

Mr. and Mrs. James Joseph Wehren

Jacksonville Church Scene Of Minnis-Wehren Wedding

Miss Patricia Louise Minnis became the bride of James Joseph Wehren Saturday, July 26 at St. Joseph Catholic church, Jacksonville. The Rev. John Iig officiated at the two o'clock afternoon double ring ceremony attended by 65 relatives and friends.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Minnis, 1022 West Tenth street, Medford. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Wehren, 522 Crater Lake avenue, Medford.

Mrs. John Maddox, Jacksonville, played the organ wedding music. Pink and white gladioli decorated the church.

The bride wore a ballerina length frock of white lace over taffeta styled on princess lines. Her shoulder length veil of illusion net was held by a Juliet cap of lace and sequins and she carried a prayer book with pink and white gladioli and lilies-of-the-valley. She was escorted to the altar by her father.

Mrs. Robert Bray, Portland, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. She wore a pink nylon ballerina length gown and carried a nosegay bouquet of painted daisies. Jennifer Taylor was flower girl. Daniel Minnis, brother of the bride was ringbearer.

Richard Wehren, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man and Roger Jones served as usher.

Following the ceremony a reception was given by the bride's parents at their home. The tiered wedding cake, made by the bride's mother, Mrs. Harold Boen, and Wayne Witt, was cut and served by Mrs. Boen. Miss Antia Hauffmann assisted with the serving. Miss Dieder Caine, Montague, Calif., poured and Miss Sharon Wootton was at the gift table. Miss Ann White was in charge of the guest book.

Irwin-Lindhorst Rites Held in Klamath Falls

Klamath Falls — A wedding of interest to many valley residents took place last month when Miss Joyce Diane Irwin was married to Donald Kenneth Lindhorst of Dufur, Ore.

The two o'clock afternoon double ring ceremony was held at the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Keller. The Rev. Dallas McNeil of the First Methodist church officiated at the wedding.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Irwin, Klamath Falls and the sister of Miss Patricia Irwin, Medford. Mr. Lindhorst is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin E.

Elson, Redmond.

For the ceremony, held July 19 in the Keller living-room, the bride wore a full skirted dress of sheer white nylon crepe with a pink nylon sash. Her hat was of pink feathers and she carried a bouquet of pink rubrum lilies and stephanotis. She was given in marriage by her father.

Arrangements of pink roses at both ends of the mantel above the fireplace formed a backdrop for the ceremony. The traditional wedding music was provided by records.

Miss Irwin, serving as her sister's maid of honor, wore a full skirted dress of pink faille with matching cummerbund and hat. She wore white slippers and carried a corsage of pink rosebuds encircled with feathered white carnations. Phillip Mott of The Dalles served as best man.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Irwin wore a dress of rose linen with navy blue accessories. Mrs. Elson chose a dress made of bright blue linen and white accessories. Both of the mothers had corsages of pink rubrum lilies.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the yard of the Keller home, attended by 45 guests. Mrs. M. W. Dickinson, aunt of the bride, served the cake and a cousin of the bride, Mrs. Lewis Arnold served the punch.

Mrs. D. C. Faler, Yreka, Calif., also a cousin of the bride, poured the coffee. Miss Juanita Sheppard, Butte Falls, had charge of the guest book and gift table.

The couple honeymooned on the northern California coast for a week and is now at home at 436 South Ninth street, Redmond.

The bride attended Butte

Festival Concert Series Schedules Harpsichordist

Ashland — Harpsichord solos have been added to the regular Sunday concert series at the Oregon Shakespearean Festival in Ashland. Director of Music W. Bernard Windt announces that virtuoso harpsichordist Stanley R. Plummer will be a guest performer at the second of the early music concerts scheduled for 4:30 this afternoon.

The solos will be accompanied by string ensemble. Madrigals and larger chorus numbers in combination with the instruments will also be presented.

Plummer is associate professor of music at the Conservatory of Music, Whitman college. He is also a composer and a concert organist and harpsichordist, having played 16 recitals so far this year.

Also to be featured on the program are Richard D. Werner, violinist, composer, and director of the Southern Oregon Philharmonic Orchestra, and Harlaee Wilson. Wilson has appeared in past years with the Festival and has returned to Ashland this summer following two years as first violinist with the Denver Symphony orchestra.

Special music and dance concerts have been planned for every Sunday during August at the Oregon Shakespearean Festival. Tickets for today's performance are available at the Festival box office.
