

STATE SOFTBALL TOURNEY HOSTESSES—Rogue Valley Dairy Maids, above, are the hostesses for the women's state tournament of the Oregon State Softball association which will be held Thursday through Sunday, Aug. 7, through 10, at the Veterans Administration domiciliary, Camp White. From the left in the front row are Diane Wall, Betty Ann Higday, Arlene Hoffman, Doris Dickson, Bernice Bigham and Jan Bateman. In the back row, left to right, are Coach Elmer Harnish, Ellen Callaghan, Nadine Brood, Mary Ellen Atterbury, Jean Main, Jean Bitterling, Irma Penwell and Coach S. W. (Shy) Callaghan. Not shown are Pat Barron and Shirley Hanson. The Maids up to this week end had a 12-win 5-loss record against ladies' teams. Statistics show Miss Callaghan as top hitter with .370 and Penwell following with .307. Miss Bigham, shortstop, and Callaghan, center-fielder, were all-state in 1956. The Maids have met Eugene, Astoria and Klamath Falls, among tourney entries, in previous games this season, winning from each more often than losing. Rogue Valley meets Hillsboro next Thursday night in its tourney opener. The Milk Producers league sponsors the Dairy Maids. Eagle Point Lions club is tournament sponsor.

Irving, Ore., rather than Springfield, will be represented in the women state tournament of the Oregon State Softball association, Thursday through Sunday, Aug. 7 through 10, at the Veterans Administration domiciliary Memorial stadium at Camp White.

Committeemen of the Eagle Point Lions club stated that Wood-Tex Products, Irving, will sponsor the team. Players from the surrounding community and from Roseburg will be on the roster. A report from the tourney sponsoring Lions and from the state association says that "the spirit of these girls is wonderful and they should show well in the tourney."

Irving will be one of eight clubs entered in the state meet, which will be a double elimination affair.

Four Games Thursday

Thursday night's first round games will be on two separate diamonds. Klamath Falls Basinettes will play Madras Merchettes at 7:30 p.m. and Eugene McCulloch Chain Saw will oppose Astoria at 9 p.m. at Eagle Point High school. At the VA stadium the Salem Shamrocks will battle Irving at 7:30 p.m. and the hostess Rogue Valley Dairy Maids will take on Hillsboro at 9 p.m.

All games during the remaining three days will be on the Camp White field. Beaten teams Thursday tumble into a losers bracket and contend Friday afternoon. Friday night action is set for the Thursday victors.

Friday and Saturday slates call for four games each with two and possibly three scuffles on Sunday. Third game on Sunday will be contested, if after the second hassle neither of the finalists has been beaten twice.

Qualifies for Regional Tournament champion will qualify for the regional tourney at Forest Grove which is Aug. 21 through 24. Forest Grove won the 1957 state tourney but is not defending since it will play as host team in the regional.

Women's softball, once sort of an orphan in Oregon sports activities, is in its fourth year under direction of the state association, which previously worked only with men's softball. Portland city recreation department formerly handled the state women's tourney which was open to league winners and independent nines.

When the program began to grow in popularity, other cities wanted to host the meet. Bidding became so intense that a group was needed to select the sites and hand out instructions. Klamath Falls was host in 1955 and 1956 and Eugene in 1957.

It is hoped that next year a full field of 16 clubs will be entered in the tourney.

Booster Tickets

Veterans Administration regulations do not permit making a charge for admission at the stadium gates but do allow collections to be taken at games. For that reason books of 10 booster tickets are being sold. When the collection receptacle is passed, fans may drop in booster tickets in lieu of cash. Single booster tickets may be bought but the books afford considerable saving for individuals or groups who plan to see the full tourney, or, at least, a number of the games.

Books are on sale at Lamport's Sporting Goods store here or can be obtained from Lions or Rogue Valley Dairy Maids.

Lions are having programs printed for the tourney. Contrary to a previous report, there will be a slight charge to fans for the programs.

Cox, Schireman to Fill Jacksonville Positions

Jacksonville — Dealous L. Cox will be Jacksonville high school head coach in foot and baseball next school year while Glenn E. Schireman will be chief coach in inuiting in track.

School Superintendent John J. Crabb said that Cox and Schireman were named to replace William D. Seymour, who resigned to accept a Marine Corps commission.

Seymour was head man in football, basketball and baseball last year. Schireman has been head track mentor and assistant in football and basketball. Cox has been a grade school coach here for three years.

Colley Appointed

Herb Colley, from Southern Oregon college, will assume the grade school coaching duties.

Cox, a former Talent High school athlete, attended the Northwest Nazarene college and Southern Oregon college and Schireman went to University of Oregon. Colley was active in athletics in former Central Point High school.

Seymour, a little All-American footballer at Southern Oregon, is scheduled to enter military service in September.

Senate Committee Tables Sports Anti-Trust Bill

Washington — (UPI) — The bill all baseball was hoping would be enacted went by the boards—for lack of time and lack of desire to give the game "a blank check."

The bill, which already had been approved by the House, would have exempted baseball and other professional team sports from the anti-trust laws.

At a closed-door session Friday, the Senate anti-monopoly subcommittee decided to table the measure, thereby killing all chance of any sports legislation at the present session of Congress. Action was prompted by the fact the Senate did not have sufficient time before adjournment to draft "an acceptable" substitute" for the House-approved bill.

Sen. Joseph C. O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.) who offered the motion to table the bill, critically called it a "blank check... and owners' bill."

Speed Boat Flips But Driver Unhurt

Las Vegas, Nev. — (UPI) — Shanty II, sleek unlimited class hydroplane owned by Bill Waggoner of Phoenix, Ariz., flipped over in Lake Mead Saturday, but its driver escaped serious injury.

Shanty II was prevented from sinking by its regular pilot, Col. Russell Schlee, and others who witnessed the accident between Lake Mead Marina and Boulder island.

However, the superstructure was reported damaged and the craft will have to undergo repairs before further testing. National Park officials here were told.

Mechanic Howard Gidovlenko was in the Shanty II at the time of the accident. The craft was traveling about 60 miles per hour when it flipped, apparently when Gidovlenko attempted a short turn.

Gidovlenko was taken to a nearby hospital for treatment of minor injuries. Schlee and others, including mechanic George Weatherpoon, pulled him from the water immediately after the accident.

The hull was apparently not damaged, but the Shanty II probably will be returned to California for repairs on the superstructure, it was indicated.

Schlee had been testing the hydroplane and was hopeful it could be entered in the Gold Cup at Seattle.

Football Clinic Here August 13

An Oregon School Activities association clinic for prospective game officials and for coaches will be held on Wednesday, Aug. 13 at Medford Senior High school.

The session will be conducted by A. Oden Hawes, assistant secretary-treasurer of the OSAA.

Hawes will show a film, "Football for Millions," and will lead discussion on rule changes. He will summarize rules and the mechanics of officiating. Tests for certification as officials will be available.

North Bend Nine Tops Roseburg

North Bend, Ore. — (UPI) — North Bend will meet the Capital Post of Salem at Salem in the semi-finals of the Oregon State American Junior Legion baseball playoffs as a result of its 3-2 victory over Roseburg here Friday night.

The coast city also won its game Thursday night in the best two out of three series. Earlier in play-offs North Bend had defeated Klamath Falls in two out of three games.

Yogi Berra Slams Team To 6-1 Win, Yanks Lead by 17

By United Press International

Yogi Berra, complaining of headaches lately, provided the Chicago White Sox with an even bigger one Saturday when he drove in all the runs in a 6-1 victory that stretched the New York Yankees' lead to 17 games in the lopsided American league race.

Berra, who missed a few games last week because he wasn't feeling well, accounted for the Yankees' six runs with a single, a three-run homer and a two-run double. Art Ditmar held the White Sox to eight hits in gaining his seventh victory. Early Wynn absorbed his 11th loss against nine triumphs.

The surging Cleveland Indians reeled off their seventh straight victory and took over second place with a 4-1 decision over the Boston Red Sox. Jim (Mudcat) Grant doled out only four hits, one of them being Jackie Jensen's 30th homer, in gaining his ninth victory. It was the third straight four-hit effort turned in by a Cleveland pitcher.

Cleveland gave Grant all the margin he needed with two runs in the second inning on Russ Nixon's single and Minnie Minoso's 15th homer. Tom Brewer was the loser.

Frank Bolling's three-run homer in the seventh inning carried the Detroit Tigers to an 8-7 victory over the Baltimore Orioles.

Starter Jim Bunning, still trying for his first victory since pitching his no-hitter against Boston on July 30, was taken to a five-run lead by the Tigers but couldn't hold it. Baltimore tied the score in the third when Willie Miranda homered and Gus Triandos hit a grand-slam homer.

Bolling's homer came off reliever Billy Loes after the Orioles had gone ahead, 6-5. Al Cicotte was the winning pitcher.

Washington was at Kansas City in a night game.

Kubs Clout Camp White

Camp White — Camp White will be host to Prospect at 1:30 p.m. today for a Rogue Valley league baseball game.

Klamath Falls—The Klamath Falls Cubs, one of the top clubs of the Northern California league, went on scoring sprees in the third and fourth innings Friday night to thrash Camp White of the Rogue Valley league 13 to 1 in a semi-pro baseball encounter.

Ron Conner slapped a three-run homer in the third inning when Klamath got five runs and Jerry Burke dished in the fourth inning when seven markers were tabulated. Conner knocked the ball into the deepest part of Gem stadium, 410 feet from home.

Bob Kelly, Dorm Martin and Conner each had three hits for Klamath. Wayne Hironaka chucked five-hit ball, walking one and fanning five.

The Cubs tagged Jim Eggers of Camp White for 12 hits. Gary Hueners relieved on the mound in the fifth. He gave up just four hits the rest of the route but the damage already had been inflicted.

Stanford to Request Conference Talks

Stanford, Calif. — (UPI) — will propose next week that Stanford announced plans Saturday to call for a dissolution of the squabbling Pacific Coast conference, but with the purpose of opening a general discussion on whether the organization should stay alive or not.

Southern California, UCLA, California and Washington already have announced they will secede from the PCC. The three California schools said they would bolt next July 1 while Stanford had been sitting on the fence.

Chuck Taylor, the Indians assistant athletic director, said Friday that his school

Nimrods Given Reminder About Unit Hunt Deadline

Oregon nimrods are being reminded by state game commission representatives that they only have until Aug. 18 to apply for the free permits to take advantage of the new unit type hunts for the killing of antlerless deer this fall.

The unit system replaces the former hunter's choice deer seasons. Game officials stated that hunter response to the new program, since it was announced, so far has been "inadequate," indicating that hunters to a large extent are not aware of the new system.

Application forms to fill out and complete information on the unit program may be obtained from any game commission license agency in the state. Antlerless deer harvests will be permitted in almost all of the units in Oregon "this fall and a nimrod can apply to hunt in any unit he wishes to choose."

Drawings Aug. 25

The applications must be in the hands of the game department by Aug. 18. Draws for permits to the various units will be conducted on Aug. 25. General buck deer season this year will be Oct. 4 through 26. Antlerless deer hunting will be allowed only during the latter part of the season, Oct. 18 through 26. Only persons with the free

Braves Widen League Lead, Crush San Francisco 10-0; Pirates Take Ninth Win

BY UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL

The Milwaukee Braves, beginning to break open that once-tight National league race, widened their lead to three games Saturday when they crushed the San Francisco Giants, 10-0, on a 13-hit attack and the four-hit pitching of Rookie Carlton Willey.

Milwaukee's barrage included home runs by Mel Roach, Hank Aaron and Wes Covington, in addition to two doubles by Aaron and one by Willey.

Willey allowed only three giant base-runners to reach second base as he gained his fifth victory. Stu Miller was the loser.

Vern Law handed the Cardinals their second straight shutout and sixth successive defeat in pitching the Pirates to a 1-0 triumph. Law yielded only three hits and the Pirates scored the only run of the game in the first inning off Sam Jones when Bob Skinner singled home Bill Virgon.

It was the third-place Pirates' ninth victory in the last 11 games. The victory brought Law's record to 8-8 and the loss made Jones' record 9-9. A two-run homer by Joe Pignatano and some classy relief pitching by Clem Labine combined to give Dodgers a 3-2 win over the Redlegs.

Pignatano belted his two-run homer off loser Joe Nuxhall in the third and the Dodgers increased their margin to 3-0 when Carl Furillo singled home another run in the fourth.

Winning Pitcher San Williams blanked the Redlegs until Frank Robinson hit his 18th homer in the seventh. A walk and a single finished Williams in the eighth and Labine came on and preserved the victory even though George Crowe singled home Cincinnati's final run in that frame.

A three-run homer by pinch hitter Walt Moryn powered the Chicago Cubs to a 6-5 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies.

Moryn's wallop gave Bill Henry, Chicago's third pitcher, his fourth victory. Bob Miller was the loser.

The Phils scored all their runs in the second inning which was featured by Chico Fernandez' two-run homer, in the top of the second, the Cubs had scored three runs with the aid of Bobby Thomson's homer.
