

Braves Varsity Back in Stride; Pittsburgh Pirates Humbled 6-1

By FRED DOWN
United Press International
The junior varsity held the fort for the Milwaukee Braves the last month—and now it looks like the varsity is ready to take 'em the rest of the way.

The Braves wouldn't be where they are now except for the kids like Joey Jay, Carlton Willey, Juan Pizarro and Felix Mantilla, who kept the club right-side-up during July. But it's the battle-tested guys like Lew Burdette, Ed Mathews, Del Crandall and Red Schoendienst who can lock up the race—and they all seem ready for the run to the wire.

They made it look easy Tuesday night when the Braves restored their National league lead to five games with a 6-1 triumph that ended the Pittsburgh Pirates' four-game winning streak. The Braves made only five hits but two of them were homers that produced five runs and Burdette pitched a steady 10-hitter to gain his 11th victory.

Burdette, criticized frequently this season, actually is ahead of his 1937 pace. His current 11-8 record tops his 9-7 mark of a year ago and a fast 8-2 finish like he had last season could be the clincher.

In Clusters of Three

Schoendienst, only recently back in action, knocked in the Braves' first run Tuesday night with a single in the third inning and then Mathews followed with his 22nd homer for a 3-0 lead. The Braves added the clinching cluster of three in the sixth when Johnny Logan and Frank Torre singled and Crandall crashed his 13th home.

The Chicago Cubs dealt the staggering San Francisco Giants another blow with a 10-inning 10-9 decision attained when Ernie Banks singled home John Goryl. It was the fourth hit of the game for Banks, who drove in three runs with three singles and his 31st homer.

Wally Moon knocked in three runs on four hits to spark a 21-hit St. Louis Cardinals attack that crushed the Los Angeles Dodgers, 13-3. Billy Muffet pitched a seventh-inning hero for the Cardinals who achieved their largest run and hit totals of the season.

Redleg Rally Wins

Frank Robinson's two-run ninth-inning double capped a three-run rally that lifted the Cincinnati Redlegs to a 6-5 decision over the Philadelphia Phillies. The Redlegs, trailing, 5-1, drew to within two runs of the Phillies on Jerry Lynch's two-run homer in the eighth, and a single by George Crowe with two on added a ninth-inning run and set the stage for Robinson's winning blow.

The New York Yankees maintained their 16 - game lead in the American league when they defeated the Baltimore Orioles, 4-1. The Boston Red Sox downed the Washington Senators, 7-1, the Cleveland Indians whipped the Detroit Tigers, 6-1, and the Chicago White Sox shamed the Kansas City Athletics, 5-4.

Bob Turley pitched a seventh-inning hero for the Yankees and struck out eight to notch his 17th victory against four losses as the Yankees extended the Orioles' losing streak to nine games. Mickey Mantle blasted a three-run homer, No. 30, to lead the Yankee attack.

Prescott Drives In 6 Runs for Phoenix

By GENE BRYANT
United Press International
Bobby Prescott drove in six runs at Phoenix Tuesday night to lead the Giants to a 9-6 win over Sacramento and a one-game edge over second-place Vancouver in the Pacific Coast league standings.

The utilityman from Panama belted a homer, double and single as the Giants came from behind twice before the issue was decided by a three-run burst in the eighth inning. Prescott led a two-run rally in the seventh with a single to tie the score at 6-6, then knocked two more runs home with a double in the eighth.

Earlier he smashed a three-run homer to give the Giants a temporary 4-3 lead.

Only four of the Giant runs were earned, however, as the Solons chipped in with five errors. Carlos Paula kept the Aces in the game with four runs-batted-in on a homer, double and single.

hind Phoenix. George Freese smashed his 23rd home run of the season to pace the Beavers in the seven-inning opener. The Pads rallied in the final frame, but Howie Judson stayed the distance to record his sixth win against four setbacks.

In the finale, the Beavers scored the deciding run in the bottom of the ninth on a squeeze bunt by Bob DiPietro which sent Bob Garber home from third. The Pads had knotted the score at 4-4 with a single tally in the eighth. Reliever Bob Lemon was tagged with the loss, his fourth against a lone victory, while Garber got the win. The double triumph gave Portland a 3-0 series edge.

Eddie O'Brien stopped Seattle on six safeties to give Salt Lake its fourth straight. Pete Nakon and Carlos Bernier led the Bees with a homer apiece. Max Surkont was charged with the loss.

Mounties Lose Ground

Vancouver lost ground as the Mounties suffered their second one-run loss to Spokane, this time by a 6-5 score. Both clubs put together five-run innings, but the Indians won it when Jim Gentile came home on a single by Glen Gorbous in the fifth.

Portland bounced San Diego twice, 3-2 and 5-4, and Salt Lake blanked Seattle, 3-0, in other games.

Vancouver put the tying run on base in the bottom of the ninth but relief pitcher Dick Scott, who took over for starter Larry Sherry in the fifth, struck out pinch-hitter Joe Durham and got Barry Shetrone on a ground-out to end the game.

Fines Assessed For Air Scuffle

Phoenix, Ariz. — (UPI)—Former World Series hero Dusty Rhodes and pitcher Joe Margoneri of the Phoenix Giants scooped today at reports of their fight aboard an airliner and said they're "still good friends."

Rhodes and Margoneri were booted from a Western Airlines plane at San Francisco Monday night.

"It was a scuffle, not a fight," said Dusty, a New York Giants hero of the 1954 World Series. "Joe and I are still good friends."

William (Rosy) Ryan, general manager of the Pacific Coast league farm team, said both men had been fined. The amount was not announced.

The report of the plane fight by an airline stewardess involved jousting along a narrow aisle, with lounge chairs broken and tables smashed. The reason for the fight was not established.

Margoneri, a pitcher, said "Those reports of damage to the plane are grossly exaggerated. One of those little plastic trays might have gotten broken, but that was about all."

Roach Has Surgery

Milwaukee, Wis. — (UPI)—Utility man Mel Roach of the Milwaukee Braves rested comfortably today following surgery to repair torn ligaments in his left knee which has sidelined him for the remainder of the season. Roach was hurt Sunday in a collision with the Giants' Daryl Spencer on a force double play.

Miami Surges To Fourth in IL

United Press International
The Miami Marlins scored three times in the eighth inning to defeat Montreal, 7-4, Tuesday night and move into fourth place in the International league standings.

Lennie Green, just optioned to Rochester by the Baltimore Orioles, clouted a 13th-inning homer to give the Red Wings a 7-6 verdict over Columbus. Rochester tied the game at 5-5 in the ninth and knotted it again in the 11th on Gene Oliver's homer.

In other games, Ed Dick tossed a two-hitter to give Richmond a 2-0 decision over Buffalo, and Havana scored twice in the 11th inning to defeat Toronto, 4-2.

Satchel Paige Leaves Marlins

Montreal — (UPI)—Leroy Satchel Paige, fabulous 52-year-old Negro pitcher, has "hit the road"—and it could lead to the end of his baseball trail.

Paige left his club, the Miami Marlins of the International league, Tuesday night and general manager Joe Ryan said: "He has departed the club. He is off the payroll. But he has not been granted his unconditional release and his contract is still the property of the Miami club."

Ryan refused to disclose the nature of the dispute between Paige and the Marlins but said, "We have hopes every-thing will be smoothed over."

Maverick Sets Mark

Seattle, Wash. — (UPI)—The loudest voice in Detroit hydro-planing said today his two boats, Gale V and Gale VI, would attempt to beat the Gold Cup record set Tuesday by Maverick.

Lee Schoenith, whom with his dad owns the Gale boats, said he in Gale VI and Wild Bill Cantrell in Gale V would "make a supreme effort" to beat the qualifying speed of 119.956 m.p.h. set Tuesday by the Maverick.

Boats must run three laps of the three-mile course at an average of 95 m.p.h. or better to make the grade for Sunday's Gold Cup race, the grand prix of speed-boating.

Nineteen boats are eligible to make the finals Sunday, if they and their drivers can qualify. But although seven made official runs up to the closing of the course at 5 p.m. Tuesday, only two had cut the mustard. They were Maverick and Miss Pay 'n Save.

Cranston Spills Ashley Cooper

South Orange, N. J. — (UPI)—John Cranston, the UCLA senior who practically chased Ashley Cooper off the court, tries for a second straight upset today when he faces U.S. Davis Cupper Sam Giammalva of Houston, Tex., in the third round of the Eastern grass courts championships.

Donald Dell of Bethesda, Md., and Earl Bucholz of St. Louis, Mo., who also sprang stunning upset in Tuesday's second round are due for stern tests against Australia's Neale Fraser and Alex Olmedo of Los Angeles respectively.

Cranston, 21, wasn't expected to extend Cooper, the world's No. 1 amateur, Tuesday. But the sharp-shooting collegian looked like the Davis Cup star and Cooper looked like the unranked collegian as Cranston scored a 6-3, 6-3 triumph.

Dell eliminated fifth-seeded Whitney Reed of Alameda, Calif., 11-9, 6-1, and Bucholz toppled Argentine Davis Cupper Enrique Morea, 6-2, 3-6, 6-4.

Injuries Bench Shrine Gridders

Portland — (UPI)—Coach Tom DeSylvia of the Metropolitan football squad received word Tuesday that halfback Paul Goddard of Lincoln high sprained his left ankle in a morning drill and has been benched for the annual All-Star Shrine's football game in Multnomah Stadium Aug. 16.

Goddard will be replaced, DeSylvia said, since the accident occurred after practice sessions began. The State squad suffered a setback when quarterback Keith Burres of Salem was sidelined because of an ailment. He will be replaced by Andy Kriekis, 215-pound tackle from Springfield.

Tuesday, the 54 All-Stars visited the Shriners' Hospital here and spent two hours autographing casts and tossing footballs with would-be gridders.

WHICH ADJOURNS FIRST

Washington — (UPI)—It's a toss-up who adjourns first—the lawmaking Senators or the baseball Senators. Current estimates are that the present session of Congress will end in two or three weeks. But baseball's last-place Senators may not last that long. Any combination of 26 Senator losses and New York Yankee wins—and the Yankees win about as often as the Senators lose—means this town's team once again will be the first team eliminated from the big league pennant races.

Tigard Squares Bend Series

Bend — (UPI)—Tigard gave Bend a 15-8 trouncing here Tuesday night to keep their three-game state Legion semifinal series alive. The crucial third contest will be played Thursday night at Tigard, with the victors going to the state finals.

STREAK ENDS

Baltimore, Md. — (UPI)—Second baseman Billy Gardner's consecutive game playing streak ended at 361 games Tuesday night when he failed to break into the Baltimore Orioles' lineup. Gardner is expected to be side-lined several days as a result of being hit by one of Don Larsen's pitches in Monday night's game with the New York Yankees.

WSC Ducks Dissolution Proposition

BY RUSS NIELSEN
Pullman, Wash. — (UPI)—Washington State College will support a proposal to dissolve the Pacific Coast conference, but Athletic Director Stan Bates said today no move has been made to organize another league offering all sports competition for Cougar teams.

Bates said he has "no proposal or solution" to offer about his school's athletic future, but that he hoped Washington State would continue scheduling teams of the Pacific Coast as in the past.

UCLA, Southern California, California and Washington have announced they will pull out of the conference and WSC said it would support Stanford's proposal to disband the loop at a meeting in Portland, Ore., this weekend.

Open Mind

"We will attend with an open mind," Bates said, "but if the conference is disbanded we will have to make some kind of adjustment."

There has been unofficial talk here about the possibility of forming a new league but Bates emphasized he "has nothing in mind" concerning a loop of other schools which have been mentioned as possible members of such a league.

Although Bates did not list the "other schools," it's believed they probably would include Oregon, Oregon State, Idaho, Utah, College of Pacific, San Jose State and Arizona State (Tempe). Utah is a member of the Mountain States Skyline conference, COP and San Jose are independents, Arizona State plays in the Border loop, and Oregon, OSC and Idaho are PCC members.

Exhibition Voted Down

Portland — (UPI)—The proposed Oct. 10 exhibition baseball game between an all-star squad and the St. Louis Cardinals in Multnomah stadium here was given a no-confidence vote by members of the board of directors of the Portland Beavers baseball club Monday.

The board said the biggest problem for the Oct. 10 game was the impossibility of getting the turf in Multnomah stadium in shape for the University of Oregon-Southern California grid contest slated for Oct. 11.

GUTOWSKI ENTERED

Portland — (UPI)—A new entrant in the Pacific Northwest All Comers' championship track and field meet here Aug. 16 will be Bob Gutowski, world pole vault record holder. Bill Sosny, director of the meet, said the Los Angeles star's mark stands at 15 feet 9 3/4 inches. Erv Garrison of Oregon College, a javelin hurler with a mark of 218 feet, 5 inches, is another entrant in the Portland meet.

Casanova Pleads for Effort To Save Pacific Coast Loop

By HAL WOOD
United Press International
Portland, Ore. — (UPI)—Coach Len Casanova of University of Oregon pleaded with Pacific Coast conference officials today to "forgive and forget, try to live under the same tent," in an effort to save college football on the West Coast.

"With all signs pointing to a formal break-up of the PCC at a meeting here this week end, Casanova proposed that representatives of the schools get together and iron out their differences.

"Some of the schools, I understand, plan to go it alone as independents," said Casanova. "I coached at Pittsburgh and Santa Clara, both independent schools, and it's no good. You need a conference."

Casanova pointed out that the failure of the Pacific Coast conference and the inroads pro sports teams are making in Los Angeles and San Francisco could result in the death of college football in the West.

"If you don't believe it, look at what professional sports have done to good college sports around New York. Remember the fine football teams they used to have at Fordham and New York university?

Pros Stand First

"Recently I was in San Francisco, where they have both major league baseball and football. While there, the subject of football was brought up, Stanford and California were passed over. All the interest was in the Forty Niners.

"College football is too fine a game to have that happen to it. And the only salvation for the game is a conference."

Casanova believes that the Pacific Coast conference rules of the past were too stringent. It was because of these rules that USC, UCLA, California and Washington decided to drop out.

"I think a conference that follows the rules of the NCAA could be worked out in the west, with the approval of most of the schools," said the coach. "In the past, the PCC had real tough rules. Some of the schools didn't follow them and therefore were fined.

"So both sides were in the wrong. A little more give-and-take by both sides two years ago would have saved the situation. Maybe it's not too late."

Faculty Stay Out

It is Casanova's opinion that the school faculty members should not meddle in the affairs of the conference.

"They should be charged only with handling the eligibility," said Casanova. "After all, what do they know about athletics?

"I believe the athletic directors and coaches should run the conference. If they can't do it the way they should, then they should be fired. But they start off knowing what should be done in sports."

It appears that Casanova's plea may come late—because a majority of the schools already have announced they will vote for a dissolution of the conference.

"If that comes about I fear for the collegiate football game in the West," said Casanova. "It could result in college football out here attracting crowds like the college baseball teams do."
