

NORTHWEST INSURANCE WOMEN HERE FOR FESTIVAL PRODUCTION

Members of Region 9 of the National Association of Insurance Women will meet in Medford August 9 and 10 to attend a production of the Oregon Shakespearean Festival. This is the second year that women of the association have attended a performance as a group.

Reservations have been received by the hostess club, the Insurance Women of Jackson county, for 95 persons. Although the association was originally invited to the valley by the local group, this year's event was sponsored by the region.

Social Hour

Saturday a social hour will be held at the Jackson hotel from 4 until 5 p.m. with a buffet following at the Pioneer room. Speaker at the dinner will be William W. Patton, general manager of the Oregon Shakespearean Festival of Ashland. Music during the occasion will include Mrs. Sue Lytle of Central Point, soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Edna Dougherty of Ashland. Mrs. Imogene Owen, Portland, will play the piano for the group singing.

On display at the hotel during the social hour will be an exhibit of the doll collection of Mrs. Henry Davis of Medford. Mrs. Davis, known for her pear head dolls, has dolls from throughout the world in her collection. Included in the display will be miniatures of King Henry VII and his six wives, made by her for the week end meeting. The dolls will be on the speaker's table during the dinner.

Attend Play

Following the banquet the group will attend the Saturday evening performance of Much Ado About Nothing at the festival shell in Ashland. An "after-theatre-snack" or supper is also planned by the group.

Sunday morning breakfast will also be held at the Pioneer room of the Jackson hotel at 9 a.m.

Among those attending the two days of activities will be Mrs. Marion Walker, national first vice-president, San Francisco, and Mrs. Eva M.

Brower, national treasurer, of Portland.

Regional directors and officers of the association attending include Mrs. Muriel F. Babcock, Eugene, director; Mrs. Sadie Ward, Tacoma, Wash., immediate past director; Miss Mavis Rickett, Salem, key chairman; Miss Janet Killen, Vancouver, British Columbia, chairman of constitution and by-laws; Mrs. Imogene, Portland, chairman of organization; Mrs. Irene Ostrander, Medford, membership chairman; Mrs. Bernadine Graham, Grants Pass, public safety chairman; Miss Margaret Osborn, Portland, publications chairman; Mrs. Gladys Harger, Eugene, pin and handbook chairman; Mrs. Amy Seidler, Salem, education chairman; Mrs. Leah Knutsen, Grants Pass, public relations chairman; and Mrs. Nadia M. Harger, Eugene, publication advertising chairman.

Chairmanship

At the Sunday breakfast "Chairmanship" will be the theme. No regional business will be conducted at the get-together. Speakers will be Mrs. Ward, past director of region 9, who will speak on becoming acquainted with the regional committee chairman; and Mrs. Babcock, director of region 9, who will tell of her plans for the coming year. Mrs. Owen will also read correspondence from the clubs not in attendance at the meeting.

Californian

Also present will be Mrs. Anne Hense, Oakland, Calif., program committee chairman for region 8 of the association. All eight clubs in Oregon will be presented at the festival.

Music Education Workshop Planned To Start Monday

Ashland — A workshop in elementary music education will be presented at Southern Oregon college from Monday, August 11, to Friday, August 22. Director of the workshop is Miss Helene Robinson, acting chairman of the music department.

The workshop is designed to acquaint teachers with the most effective techniques and materials for use in the elementary classroom. Some of the special features which will be included are Indian, Calypso, and Hawaiian music, and folk songs of Latin America and of the United States. Other topics may be selected by students.

Some attention will be given to the construction and playing of rhythm instruments. Miss Robinson will demonstrate techniques for developing musical skills, creative activity, and appreciation through the use of the materials and projects chosen.

The workshop will meet daily from 8 until 12 a.m.

ities by their presidents. They include Mrs. Margaret Frame, Coos Bay; Mrs. Gladys Harger, Eugene; Miss Carolyn Bagley, Medford; Mrs. Joan Toton, Klamath Falls; Mrs. Bernadine Graham, Grants Pass; Mrs. June Davis, Salem; Mrs. Gloria Wright, Roseburg; and Mrs. Ethel Miller, Portland. Mrs. Ethel Miller, Portland, Mrs. Killen is also president of her group in Vancouver, B.C.

In addition to the Insurance Women attending the events are representatives of several other Oregon and Medford organizations. From Portland is Mrs. June Betson who is with the Oregon Insurance Rating Bureau. Organizations also represented will be the Portland Soroptimist club and the Medford Business and Professional Women's club.

Chairmanship

At the Sunday breakfast "Chairmanship" will be the theme. No regional business will be conducted at the get-together. Speakers will be Mrs. Ward, past director of region 9, who will speak on becoming acquainted with the regional committee chairman; and Mrs. Babcock, director of region 9, who will tell of her plans for the coming year. Mrs. Owen will also read correspondence from the clubs not in attendance at the meeting.

The regional gathering to attend a Shakespearean play production by members of the association received national recognition in June. Mrs. Babcock reported on the event at the National Association of Insurance Women's national convention at Detroit, Mich., at the official education workshop.

Mrs. Owen is regional festival chairman, assisted by Mrs. Ostrander, with committee members Mrs. Babcock, Mrs. Brower, Mrs. Ward, Mrs. Seidler, Mrs. Leah Knutsen and Mrs. Miller with Portland members; Miss Jeanne Star-

Mrs. FDR Plans To Visit Russia Again

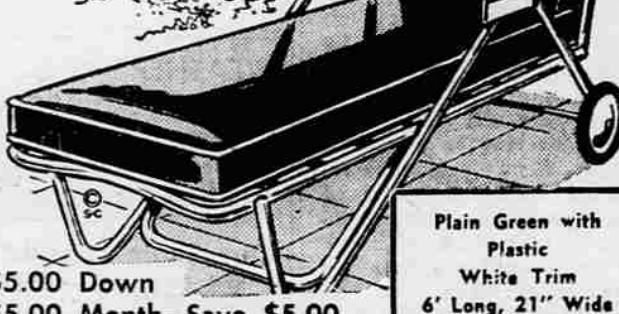

Meeker, Colo.—(AP)—Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt said Thursday she will visit Russia again next month to see how the Soviets handle their juvenile delinquency problems.

She said a visa for the proposed three-week Russian trip was sent her earlier this week from the Russian Embassy in Washington.

Mrs. Roosevelt toured the USSR last year and talked with Soviet Premier Khrushchev and other top Russian leaders.
