trip to Oregon Caves.

The bride has spent a part of every summer in the valley for the past 15 years and attended Kerby school. She was also a member of Job's Daughters here.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoover will make their home in San Francisco.

Returns Home

Mrs. Maude Boswell, Culver City, Calif., returned to her home Saturday after spending a week in the valley as a guest of Mrs. J. A. Seiler, 1132 West Main street. Mrs. Boswell formerly lived in Central Point.

Eagle Point Rites Wed Valley Couple

Eagle Point—The New Age church, Eagle Point, was the setting Saturday, July 26, for the wedding of Miss Barbara Jean Bettencourt and Melvyn Brian Arent. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Bettencourt, route 1, box 51, Jacksonville. Mr. Arent is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe T. Arent, box 118, Butte Falls Star route, Eagle Point.

The Rev. D. E. Millard officiated at the 1:30 o'clock afternoon wedding attended by 70 relatives and friends. Mrs. Millard played the traditional wedding music and Mr. Millard was soloist.

The bride wore a white lace ballerina length dress with fingertip length veil which was held by a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of gardenias encircled by orange blossoms. Mr. Bettencourt gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Shirley Bettencourt attended her sister. She wore a yellow nylon ballerina length frock with white carnation corsage.

Robert O. Greb, Eagle Point, served as best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held. Mrs. Victor Hansen, aunt of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake and Miss Shirley Bettencourt, sister of the bride, presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Bettencourt, mother of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception Mrs. Bettencourt wore a light blue chemise frock with white accessories. Mrs. Arent chose a light blue sheath dress with white accessories. Their corsages were of gardenias.

The newlywed couple are making their home in Medford following a wedding trip to the Oregon coast. For her traveling attire the bride wore a light green linen suit.

The bride attended Eagle Point High school and will graduate from Jacksonville High school next year. Mr. Arent is a graduate of Eagle Point High school and is employed by Armin-Richter and associates in Medford.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. William Schnidling, Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Plass, Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Elga Abbott, Butte Falls, Mrs. Bessie Shradler, Myrtle Point, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Arent, Chico, Mr. and Mrs. Bent V. Petersen, Oakland, and Miss Beryl Arent, San Francisco.

Shower Honors Portland Woman

Eagle Point—Mrs. Richard Atkinson, Portland, the former Judy Rankin, formerly of Eagle Point, was honored at a bridal shower last month at the Fred Farlow home, Brownsboro road, Eagle Point. Mrs. Atkinson was accompanied to the area by her mother, Mrs. Clarence Rankin, Portland, for the event.

Hostesses for the shower were cousins of Mrs. Atkinson, Miss Lois Farlow and Miss Sandy Farlow. Attending were relatives and friends of the Portland woman.

Games were played during the evening and refreshments were served.

Attending were Mrs. Harold Grow and Nanette, Mrs. Robert Campbell, Mrs. James Maxie, Mrs. James Damon, Mrs. Harold Meyers, Mrs. Claude Waddell, Mrs. Clifford Roush, Mrs. Golden Zundel, Mrs. Jack Fortin, Mrs. Earl Farlow, Mrs. George Swinney, Mrs. Vincent Swinney, Mrs. Clarence Rankin, Miss Linda Nease, Mrs. Ruth Natwick, Mrs. Charles Morris, Mrs. Don Force, Mrs. Robert Damon, Mrs. Lee Damon, Mrs. Lloyd Damon, Mrs. Cecil Campbell, Mrs. Edward R. Chamberlain, Mrs. Margery Hobbs and Glenna, the honored guest, and the hostesses.

Mrs. Atkinson is a granddaughter of Tom Farlow, Lakeview, and has visited the Eagle Point area during the summers. She married Richard Atkinson in Portland in June.

Teachers Make Home In Medford Following Trip

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Russell are making their home at 1139 West Main street, Medford, following their return from a wedding trip to Oklahoma, Arkansas, Texas, Michigan and Yellowstone National park.

Mrs. Russell is the former Claudette Jane Worthen, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Travis J. Worthen, Coos Bay. Mr. Russell is a son of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Russell, 1139 West Main street, Medford.

The couple were married in a double ring ceremony held recently at the First Baptist church, Coos Bay. The Rev. Nixon Knight officiated at the two o'clock afternoon ceremony attended by 50 relatives and friends.

Baskets of calla lilies and white gladiolus decorated the church for the June 15 event. Mrs. William Worthen, sister-in-law of the bride, was soloist and Miss Penny Signalless played the traditional organ wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a waltz length dress of white nylon lace fashioned with scoop neckline, short sleeves and satin back bow. She carried a white Bible with an orchid and lily of the valley.

Miss Merrill Simington, Portland, was honor attendant, and Mrs. Max Williams, Torrance, Calif., sister of the bride, was bridesmatron. They wore princess style frocks and carried colonial bouquets of white carnations. Miss Simington was in aquamarine while Mrs. Williams was in yellow.

Jack Henry, of Ashland, served as best man while Max Williams, Torrance, Calif., and William Worthen, Coos Bay, brother of the bride, seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception which followed Mrs. Worthen chose a light blue sheath frock with matching accessories. Mrs. Russell wore a beige lace dress with white accessories. Their corsages were of yellow rosebuds and white carnations.

Yellow rosebuds and white snapdragons decorated the rooms where the reception was held.

Immediately following the reception the couple left on their wedding trip. For her traveling attire the bride chose a yellow sheath frock with white accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Southern Oregon college and will teach the second grade at Lone Pine school this fall. Mr. Russell is a graduate of Southern Oregon college and is senior English teacher at Crater High school.

Out of town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Loy Judkins and her daughter, Judy, and Mrs. Lee McFains and son, Gary, all of Nowato, Okla. Mrs. Judkins and Mrs. McMains are aunts of the bridegroom.

Couple Make Home Here Following Ashland Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wayne Hart are making their home at Royal Oaks Trailer park, Medford, following their return from a wedding trip to the Oregon coast. The couple were married recently at First Methodist church, Ashland, in a ceremony held at seven o'clock in the evening.

Carlton B. Abbott, father of the bride, officiated at the double ring ceremony attended by 100 relatives and friends.

Mrs. Hart is the former Sharon Louise Abbott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Abbott, 1106 Paradise lane, Ashland. Mr. Hart is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hart, 3405 Lone Pine road.

Mrs. Frank Davis played the traditional organ wedding music and accompanied David Curtis, soloist. Baskets of pink and white gladiolus decorated the church for the June 14 ceremony.

The bride wore a floor length gown of Italian lace and tulle. Her veil of illusion was held by a seed pearl and lace cap and she carried a white orchid encircled by stephanotis and lily of the valley. Clarence Abbott, San Francisco, gave his niece in marriage.

Miss Lynda Abbott served as honor attendant for her sister while bridesmaids were Miss Beryl Boshard, and Miss Paul Phillips, Eugene. They wore pastel crystalline frocks in green, pink and blue and carried matching cascade bouquets of Ester Reed daisies. Little Pamela Perrien served as flower girl for her aunt. She wore a pink frock styled as the other attendants and carried a basket filled with rose petals.

Garry Hart, Medford, served as best man for his brother while Larry Green and Warren Stearns, Medford, seated the guests. Garry Le Blanc, nephew of the bride, served as ring bearer.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Wesley house in Ashland.

The bride attended Ashland schools and Southern Oregon college. Mr. Hart attended Medford schools and Southern Oregon college and is an engineer aid with the United States Forest Service.
