Navy Apologizes To H. G. Rickover

Washington—(UPI)—The Navy apologized to Rear Adm. Hyman G. Rickover for failing to invite him to last week's White House ceremony celebrating the historic trip under the North Pole by his brainchild—the atomic-powered submarine Nautilus.

Navy Secretary Thomas S. Gates said in a statement Tuesday that top Navy officials overlooked Rickover in their excitement over the submarine's achievement.

"In our preoccupation with the operational significance of a unit of our fleet," Gates said, "we failed to include Adm. Rickover, a man whose devotion and scientific skill had so uniquely contributed to the creation of the ship which made the cruise."

Rickover, known as the "father" of the nuclear submarine, was omitted from the list of top Navy officers invited to witness the White House ceremony in which President Eisenhower pinned the Legion of Merit on Cmdr. William R. Anderson, skipper of the Nautilus.

Rickover's congressional supporters protested that it was a deliberate snub.

Co-Eds Turned From Georgia Tech Entry

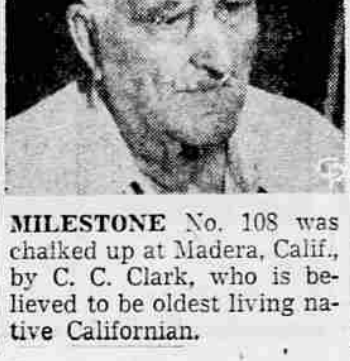

Atlanta—(UPI)—It's still pretty much a man's world at Georgia Tech.

Six co-ed applicants, qualified in every other way, have been turned down by the famous engineering school because of a lack of housing facilities.

The only co-ed dormitory on the campus has a capacity of 11 girls. Any others from out of town have to live with close relatives here in order to gain admission as freshmen.

Still, Georgia Tech, long an inviolate sanctuary of the male, will have a total of 49 coeds for the 1958-59 session, almost double that of last year.

The 21 new female students either are Atlanta girls or have transferred from other colleges and will be upper-classwomen. They are not required to live with relatives as freshmen are.

MILESTONE No. 108 was chucked up at Madera, Calif., by C. C. Clark, who is believed to be oldest living native Californian.

Fire Destroys Part of Home

Jacksonville—Fire destroyed the roof and part of the ceiling of a single story frame home in the 400 block on South Oregon st., Jacksonville, about 11:30 p.m. yesterday.

The home, formerly the Marsh property, now owned by Ancel Pierce, was rented to the Nate Smith family. The Smiths are reported to be working a mine in the Whiskey peak area and were not at home.

Members of the Jacksonville Volunteer fire department brought the blaze under control, while residents of nearby homes dampened their own roofs with water to prevent sparks from igniting them.

Cause of the fire was not known, but it is likely that it originated from faulty wiring in the attic, according to the Jacksonville Fire Chief Lewis Applebaker. The home was just recently remodeled.

Four-Engine Plane Down in Belgium

Wiesbaden, Germany—(UPI)—The U.S. Air Force announced that one of its four-engine KB50 aerial refueling planes with 14 men aboard crashed near St. Vith, Belgium, today.

The Air Force said it had no word about survivors. Reports from Liege, Belgium, indicated several members of the crew were killed.

A spokesman said the flying tanker was on a routine mission from Wiesbaden to Sculthorpe, England. He said the men were stationed here at headquarters of U.S. Air Force in Europe.

Conscience Bothers; Electric Bill Paid

Traverse City, Mich.—(UPI)—A conscience-stricken homeowner who got away without paying for his electricity almost five years has sent $155 and an anonymous letter to the Consumers Power Co. at Traverse City.

"From the time I moved into a certain house where there was no meter, until four years and 10 months later, I used electricity without paying for it," the writer explained.

"I have figured what I owe by what my bills were for the first 12 months after the meter was installed, making a total of $146.01. Then I've added $8.76 for interest at the rate of six per cent, making a total of $154.77. I'm enclosing $155 even as it's easier to mail. Please believe that I'm sorry."

The letter was signed: "From one who is trying to be a Christian."
