

Dairy Maids Reach Semi-Finals In Women's Softball Tourney

Memorial Stadium, Camp White—Rogue Valley Dairy Maids, popular hostess aggregation, and Eugene McCulloch Chain Saw were the only unbeaten clubs through Saturday afternoon in the women's state tournament here of the Oregon State Softball association.

They met last night in a semi-final skirmish with the victor to advance to finals scheduled for 7:30 p.m. today.

The Maids, piling up all their counters in the fourth inning, whipped the high-rated Salem Shamrocks, 7 to 1, Friday night after Eugene had tipped the Klamath Falls Basinettes, 4 to 2. Losses dropped Salem and Klamath into the losers' bracket for yesterday afternoon games with Madras and Hillsboro, respectively.

Madras bounced Astoria, 4 to 2, and Hillsboro nicked Irving, 2 to 1, Friday afternoon. The defeats eliminated Astoria and Irving with their second losses in the double elimination tournament.

Pitcher Shaken Up
Rogue Valley collected its markers in the big fourth Friday on hits by Doris Hickson and Diane Wall, four bases on balls, two errors and two fielder's options.

Ellen Callaghan began the rally by drawing a walk and Hickson singled and went to second base on the throw in. On Pat Barron's rap to third base Callaghan slipped safely home under the throw in. Shirley Hanson knocked another infield ball. Effort to nip Barron at second base failed and a throw was made to home. Hickson and Salem pitcher Marge Hurley collided at the plate and the runner was safe when Hurley dropped the ball.

The Shamrock tosser was shaken up and after the bases were loaded on an error and a walk unknicked, she gave way to Phyllis Nybakke on the mound and went to right field. Nybakke gave up a hit, a fielder's choice bunt and two bases on balls and Hurley returned to the hill to snuff the rally.

Two-Hitter
Barron, chucking for the Dairy Maids, held the Shamrocks to just two hits although she issued five bases on balls and hit three batters. A dropped fly ball after a hit batter got on base provided the lone Salem run. The Shamrocks had the bases loaded in both the fourth and sixth innings without scoring. They left 10 runners on bases.

Eugene broke a 1-all deadlock with Klamath Falls with two runs in the fourth inning on two errors and a miscue. Astoria tabulated in the second on two errors and the lone hit, by Darle Hoagland, off pitcher Marge Croxen.

Hillsboro got its two runs in the second panel on three errors, a walk and a wild pitch. Marge Borg homered for the lone Irving pointer. Virginia Hannen, Hillsboro thrower, struck out nine and walked one.

The Madras Merchant Nettes and the Hillsboro nine eliminated Salem and Klamath Falls from the softball tournament and advanced themselves to the quarter-finals with victories Saturday afternoon. They met last night to determine which club would advance to the semi-finals and meet the loser of the Dairy Maid-Eugene contest, also played last night.

In the Madras-Salem game the winners led off scoring in the first inning when Wilma Harder singled home Mary Jane Snapp after the runner had been walked. They added two more in the top of the sixth after Wanda Williams doubled, Sharon Lenaburg walked, Irene Van Loo singled, and Williams and Lenaburg scored on two errors.

The Salem nine came back with two in the bottom of the sixth on walks and a single by Maurine Schollian but were unable to tie the score. In the seventh inning the luckless home was retired without more runs after Nina Edwards singled and stole second.

Hillsboro led off the second game with three runs in the first inning on three walks and no hits. After walking the first two batters, starting pitcher Karen Boardman was moved to right field and Mickey Hayman took over for the losers.

After Joyce Baier scored the initial run on a balk, Sandy Jansen went home when the Klamath Falls catcher dropped a third strike and threw to first. Jansen ran into Teresa Wickline, the catcher, on her way home and in the confusion Jeanne Delplanche scored the third run for the winners.

In the third inning the winners scored two more runs on a single by Bev Fern and two errors. The Klamath Falls club came back in the fourth with two runs on three singles, and they picked up an additional two runs in the bottom of the seventh on three more singles, but their rally fell short by a single run.

Today the winner of the Hillsboro-Madras game last night will clash with the loser of the Eugene-Dairy Maids contest in a 1:30 p.m. tussle at the Camp White stadium. Tonight the winner of the afternoon game will meet the winner of yesterday's contest between the Maids and Eugene in the finals at 7:30 o'clock.

resa Wickline tallied for Klamath in the third. An error, sacrifice by Ruth Hagelstein and single by Bev Lloyd marked in the sixth.

Errors Aid Victors
Clara Tullock and Lloyd had two hits each.

Errors by the victims helped both Friday afternoon winners. Madras scored three times in the third canto on hits by Margaret Holman and Sharon Edwards and five errors. The other run was in the sixth on Holman's single, her two steals and a miscue.

Astoria tabulated in the second on two errors and the lone hit, by Darle Hoagland, off pitcher Marge Croxen.

1959 Water Ski Meet At Denver

William P. Barlow Sr., Piedmont, Calif., was reelected vice-president of the Pacific Coast council of the American Water Ski association at a meeting Friday night at Medford hotel.

Denver, Colo., was picked for the 1959 western regional tournament.

Vice-president is top office of the Pacific council. Councilmen chosen were Mike Taggart, Boulder, Colo.; Elva Swoffer, Santa Ana, Calif.; Bill Rook, San Francisco; Harry Sherwood, San Diego, Calif.; Deane Abben, Sacramento, Calif.; and Dr. Lew West, Seattle, Wash.

Floyd Vance, Sacramento, was re-named to a three-year term of AWSA director.

The council passed resolutions asking AWSA to sanction water ski races and to establish an optimist class for national recognition of skiers 12 years old and under.

Californians Take Overall Titles In Western Regional Ski Tourney

Medford—(Special)—Fred Pendlebury in junior boys, Vicki Van Hook in junior girls and Randy Paragary in pee wees tucked away overall championships Saturday in the Western Regional tournament of the American Water Ski association at Gardener lake.

Chuck Stearns and Larry Penacho in men's and junior boys trick riding tabulated scores thought to be unofficial highs for the aqua slat sport while Wally Pallack and Gloria Abben in veterans and women's tricks successfully defended 1957 diadems.

Pendlebury, of San Diego, leaped a coast record bettering 92 feet in the junior jump, took second in tricks and with his first in slalom Friday had a 2935 total in overall.

Fourth Straight Year
Miss Van Hook, Long Beach, Calif., national girls titlist, and now western overall winner four straight years, equalled her own world record of 70 feet from the five-foot board Saturday in winning the jump in her division. She also captured tricks and slalom events for an even and perfect 3000 in overall.

Paragary, Sacramento, Californian, was first in pee wee jumps and tricks and fourth in slalom.

Stearns from Bellflower, Calif., national men's overall champion, ran up an amazing 1769 score in tricks. He was the favorite to win the men's jump and slalom on Sunday, final day of the three day meet at the lake northeast of Medford. Penacho, of San Diego, recorded 1682 in his division.

No official point record is kept in tricks because fancy riding stunts and their values change from year to year. However, the points by Stearns and Penacho were the highest known to meet officials.

Mrs. Abben, Sacramento, with 825 points won women's tricks for the second straight year on her birthday. Pallack, Sunnyvale, Calif., claimed the jump in her division. She also captured tricks and slalom events for an even and perfect 3000 in overall.

Gale V Set As Qualifier In Gold Cup

Seattle—(UP)—Wild Bill Centrell scooted Gale V over the smooth waters of Lake Washington at an average speed of 101.567 mph Saturday to become the 14th qualifier for the world championship speedboat race, the Gold Cup.

Gale V thus becomes the third Detroit boat and the fifth from the Great Lakes area to make the grade for the showdown.

The Gale V's qualification left four boats still to get into the finals before Saturday's 5 p.m. deadline. Breathless II and Miss Bardahl, the two hard-luck boats during the qualifying week, both conked out during efforts before Centrell went out on the lake.

However, they both were expected to try again. Centrell, who has probably had more narrow escapes than any other water jockey in the unlimited hydroplane class, whipped Gale V over the three-mile course three times at speeds of 100.669, 102.661 and 101.504, to join her sister-ship Gale VI in the cup finals.

Cinder Stars To Enter OSC

Corvallis—(UP)—Sam Bell, Oregon State college's new track coach Thursday announced that six outstanding prep track and field men will enroll at OSC this fall.

Announcing plans to attend OSC are Gary Stenlund, javelin ace from David Douglas of Portland; Marvin Tyler, Lakeview; Vern Lovelace, Central of Monmouth-Independence; Claude Milean, Dallas; Dale Drake, North Salem; and Clyde Laird, Martinez, Calif.

Norm Fones, of Grant of Portland, and Cliff Thomson of Douglas, disclosed earlier this summer they would attend Oregon State.

Larry Shepard Squawks About Beaver Game

Sacramento—(UP)—The manager of the Salt Lake City Bees of the Pacific Coast League declared Saturday that Portland should be stopped from scheduling big name exhibition games in the midst of the PCL schedule.

Larry Shepard, referring to the Beavers' Monday game with the St. Louis Cardinals, said "The league should not let them get away with it."

The Bee manager continued, "I know it's a big payday for the Beavers, but they're disrupting the Coast League schedule to work it in." He added, "We have to play them a doubleheader on Sunday and another doubleheader on Tuesday so they can get in the Monday exhibition. They may draw 30,000 on Monday night, but how many will we draw the day before and the day after the Cardinals?"

Shepard indicated he would go into the Portland double-headers with a weakened pitching staff.

Larry Shepard, manager of the Salt Lake City Bees, was skipper of the Medford Dodgers of the professional Far West league in 1948.

Creason Shares OGA Leadership

Bend—(UP)—Opening round of the Oregon Golf associations medal play championships opened Friday at the Bend Golf club. Lynn Creason of Harrisburg, Pa., and Chuck Hunter, University of Oregon student from Tacoma, Wash., led the field with one-under-par 71s.

Owen Panner, Bend, was one stroke behind the leaders. Bob Bronson of Riverside of Portland also carded a 72.

The 54-hole tournament continues today with another 18 holes and winds up Sunday with a final 18.

Bill Catey Holds on to Senior Toga

Bill Catey came from behind Friday to successfully defend his title in the senior men's club championship golf tournament at Rogue Valley Country club.

He defeated Larry Butler on the extra 19th hole. Butler conceded Catey an eagle three in the 19th after hitting two shots out-of-bounds.

Catey, who had a 77 for 18 holes while Butler had a 76, was two down to the tourney medalist after 16 greens. He won 17 with a par three and 18 with a birdie four.

A birdie gave Catey the lead on the first hole of the match but Butler claimed No. 8 to square proceedings and went a hole on top on No. 9 with a bogey. Butler then took No. 12 with a par four.

Butler had 38s for each nine holes while Catey was 40 out and 37 back.

X-RAYS SHOW FRACTURE

New York—(UP)—X-rays disclosed Thursday that Ryne Duren, star New York Yankee relief pitcher, suffered a slight fracture of the left cheekbone when struck July 24 by a ball thrown by Paul Foytack of the Detroit Tigers. The injury will not keep Duren from pitching.

Middlecoff Takes Lead
Milwaukee, Wis.—(UP)—Title-hungry Cary Middlecoff came home with a record 29 for the last nine holes to give him a four-under-par 66 and the lead all by himself in the $35,000 Miller Open Saturday.
Middlecoff, who shared the lead at the start of Saturday, play with young Paul Harney, slammed home an eagle and four birdies on the final nine for a three-day total of 197. This was three strokes ahead of Billy Casper Jr., Apple Valley, Calif., pro golfer's second-leading money winner this year, and freshman Bob Goalby, of Belleville, Ill.
Harney, Worcester, Mass., slipped to a par 70 for a 54-hole score of 201, which he shared with Joe Conrad, the 1955 British Amateur champion from San Antonio, Tex.
