

Camp Whitters Face Prospect In RVL Tonight

Camp White — Camp White and Prospect clash at Memorial stadium here tonight in a Rogue Valley Baseball league make-up tangle.

Game time is 8 p.m. Don Sanford may get the mound summons for the Whitters while Don Vanrice may be called upon for the Upper Rogue aggregation.

Neither team is in the running for league laurels but each hopes to finish as high in the RVL standings as possible.

Pittsburgh Hoping for 'Miracle'

Pittsburgh—UPI—Pittsburgh Pirate fans, long accustomed to cellar teams, are singing the lyrics of a song that goes "all the way."

The winner of the National league pennant may well be decided next month at Forbes field and Pirate diehards figure it may not be the Milwaukee Braves.

During September the second-place Pirates play 23 games in Forbes field, meeting all seven National league opponents. With the success they have had so far on their home grounds, Pirate fans are looking for a "miracle."

"All I can say at this point is nobody's going to attempt to prove that we won't go all the way," General Manager Joe L. Brown said.

The Pirates have played their best ball at Forbes field this season. They have won 16 of their last 18 games and have a 35-22 overall record at home.

Little Leaguers Vie in Regional

Portland—The Western Regional Little League Baseball tournament will be held at Alpenrose Stadium, 6149 S.W. Shattuck road, just south of the Hillsdale-Beaverton highway, on Aug. 15 and 16.

Participating boys, 11 and 12 years old, have already won three tournaments by winning at least seven consecutive games before coming to Portland.

On Friday, at 2:30 p.m., Hawthorne-Babbitt, Nev., will play Sacramento, Calif., and at 5 p.m. Phoenix, Ariz., will meet Portland. On Saturday the losers will play a consolation game at 1:00 and the winners will decide the Championship at 3:30 p.m.

The winner of the Portland tournament will leave immediately for Williamsport, Penn., to play in the Little League World Series.

Pirates Take Over Second Spot as Witt Holds Braves To Two Hits in 10-0 Fray

By FRED DOWN
United Press International
Remember Babe Adams, the rookie who pitched the Pittsburgh Pirates to their first world championship with three victories in the 1909 World Series?

Well, the amazing Pirates have come up with their greatest rookie pitching hero since Adams and it just could be that he'll help the Bucs "steal" the National league pennant from the Milwaukee Braves.

He's George Witt, a 6-foot, 3-inch right-hander from Laguna, Calif., who stopped the slugging Braves on two hits Tuesday night and pitched the Pirates into second place five games out of first with a 10-0 victory. It was the fourth straight win for Witt, who has pitched 23 consecutive scoreless innings, has yielded one run in his last 35 innings and has a league-leading 1.58 earned run average.

Witt, a 200-pound fastballer, yielded only one "legitimate" hit—a ninth-inning double by Hank Aaron. The other Milwaukee hit was a fluke second-inning double which left-fielder Bob Skinner lost in the Forbes Field lights. Except for that fluke hit, Witt would have entered the ninth with a chance to pitch the first no-hitter in the 49-year history of Forbes Field.

A crowd of 36,867 saw the Pirates take a 2-0 lead in the sixth inning and then humiliate the world champions with a riotous eight-run rally in the eighth that marked the Bucs' biggest inning of the year. The Pirates, with six straight victories and 16 wins in their last 18 games at home, now start a 15-game road trip which Manager Danny Murphy says will "make or break" them as a contender.

The St. Louis Cardinals beat the San Francisco Giants, 7-3, and dropped them into third place, the Chicago Cubs walloped the Los Angeles Dodgers, 9-3, and the Cincinnati Redlegs crushed the Philadelphia Phillies, 12-4, in the other National league games.

In the American league, Mickey Mantle's 33rd homer helped the New York Yankees beat the Baltimore Orioles, 7-2, the Chicago White Sox topped the Cleveland Indians, 4-1, and the Detroit Tigers edged the Kansas City A's, 7-6. Boston at Washington was rained out.

Frank Thomas' two-run homer snapped a scoreless tie in the Milwaukee-Pittsburgh sixth and the Pirates then sent 12 men to the plate in the riotous eighth. Bob Skinner weighed in with a two-run triple and Bill Mazeroski, who is hitting 524 in the Pirates' six-game streak, had three hits for the second straight night.

Sam Jones pitched a six-hitter to win his 10th game for the Cardinals. Willie Mays again went hitless for the Los Angeles — (UPI) — Rangy, brown-haired Bill Wade — quarterback and prayer leader of the Los Angeles Rams — will get his first official test as "man in charge" Saturday night when the Rams play the Washington Redskins at the Coliseum in a charity exhibition game.

Some 80,000 are expected for the contest in which Wade, a modern-trend "running" quarterback, will be No. 1 field general for the first time since Norm Van Brocklin was traded to Philadelphia.

His performance may indicate whether the Rams can hope to win the National Football league championship this year and surpass the club's 1957 record of 1,051,106 set last season.

Coach Sid Gillman, in his fourth season with the Rams, believes they may go beyond 1,500,000 if they can get and hold a lead; for they generally are admitted the most colorful outfit in the circuit.

Wade's rise is an example of how the Rams try persistently to keep a step ahead of the opposition in moving men up, and in using players apparently "made" for a particular position.

The position of quarterback in the league today demands a player with terrific running speed as well as passing ability. He must be able to put on running bursts at intervals when required. That combination is an essential now under the standard "T" formation used in the circuit. The split "T" is practically obsolete in the league because no quarterback could long survive the pounding he would receive from 250-pounders if he ran with any regularity.

Wade, 26 — a bonus pick from Vanderbilt in 1952 — is a quarterback at his peak and the waning Bob Waterfield was still capable. Bill didn't get much chance to play regularly and he never had the attention-critical responsibility of being "the man in charge."

Bill not only is the field general now but he also leads the squad in prayer when it gathers in a circle about him before the start of each game. He kneels on the turf and his standing mates pray with him.

Patterson Sloppy in Ring Work

By JACK CUDDY
United Press International
Oceanside, Calif. — (UPI) — Heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson appears "sloppy" in his sparring sessions at this southern California beach resort and shopping center.

Floyd, 23, is either off form from boredom with long training or he's acting to help the gate for Monday's title defense against unbeaten Roy Harris at Wrigley Field in Los Angeles.

He never tried acting before. "With two more boxing workouts I'm sure I'll be sharp for the fight," he told sportswriters today. "I do feel a bit slow, but I'm getting faster."

Manager Gus D'Amato admitted "Yes, Floyd's had previous spells when he didn't appear sharp, but never like this before—at a late stage in training."

Change Surprises
Several New York sportswriters, who had witnessed Patterson's last impressive workout at Monticello, N. Y., three weeks ago and then saw him for the first time in the West Tuesday, were surprised at the change in his showing.

True, he was using two speedy San Francisco lightweight-heavyweights during Tuesday's four rounds at the Community Center. But he had worked with good spartates in the East, too.

Lanky Sisto Rodriguez, who has a stand-up jabbing and hooking style similar to that of Harris, made the champion appear sloppy in their two rounds. Moreover, he landed several "sneaker" rights on Floyd's face—rights like those Harris is grooming.

And in his two frames with shorter Frank McCoy the champ missed many hooks and resorted to his old-time leaping "gazzelle punch," as he tried to spear McCoy with flying rights and lefts. When he finished the workout, there was a lump on the right side of Floyd's face.

Fromm Enters Portland Meet

Portland—UPI—The Pacific Northwest All-Corners track and field meet here Saturday will have another stellar attraction in the person of John Fromm of Pacific Lutheran college. He holds the NCAA javelin record with a toss of 258 feet.

Other entrants registered for the meet include Steve Anderson of the University of Oregon who will represent the Tacoma Track and Field club; Mark Robbins, a two-miler also from the University of Oregon; Jim Puckett, the 9.5 sprinter from Cove high school; Jack Larson, a mile runner from the University of Washington; and Wayne Moss of Oregon State and Hank Wyborny of Port Angeles, Wash., both pole vaulters.

Ortega Rated Even With Foe

New York — (UPI) — Gaspar Ortega of Mexico and Mickey Crawford of Saginaw, Mich., both eager for a shot at Virgil Akins' welterweight title, are "even money" in the betting for their 10-round nationally televised return bout tonight at Madison Square Garden.

Ortega currently is the No. 1 contender for Akins' crown. Crawford is ranked fifth by the National Boxing Association and ninth by Ring Magazine.

Ortega scored a split decision over Crawford July 11 in New York.

Duren Hurt Again

New York — (UPI) — Pitcher Ryne Duren of the New York Yankees will be out of action for several days because of injury to his left knee. Duren checkbone by a pitched ball, recently was hit on the suffering a slight fracture.

Phoenix Wins 2-1 In Rhubarbed Tiff

BY GENE BRYANT
United Press International
Phoenix moved back into a three-game lead in the Pacific Coast league campaign today after shading second-place Vancouver, 2-1, in an argument-filled contest in the Canadian city.

The Giants pushed across the deciding tally in the seventh inning when Jim Finigan came in from third, missed the plate according to the Mounties, then was ruled safe by umpire Chris Pelechouds after a belated tag by catcher Charlie White.

Finigan had gotten on base via a free pass when Pelechouds ruled that losing hurler Ery Palica quick-pitched him. With two out, Jack Dittmer and Dusty Rhodes followed with infield singles, sending Finigan home with the winning run and setting the stage for a lengthy argument between the Mounties and Pelechouds.

That win gave the Giants a 2-1 series lead and shaved Vancouver's margin over third-place San Diego to a half game.

The Padres pushed across single runs in the last two innings against Seattle to take a 3-2 decision.

Migratory Bird Hunt Dates Due

Portland—UPI—The Oregon Game Commission said today it would shortly issue the dates for the migratory waterfowl season for the Oregon portion of the Pacific Flyway within the limits authorized by the Department of Interior.

The department Tuesday authorized a 95-day hunting season, except for brant which can be hunted for only 70 days. Last year the season holds, it would mean that the waterfowl season could extend until Feb. 13, 1959. Bag limits will remain unchanged.
