Donna Mullin is Bride Of Raymond Lee Smith

Miss Donna Ann Mullin became the bride of Lt. Raymond Lee Smith in a ceremony held August 2 at First Methodist church here. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. A. L. Mullin, 209 South Orange street, Medford, and the late Arthur L. Mullin. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Gale W. Smith, Eugene.

Dr. George G. Roseberry officiated at the double ring ceremony held at eight o'clock in the evening. The date was the 37th wedding anniversary of the bridegroom's parents.

Given in marriage by her brother, Robert L. Mullin, Talent, the bride wore a gown of white tulle and lace. The gown was fashioned with fitted bodice and bouffant skirt which formed a chapel train. A lace panel was in the center of the train. Her fingertip veil fell from a lace crown. She carried a bouquet of white, stephanotis centered with tiny pink rosebuds and pink rosebuds on white satin streamers.

Mrs. Don Schnieder, Inglewood, Calif., was matron of honor. Her frock was of crushed raspberry danstie fashioned on modified harem lines and her headress was of matching rosebuds. She carried a spray of white gladiolus with satin streamers to match her dress. Bride-matrons Mrs. Jack D. Johnson, Mrs. Fritz Ruch, Mrs. David Shaver, Hood River, Ore., and Mrs. Richard Mann, Tri City, Ore., are classmates of the bride and bridegroom. Their dresses were of powder pink, and styled as the matron of honor's. They carried white gladiolus with satin streamers matching their dresses.

Little Michele Lynn Volence, Los Angeles, daughter of Mrs. Barbara Volence, Los Angeles, was flower girl. She wore a pastel pink frock with white lace trim and white gloves and carried a white rose cup of rose petals. Michael Rians, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Best man for the bridegroom was Dan Schnieder, Inglewood, Calif. Ushers were Donald Mullin, twin brother of the bride, Reuel Rians Jr., brother-in-law of the bride, Gaylord Smith, Ashland, and Richard Smith, San Francisco, both brothers of the bridegroom. Mr. Rians and Mr. Smith also lighted the candles. Pink and white gladiolus combined with tapers in candelabra and pink satin ribbon decorated the church.

Dr. J. Scott Heatherington was soloist, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Jerry Sherman.

The reception, attended by 150 guests, was held in the church parlors which were decorated with pink and white gladiolus and pink candles. Mrs. Frank McKeown cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Fred Stammen, sister of the bride, was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. LaRue Smith served coffee and Mrs. Donald Hale presided at the punch bowl.

The bride's mother chose a beige lace dress with a darker beige accessories and yellow carnation corsage. Mrs. Smith wore a light blue print with black accessories and corsage, of white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith traveled to Seattle and into Canada on their honeymoon, the bride wearing a black and white check chemise with white feather hat and black patent accessories.

Mr. Smith is serving in the U.S. Marine Corps and will be stationed in Seattle, where the couple will make their home. Mr. and Mrs. Smith are both graduates of Medford High school and prior to her wedding she was a private secretary at the Aircraft Tools Inc., of Inglewood, Calif.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Burns, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Conley Marshall, both sisters and brothers-in-law of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith, Eugene, aunt and uncle of the bridegroom; Mrs. Van Hakes, Mrs. Barbara Volence, Mrs. Melford Lyons and son, Larry, sister and nephew of the bride, all Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stammen, Berkeley, Calif., sister of the bride; Mrs. J. E. Pickens, Roseburg, Dr. and Mrs. J. Scott Heatherington and sons Mark and Douglas, West Linn, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. James Grimm, Pleasant Valley, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Hornecker, Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Rians and sons, Pat and Jeff, Cave Junction and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Camden, Rogue River.

Prior to the wedding the bride-elect was honored at several parties and showers. July 28 a bridal shower was given by Mrs. Jack D. Johnson and Mrs. Don Schnieder at the E. P. Atterbury home, 1002 West 11th street.

A color theme of pink and white was used for table decorations. Following presentations of gifts, refreshments were served and games were played.

Those attending were Mesdames Ken Pickens, Dean Pruitt, Frank McKeown, Elmo Atterbury, Wayne Chase, Richard Camden, Roal Maddox, LaRue Smith, Crocker Hunter, Fritz Ruch, Vic Taylor, Richard Card, Don Hale, R. K. Rians Jr., H. Bruce Metzger, Melford Lyons, Donald Mullin, Robert L. Mullin and Edna Mullin, Jewell Rians, Ada Steadman and Mary Ellen Atterbury.

Other pre-wedding parties included a dinner for the bride-elect and Mr. Smith at Mon Desir given by Mr. and Mrs. C. Wayne Chase and Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Atterbury. A rehearsal dinner for the wedding party was held on the patio of the R. K. Rians Jr. residence at 1031 West 10th street.

Newcomer to the valley is Mrs. Sophie Tower (center) formerly of New Albany, Ind., who is making her home with her daughter, Mrs. Rhea Corcoran, 934 Ross lane north, Medford, and two grandchildren, Jane 8, and Jerry, 3. Mrs. Tower accompanied the Corcoran family to the valley after they had spent six weeks in Indiana and Kentucky visiting relatives. Mrs. Corcoran and two children visited her

Lining Girls Visit Here, Two in Europe

Miss Margaret Lininger, La Verne, Calif., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce M. Lininger, 135 South Keeneway drive. Miss Lininger is a third grade teacher in the public schools at La Verne.

The Liningers two other daughters, Geraldine and Ruth, both of La Verne, are currently touring Europe and plan to return to Medford later this month. The tour, conducted by Miss Geraldine Lininger, includes approximately 20 persons. They arrived in Holland July 2 and plan to tour Italy, Germany, Austria, Switzerland, Belgium, Scotland, and England prior to their return. While there they also attended the World's Fair in Belgium.

Miss Geraldine Lininger, a member of the Church of the Brethren in La Verne, organized the tour this year to include the 250th anniversary celebrations of the church in Europe.

Last week the group attended the ceremonies held in Schwarzenau, Germany, where the church was founded in 1708. Included in the events was the dedication of a school built in Schwarzenau with the aid of American funds.

Geraldine is a high school teacher at Claremont High school, Claremont, Calif., while Ruth is with the public relations office of La Verne college, La Verne.

The two girls will visit their parents here prior to returning to their home.

South Dakota Family Visits

Houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Littrell, 2015 East Main street, are Mrs. Littrell's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Viet, and their two children, Parker, S.D. The Viets plan to spend another week in the valley with time spent at the Littrells' summer cabin at Union Creek.

Last week Mr. and Mrs. Donald Jackson, Los Angeles, returned to their home following a visit with the Littrells.

Visits Son

Mrs. W. E. Morris, 523 Dakota avenue, returned last week from an 18-day vacation trip to Seattle where she visited her daughter-in-law and son, Mr. and Mrs. W. Edmond Morris. While there she traveled to Bremerton and visited various spots in the area.

Dinner Honors Retired Minister On 84th Birthday

The Rev. W. Lee Gray was honored August 7 at a dinner in the home of his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Sams, 137 South Ivy street, Medford. The occasion was his 84th birthday.

Present for the dinner were Mrs. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sams, Ashland, and Mrs. Mimmie Sams. The honored guest, a retired Presbyterian church minister, was a former pastor of the Hope Presbyterian church, Rogue River. Prior to moving to the valley in the 1940s the family lived in northern Oregon.

The evening of Mr. Gray's birthday three local Presbyterian ministers sang Happy Birthday to him at the Gray's home at 505 Park avenue. The ministers included Dr. D. Kirkland West, Dr. Norman K. Tully, and the Rev. Harold M. Roberts.

Family Returns From Trip East

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Reter, 20 Glen Oak court, and their daughter, Mrs. Janet Baker, returned recently from a three weeks trip to Montreal, Canada and the east coast. The trio spent a week in Montreal where Mr. Reter attended the annual convention of the International Apple association of which he was returning president. Prior to their return to the valley they visited Albany and New York City, New York, Boston, Washington, D.C., and Chicago.
