WALPURGIS NIGHT—Jeanne Brown, 28, of Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, got into a tight squeeze at the jail in San Francisco, Calif. Booked on a drunk charge, Miss Brown started out of her cell the hard way, got stuck halfway, and then couldn't even back up. Cops called the Fire Department, who responded with enthusiasm, and tugged on Miss Brown for 40 minutes before resorting to hacksaws.

Pickin' Pears News and Notes From Camp White

By WILLIAM M. BLACK Jr. the newly elected officers for 1958.

Camp White members will share in the official opening of the Handicapped Industries, 827 West Jackson st., Aug. 9 and 10. A large section of the display room has been set aside to show member products ranging from leathercraft to novelty items made from pipe-cleaners.

Some of the members, working in the hobby shop division, that have contributed items are Martin Alsop, leathercraft; Harry Crane, needlecraft; Earnest Haining, pipe-cleaner figures; Leo Moutano, leathercraft; James R. Nalley, leathercraft; and Ray Wells, leathercraft. The items are made from materials purchased by the member and will be available for sale. Clarence A. Hagglund, myrtlewood bowls, and Constantino Vocino, rugs, have submitted items made in the arts and crafts section which were donated for display purposes only.

The opening of the county's latest industry is scheduled for 10:30 a.m., Saturday, Aug. 9 with formal ceremonies performed by Mayor John Snider of Medford and representatives from the Jackson County Committee to Employ the Physically Handicapped, American Legion Post 15, Medford, and representatives of the Camp White Domiciliary. The factory and display rooms will be open to the public from 10:30 a.m. through 5 p.m., Saturday and Sunday.

Acting Manager Banks J. Paul announced that Eugene Bishop, formerly of the bureau of reclamation, will become assistant chief engineering division at Camp White on Aug. 24.

Bishop has been a resident in Medford since 1951. He was at one time with the Oregon state highway department and since 1956 has been with the bureau of reclamation. Bishop is a graduate of the Michigan State university. He is married and has two children.

Dr. Warren C. Hunter, area consultant on pathology, conducted a one-hour symposium on pathology for the Camp White medical staff Friday, Aug. 1. The latest techniques in pathological examinations were discussed, according to Dr. Ernest Everett, acting chief medical officer at Camp White.

Hunter is clinical professor of pathology at the University of Oregon medical school, Portland.

American Legion auxiliary, Department of Oregon, officials paid a visit to Camp White Wednesday, Aug. 6. Visitors were President Gertrude Dickie, Portland; Vice President Marion Horsfall, Coos Bay; Rehabilitation Chairman, Fay Preston, Leaburg; and Hospital Director Pearl Simkins, Salem. Mrs. Poly Offut, Camp White ALA representative, said this was the annual tour conducted by Ontario — (UPI) — A 42-year-old Huntington, Ore., woman is in a Weiser, Idaho, hospital today with serious injuries sustained when she was struck by a hit-and-run driver on Highway 30 near Old Sperry, Wednesday night.

The woman, Mrs. Mary Lena Abrams, was standing on the highway helping her husband turn their car around when a speeding car headed west struck her with a front fender, police report.

Her husband, Alvin, helped her into their car and rushed her to a hospital in Weiser.

Police said an intensive search is being conducted in the Huntington area for the hit-and-run car.
