

ILLINOIS VALLEY Class Makes Cougar

By RUTH RAUSCH
Cave Junction — A black cougar with green eyes and white fangs set in the floor of the main entrance hall at Illinois Valley High school will be a lasting reminder of the senior class of 1959.

The 45-by-72-inch image was cut from asphalt tile over a pattern drawn by Mrs. Casey Piller. The work was a summer project conducted by class officers at the home of Jackie Williams.

The class plans to have its first reunion five years after graduation.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Beers entertained Dr. and Mrs. A. N. Collman and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Hamilton at dinner at the Oregon Cave Chateau on the Hamilton's anniversary.

Mrs. A. K. Smith of West Side rd. in Kerby and grandson, Arthur Smith, who is spending the summer here, killed a rattlesnake along the Illinois river Sunday. On their return, their dog scared up and killed a porcupine. The rest of the day was spent in extracting quills from the dog.

Mrs. Marshall Burrows returned from a month's vacation with her parents in Colona, Wis., Wednesday. On Thursday Burrows' nephew and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Humphrey, and children arrived from Stevens Point, Wis., to visit the Burrows.

The closing program for the Cave Junction Community Church Summer Bible school was held in the new building Friday night.

A new idea in conducting summer Bible schools was introduced this year with the assembly type class lectures in story form and the handcraft in individual classes rated according to age groups. The afternoon sessions was also a new institution. The result proved to be most satisfactory.

Mrs. George Martin Jr., was in charge of the program preparations and the Rev. Gene Denning was master of ceremonies.

Teachers and helpers conducting the Bible school were: Mrs. George Martin, Jr., in charge of the story hour, Ruth and DeLila Hill with Gene Hovator were in charge of the handwork. Mr. Denning had the missionary hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Johnson, missionaries from Bolivia, attended the Community church the last week of the Bible school session. They will return to the valley Aug. 17 and will conduct the morning services. For the evening services, they will show colored slides taken of their work.

At 2 p.m. that afternoon, a potluck fellowship dinner will be served in the new building.

Isable Mellow had her son, John, and family from Hayward, Calif., for the week.

At the Frank Mellows for the week end were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Coker of Crescent City, Calif.

Clark England is grooming and preparing the 20 head of sheep he plans to enter in the Josephine County fair. He will also enter his white faced cow and heifer calf.

Doctor Woods was in the valley Sunday testing all the female stock Fair entries of the 4-H clubs, the Illinois Valley Dairy club, the Illinois Valley Livestock club and the FFA show cattle. Tests were made for tuberculosis and bangs diseases.

Logger Dies in Mishap Northwest of Drain

Drain — Wesley Hickman, 35-year-old logger, was killed in a logging accident eight miles northwest of Drain on Smith river at 7:40 a.m. today.

Hickman was cinching up the trailer binders on his truck when the logs shifted and one of them struck and crushed him. He was married and the father of four children.

WILD HORSE DRIVE—The famed wild ponies of Assateague Island, Virginia, are shown completing their annual trek across the channel to Chincoteague where they will be auctioned off at the Fireman's Carival. A huge crowd gathered in boats and on the shore to watch the ponies make the hour-and-15-minute swim. Unsold ponies will be returned to Assateague Island.

Hollywood —UPI— It doesn't cost a nickel to see one of the best movies in town, a 50-year-old charmer made by a French magician whose films were mixing "live" actors with cartoon characters before Walt Disney was born.

The movie, "The Golden Spectacles," belongs to the film library of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences and now is being converted to 16 mm safety film for preservation purposes by Kemp Niver, a leading specialist in the film reclamation field.

Niver makes documentaries and educational films on a full-time basis and works on the academy library as his avocation.

"Up to 1948, when safety film was introduced, all film for theatre projection was on nitrate stock," he explained. "In spite of all care and precaution, nitrate film shrinks and disintegrates with time." That was what was happening to the collection before Niver came up with a means of salvaging the molding film. This is accomplished by rephotographing each frame of the film.

"Another three or four years and there wouldn't have been anything left to salvage," Niver said, opening a container labeled "W. S. Hart" to illustrate his point.

The pungent odor of decay was strong as he handled the film, each frame hand-colored as was the technique in the pre-Technicolor days. The celluloid was laced with rot and buckled with an almost alligator-like finish.

Niver is adamant on the subject of preserving movie classics for historical purposes if no other reason. "Cecil B. DeMille doesn't have a print of his silent movies that he can project," Niver said. "And the same is true of the other early movie makers."

Storage Costly
"They pay storage all these years, and even if it's on their own lot they're paying storage, and all that's left are cans of a highly-inflammable powder which gives off a poisonous gas when burned — and no film."

"It's like paying for a barnful of hay that's not edible. It's silly to pay storage on it." The film was made in 1898 by the magician, George Melies, was one of the first of the Academy's collection to be converted. Niver has 100 other movies including John Bunny comedies filmed in 1907; "Enoch Arden", with Lillian Gish, produced in 1911; "Man's Genesis," with Mas Marsh and Robert Heron in 1912 and "Les Miserables" filmed in France in 1913.

Israeli Minister Asks Guarantees

Paris —UPI— Israeli Foreign Minister Golda Meir plans to ask Gen. Charles de Gaulle for guarantees the West will not sell Israel short at a Middle East summit conference, informed sources said today.

Mrs. Meir was to meet with De Gaulle today.

France has been Israel's staunchest ally since the Suez crisis of 1956.

Informed sources said Israel wants assurance the West will not enter into any deals with Russia that would weaken Israel's position in relation to the position of Israel's Arab neighbors.

Dulles Holds Official Talks in Rio de Janeiro

Rio De Janeiro, Brazil —UPI— Secretary of State John Foster Dulles began a round of official talks today but skipped a visit to a U.S.-sponsored school because police feared they could not protect him properly there.

Dulles began the day with a 75-minute discussion with Foreign Minister Negro de Lima.

Salem —UPI— The state engineer has approved five applications of the Eugene Water and Electric Board to store and appropriate water from the Upper McKenzie river and Smith river for the proposed Carman-Smith hydroelectric plant.

Hatfield Discusses Budgets for Travel

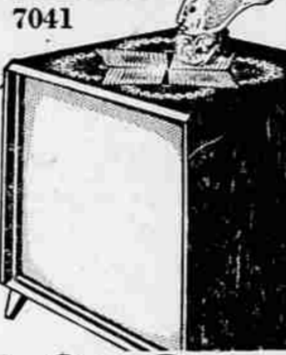

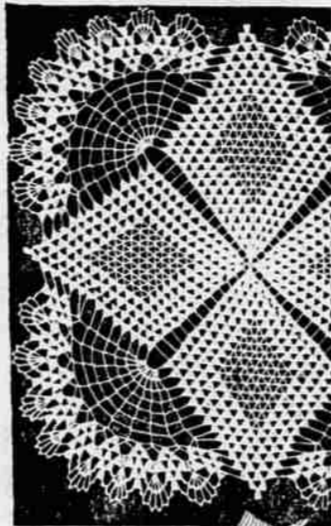

Roseburg —UPI— Oregon spends twice as much for out-of-state travel for its unemployment compensation officials as it has budgeted for the travels of its industrial development representatives, Secretary of State Mark Hatfield said here today.

"It is ironic to find the unemployment compensation fund for out-of-state travel for a two-year period depleted in half that time while noting that it is twice the amount budgeted for out-of-state travel by the Department of Planning and Development," Hatfield observed.

Appearing here for a day of campaigning, Hatfield indi-

WE TAKE

Inside story of out-and-out good service is—training. Men at Standard Stations and Chevron Dealers go to school to learn the best ways to care for your car, from tires to top. But our training doesn't stop there...

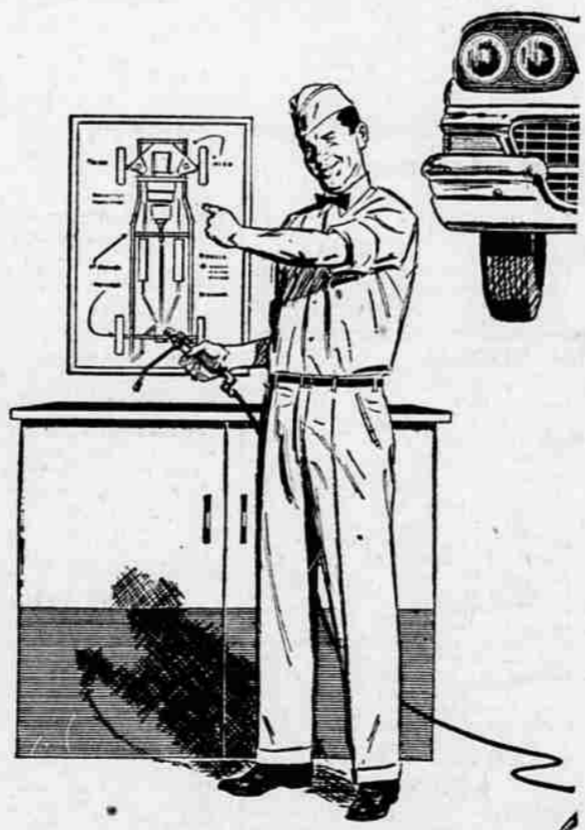

BETTER

We go by the book. When it comes to lubrication, for instance, we have charts that show us how to take care of every make of car, imported and American. They guide us to each grease fitting... and through inspections of tires, transmission, master brake cylinder and the other points that need regular, knowing attention.

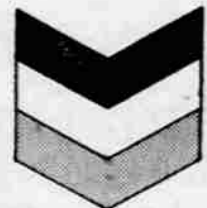

CARE OF

This extra care means your car is safe from wear and guaranteed free from squeaks for a full 1000 miles. It's another reason why every independent survey shows motorists rate the service at the sign of the Chevron "best in the West." And why more Western motorists carry a Chevron National Credit Card for their driving needs.

YOUR CAR

The best way to complete the lubrication work is with an oil change. We recommend RPM Supreme Motor Oil. Its exclusive Detergent-Action compounding keeps parts so clean, protects them so well, engines can outlast the car itself! Check your sticker, and see if you aren't due for a change to this kind of protection.
