

Upstart Pirates Halt Braves 4-3 on Ninth Inning Homer

United Press International
Those upstart Pittsburgh Pirates have "braked" the Milwaukee Braves' threatened runaway—and there may yet be a pennant race in the National league.

The Pirates, battling to finish in the first division for the first time since 1948, snapped the Braves' six-game winning streak, 4-3, Monday night on a ninth-inning homer by Roberto Clemente. The San Francisco Giants, who beat the Chicago Cubs, 6-4, in an afternoon game, thus moved within four games of the Braves and the Pirates moved up to within six of the world champions.

And so, all the talk of a Milwaukee runaway that started after the Braves' four-game weekend sweep of the Giants, is quieted. The Braves may go on to win another pennant but their opposition hasn't given up yet.

Best In the Majors
The Pirates, now three games ahead of the fourth-place Cubs, have won four straight games and 17 of 26, a .654 pace since July 4 when they were in seventh place. For the last week or so, they've been getting the best pitching in either league—they had a string of 34 consecutive scoreless innings when the Braves scored in the third inning Monday night—and they're getting long-bat punch from such relatively under-publicized players as Clemente, Bob Skinner and Dick Stuart.

Skinner drove in the Pirates' first three runs Monday night with a two-run single in the first inning and an infield out in the fifth. That produced a 3-3 tie that stood until Clemente's ninth-inning homer gave rookie Curt Raydon his fifth win and

Juan Pizarro his first loss since returning from Wichita. Mays Finally Homers
Raydon, who yielded to a pinch-hitter in the ninth, gave up eight hits and struck out four batters. Elroy Face, the Pirates 155-pound relief workhorse, pitched a perfect ninth.

Willie Mays showed signs of going off on another "tear" when he hit a homer, double and single and stole a base to spark the Giants' eight-hit attack. The homer was Willie's 17th and first since July 2. He doubled in the fifth, stole third and scored on Bob Schmidt's single to break a 4-4 tie.

Ex-Minnesota football star Paul Giel received credit for his third win although 41-year-old Marv Grissom came in to stop a Chicago threat in the ninth.

Yanks Widen Lead
Rookie Gene Green hit his eighth homer of the year in the sixth inning to give the St. Louis Cardinals a 3-2 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers and the New York Yankees increased their American league lead to 16 games with a 9-4 win over the Baltimore Orioles in the only other major league activity.

Larry Jackson, one of the Cardinals' "hot-and-cold" pitchers, pitched a five-hitter and struck out 12 as the Redbirds ended their seven-game losing streak.

Ryne Duren, making his first appearance since he was hit by one of Paul Foytack's pitches 11 days ago, no-hit the Orioles for the last three innings to preserve Don Larsen's eighth victory. Homers by Bill Skowron and Mickey Mantle sparked the Yankees' 12-hit attack.

KENNEL CLUB SHOW SOON—Ch. Merrie Oak's Knight of Folly, owned by Mr. and Mrs. George Stacey, East Fairview dr., will be one of the Medford champions entered in the Southern Oregon Kennel club's annual dog show and obedience trial. The event is scheduled for Sunday, Aug. 31, at the Medford High school stadium. Plans are being completed. Owners of registered dogs, who feel that they have a good representative of their breeds and wish to enter them in the show, are advised to inquire by Aug 12 concerning entry blanks. Owners may telephone Spring 2-9333, Spring 2-2209 and K.Eystone 5-2243. The tri-colored collie, shown here with Mrs. Stacey and Judge Virgil Johnson, Savannah, Ga., at a Salem show, was best of breed in the competition, taking that honor for the ninth time this season and gaining its sixth group placing.

MEDFORD TRIBUNE SPORTS

Madras Merchantnettes Bring Good Record Into Oregon Softball Tourney

Madras Merchantnettes will carry one of the best season records into the women's state softball tournament if their most recent success compares to that submitted along with other team information for the event.

The tourney is billed for Thursday through Sunday, Aug. 7 through 10, with most of the contest at Veterans Administration domiciliary Memorial stadium, Camp White.

At last report Madras had a mark for the season of 11 victories against two defeats. The Merchantnettes, who play Klamath Falls in their Thursday opener, have five players with .300 batting averages or over. Heading the list is Mary Croxen, pitcher, at .340. Wilma Harden, catcher, has .325. Mary Jane Snapp, centerfielder, .333. Dorthy Yaw, second base, .305, and Mary Jo Meade, first base, .300.

Others Listed

Madras coach is Joe Gannin.

Klamath Falls and Madras clash at 7:30 p.m. and Eugene and Astoria at 9 p.m. on the Eagle Point high field in Thursday's first round. Salem is billed against Irving at 7:30 p.m. and Rogue Valley Dairy Maids against Hillsboro at 9 p.m. at the Veterans Administration diamond. All remaining games of the double elimination tourney will be at the Camp White field.

Eagle Point Lions club is sponsor of the tournament. Booster tickets are on sale at Lampport's Sporting Goods store. Lions and Dairy Maids also have the books of tickets.

Joe Matlack, Klamath Falls, will be umpire-in-chief for the tournament and other arbiters will be Pete Cornacchia, Eugene, and Darrell Copeland and Bert Simmons, Eagle Point.

Hunting Archers Will Contend

Corvallis—Hunting archers from throughout Oregon will gather Aug. 23 and 24 north of Corvallis for the annual Pope-Young Archery meet to sharpen their aim for the year's hunting season.

The meet annually held Labor Day week-end, has been scheduled a week earlier than usual because of the early opening of the archery season.

The Corvallis-Benton Bowmen will host the meet on their field and entrants will compete in the wand, clout and Pope-Young animal round to test their skill. Numerous prizes will be awarded in each class and for various age groups.

Tackle used in this tourney will be bows and broadhead arrows of legal weight as prescribed by the Game Commission.

Shrine Gridders Getting Into Shape

Portland — UPD — Aches, pains, and foot blisters were the order of the day after Monday's opening drills for both State and Metropolitan football squads in preparation for the 11th annual Shrine all-star football game on Aug. 16.

Coach Lee Gustafson's 27 man State squad got a severe jolt Monday as Keith Burres, star quarterback under Gustafson at South Salem, was ruled out of the contest by doctors because of an ailment.

Burres was to be counted on heavily as the key man in State's T-formation attack. Coach Stresses Blocking Meanwhile Coach Tom DeSylvia ran the Metro squad through a stiff opening day drill in the morning, stressing blocking and tackling.

Both teams, Metro at Lewis and Clark college and State at the University of Portland, were given plenty of calisthenics and running under the hot August sun.

Mickey Sinnerud, Beaverton speedster, showed in Metro vint sprouts that he was the fastest man on the squad. Bob Mautz, Grant guard, was the speediest lineman.

Today the two teams and coaching staffs visit the Shriners' hospital for crippled children.

Multnomah stadium is the site of the annual grid clash.

Barlow Chief of Judges For Regional Water Ski Meet at Gardener Lake

William Barlow Sr., Piedmont, Calif., president of the Pacific Coast council of the American Water Ski association will be chief judge for the Western Regional championships of the ASWA at Gardener lake.

Other principal judges for the meet Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Aug. 8, 9 and 10 will be Floyd Vance, Sacramento, Calif., Rod Sampson, Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. Aileen Williams, Long Beach, Calif., and Archie Van Wyk, Stockton, Calif.

Crater Lions club and Gardener Lake Water Ski club are conducting the tourney on the small private lake north-east of Medford.

Slalom, trick riding and jumping events in men's, women's veterans, junior boys, junior girls and pee wee classes are scheduled during the three days with those getting through fifth places in each event eligible to enter the national tourney.

Exhibitions Scheduled
There will be three full days of competition with events beginning at 9 a.m. each day. In addition to the regular rivalry, exhibitions are slated whenever time permits. There will be barefoot skiing (in which no skis are used) at 35 miles per hour, a demonstration of speed skiing at 65 miles per hour and clown acts.

A full day of activity also is planned for skiers on Thursday. There will be practice runs and some skiers will be attempting to qualify in order to enter the meet. An expert rating is required for the men's division and a first class ranking for the other divisions.

A number of skiers inquiring about the meet have found that they are not qualified under the tough ASWA standards. Some have attempted to meet the required ratings and have been unable.

Meet entries at last report numbered more than 40 and the total final entry list is now expected to be between 60 and 70. Some of the outstanding skiers of the West will participate. Eleven western states are in the region and participants are expected from as far away as Denver, Colo.

Tickets on Sale
Gardener lake, about a 15-mile drive from Medford is a relatively new body of water but its small size and calm waters make it an ideal ski tourney site.

The lake is on Yankee creek, a tributary of Antelope creek. It is filled with winter waste water from about seven square miles of watershed. On the farm of the Victor Gardener family, the lake was built for irrigation. Its recreational features are incidental.

When full the lake has a 55-acre surface and a depth of 50 feet with 1200-acre feet capacity. Earth moving for the reservoir was done in 1951 and the dam fill required 160,000 yards of earth.

Tickets for the water ski meet are on sale at Purucker Piano house, Barker's Men's store and Lampport's Sporting Goods store. Crater Lions also are printing a souvenir program and proceeds will go to the Junior Service league hard of hearing kindergarten.

Camp White Not To Play Tonight
The Camp White-Prospect baseball game will not be played tonight, Bob Smith, manager of the Camp White nine has announced. It had been rumored earlier that the game might be played. Smith also said that the Rogue Valley All Stars will play Drayn at the latter's field Friday night in place of the Camp White club.
