 The motorist telephoned the BAA here Friday, said his windshield was broken and he could not find a satisfactory replacement in Moscow. An hour later BAA air-freighted a new glass, specially packed and ready for installation. It was expected to reach Moscow within 48 hours.

WEAKFISH ISN'T

Albany, N. Y.—(UPI)—The weakfish isn't as anemic as its name indicates.
 The New York State Conservation Department says the weakfish "hits like a ton of bricks when he's hooked and squirms and twists with lightning speed."
 The weakfish derived its name from the Dutch. It means a "soft fish," to distinguish it from the usual flaky kind.

Flying Objects Have Them Saucer-Eyed

Almagordo, N.M.—(UPI)—A group of unidentified flying objects "clustered like a star" hovered for more than an hour near here Friday night and then suddenly "broke apart and disappeared," witnesses said yesterday.
 A spokesman for the Aerial Research Phenomena organization "filter" center here said a total of nine persons had reported seeing the mysterious objects.
 A check of nearby military bases, airports, and the U.S. Weather bureau disclosed there were no jets or weather balloons aloft at or near the time of the sightings, between 10 p.m. and 11:30 p.m. Filter Center Director L. J. Lorenzen said.
 An employee of the Almagordo school system, Isaac Car, told the filter center, "I wouldn't have believed it if I hadn't seen it myself."
 An electronics engineer, Henry Paz, 21, said the objects "seemed to be travelling at super-human speeds, and making maneuvers no aircraft could withstand."
 "They were phantomlike, going through elusive maneuvers like quicksilver," he said. "I can understand why anyone seeing such a thing would hesitate to report it."

BEVERLY SMITH tells about the burly mountaineer who came to town for a session of the legislature. Because he could swing his whole county when he saw fit, the city slickers figured he rated a banquet. The hill-billy politico imbibed a plate of consommé and several stalks of celery in pained silence, but really busted loose when they put a broiled lobster in front of him.
 "Gents," he roared, "I drunk your dishwater and et your bouquet. But I'm durned if you get me to eat this burnt-up bug. Get it out of here!"
 There's a porter working in a big department store who is Irish to the core. In fact he's so Irish that when an unsuspecting customer asked him, "Do you know where the Chintz Room is?" he answered without hesitation, "That I do" (with possibly a "begorrah" or two thrown in for good measure) and pointed straight to a door labeled "Men."
