

Joe Jay Hurls One-Hitter Spoiling Debut for Dykes

By FRED DOWN
United Press International
Pitcher Joey Jay and the Milwaukee Braves wasted no time introducing Jimmy Dykes to the facts of life for a manager of the Cincinnati Redlegs.

Dykes, who succeeded Birdie Tebbetts Thursday, escaped the embarrassment of suffering a no-hit defeat by only one single Thursday night when the Braves spoiled his debut with a 3-0 victory. Jay yielded only a sixth-inning single to Jerry Lynch for eight innings and Warren Spahn pitched the ninth after the 6-foot, 4-inch Milwaukee rookie issued his eighth walk to lead off the frame.

Thus, Dykes was introduced to the fact that probably led more than anything else to his predecessors' failures—the Redlegs just can't beat the Braves. The world champions whipped 'em 18 times in 22 meetings last season and Thursday night's victory made the 1938 count, 11-3.

Lead By Six
Bill Bruton homered for the Braves' first run in the first inning and Wes Covington's triple and an error made it 2-0 in the second. Roy McMillan's error and Del Crandall's single built the lead to 3-0 in the eighth.

The win restored the Braves' lead over the idle second-place Pittsburgh Pirates to six games and left them 6½ ahead of the third-place San Francisco Giants, who beat the St. Louis Cardinals, 4-3, in an afternoon game. The Los Angeles Dodgers downed the Chicago Cubs, 7-3, in the other N.L. game.

In the American league, the runaway New York Yankees walloped the Boston Red Sox, 8-2, Vic Power's second steal of home gave the Cleveland Indians a 10-9 triumph over the Detroit Tigers and the Chicago White Sox defeated the Kansas City Athletics, 5-2.

Mays Homers
Willie Mays snapped a 2-2 tie with an eighth-inning homer and Orlando Cepeda doubled home another tally to lead the Giants to their victory over St. Louis. Daryl Spencer also homered for the Giants. Johnny Antonelli won his 13th game.

Pitcher Don Drysdale and outfielder Duke Snider paced the Dodgers' 10-hit attack with round-trippers. Ernie Banks had three hits for the Cubs.

Johnny Kucks yielded only four hits over the last six innings to win his eighth game for the Yankees. Mickey Mantle was tossed out of the game for arguing a ball-strike decision in the fourth inning. Tony Kubek had three hits for the Yankees.

Steals Home Twice
Power stole home with the bases filled in the 10th inning to give the Indians a win that snapped the Tigers' five-game winning streak. Power, who also stole home in the eighth inning, is the first American leaguer to perform this feat twice in one game. Rocky Colavito hit two homers for Cleveland.

Ray Moore scattered five hits to win his ninth game for the White Sox, who took over sole possession of second place in the A.L. Luis Aparicio extended his consecutive-game hitting streak to 12 games with two hits.

MEDFORD MAIL TRIBUNE SPORTS

FEELING BIG MUSCLES of Heavyweight Champion Floyd Patterson, Ronnie Lee Smith, 9, Cub Scout from Torrance, Calif., decides Patterson is cinch to win fight with Roy Harris, Texas, at Los Angeles August 18.

Good Seats Yet Available For Craterian Theatre TV Of Patterson-Harris Bout

Sales of tickets for the Craterian theater television presentation of the Floyd Patterson-Roy Harris heavyweight title boxing bout were picking up today but there are plenty of good seats still available.

That was the report of Bob Corbin, manager here for Oregon-California Theatres. The fight is scheduled on Monday night, Aug. 18, at Los Angeles. There will be no home television of the bout and no radio broadcast. Doors at the Craterian will open at 6 p.m. and the fight is set for 7 p.m.

Standby Bout
Corbin received word this morning that, should an early knockout occur in the titular scrap, a topnotch standby tussle will fill out the telecast.

Telephone company installations for the TV were being made at the Craterian today. Corbin said that the video projector, which will be used will be on display today through Sunday in the theater lobby.

General admission seats sell for $3 and loge and center seats are going at $5.

Los Angeles—(UPI)—The boxing clan was buzzing today over Joe Louis' unexpected television plug for Monday night's Floyd Patterson-Roy Harris heavyweight title fight.

Ex-champion Joe, a public relations director for the rival International Boxing club, stepped before the cameras during a station KTLA show in the Sheraton-West hotel Thursday night and praised the fight lavishly.

Surprised
Bill Rosensohn, the independent young promoter who is staging his first fight, blinked in surprise as Louis declared, "I think this will be a very good fight and I give Harris a good chance to win."

Louis pointed out Patterson had won the title by knocking out ancient Archie Moore, "who was over the hill." He said Patterson had defended against Hurricane Jackson "who was all washed up," and made his second defense against Pete Rademacher, "who was strictly an amateur."

George Bamberger Has New Mark for Walkless Stanzas

BY GENE BRYANT
United Press International
Vancouver's George Bamberger had a new Pacific Coast League record to his credit today—68 2-3 consecutive innings pitched without giving up a walk.

The 32-year-old Mountie righthander hurled the Canadians to a 3-1 win over front-running Phoenix Thursday, picking up his 14th victory of the season and breaking the old walkless mark of 64 frames set by Julio Bonetti of Los Angeles in 1939. A pass to pinchhitter Bill Wilson in the seventh broke his walkless string.

Bamberger missed getting his sixth shutout of the season when the Giants pushed across their only run on a double by Bobby Prescott and Tom Haller's single after two were out in the ninth. Jim Hughes came in and retired the last two batters.

Hits Scattered
The Mounties scored two runs in the second inning on Owen Friend's homer, then added another in the sixth off losing pitcher Pete Brnside. The Giants outhit the winners, 10-6, but Bamberger kept them well scattered.

The victory moved Vancouver into a second-place tie with San Diego, three games back of the Giants, who took the series, three games to two. Portland made it six out of seven against Salt Lake with a 6-4 win and Sacramento shaded Spokane, 3-2, in other games. San Diego and Seattle took the night off.

Portland's victory over Salt Lake moved the Beavers into a fourth-place deadlock with the crumbling Bees. The winners scored five times in the first inning on two walks, a sacrifice fly, two singles and Nini Tornay's two-run homer. Dave Melton belted a solo four-bagger in the fifth for the Beavers to close out the scoring.

Defeat To O'Brien
Al Lary went the route for Portland to pick up his eighth win against six losses, while Salt Lake starter Eddie O'Brien was tagged with his 11th defeat against seven victories. Sacramento pushed across single runs in the seventh and eighth frames against Spokane to salvage the finale of the five-game series with the Indians. Nippy Jones came home with the winning run on a broken bat single by Jim Greengrass.

Bob Jenkins drove in both of Spokane's runs with his ninth homer of the year in the fourth. Mike Kume, the second of three Solon hurlers was credited with his fifth win against four setbacks, while Larry Sherry was saddled with his 12th loss against six wins.

Classie league already has had a meeting.
Plans call for opening of play on Aug. 25 in the Classic, Aug. 26 in the Carter, Aug. 27 in the Elk and Aug. 28 in the Independent. Other league opening dates depend on arrival and installation of automatic pitchsets. If this equipment arrives between Aug. 25 and 28, the loops in question may not begin until around Sept. 8. If the pitchsets are delayed in arriving, earlier start is possible.

Lead Taken By Jacobs

St. Paul, Minn.—(UPI)—Tommy Jacobs, a youngster pinned with the "can't miss" tag in professional golf, and Lionel Hebert, 1957 PGA champion, took one-stroke leads into the second round of the St. Paul Open today with a host of stars hot on their heels.

Jacobs, 23, and Hebert, 30, fashioned eight-under-par 64s Thursday as more than half the starting field in the $25,000 tournament smashed par at Keller golf course.

Cary Middlecoff was tied at 65 with Sam Nead, Frank Strahan and Doug Ford. Ken Venturi, the defending champion, Mike Souchak, Jay Hebert and Dow Finsterwald were four of 19 players grouped at 6. Arnold Palmer, the year's leading money winner, was one of several bunched at 67.

HEART GOLF OPENS
Kansas City—(UPI)—Mary Lena Faulk, fresh from a triumph at Rockford, Ill., returned to the scene of her first professional victory today to try to make it two in a row at the $5,000 Heart of America women's invitational golf tournament. Miss Faulk, some 19 other sister pros and about 50 amateurs tee off today over the rugged, 6,012-yard Blue Hills Country club course in 90-degree temperatures. The 54-hole tournament will see the champion crowned Sunday.

Dairy Maids In Benefit On Saturday

Camp White—Rogue Valley Dairy Maids, newly-crowned women's state softball champs, will meet the Bureau of Reclamation men's team on Saturday night at Memorial stadium here.

It will be a benefit to help raise funds for the Dairy Maids' trip to the regional tournament Aug. 21-24 at Forest Grove.

Tomorrow's game will be at 8 p.m. The Maids, Bureau team members and Veterans Administration domiciliary members are hoping for a good turnout and liberal donations when the collection boxes are passed.

Talent Gridders Called Aug. 25
Talent—Talent High school footballers will receive physical examinations and will get their equipment on Monday evening Aug. 25, the official opening day of prep football drills in Oregon.

Millard Webb, backfield coach last year, moves to the head man job. Dick Thorpe will be assistant mentor.

Talent will be host to Eagle Point on Sept. 12 in the season opener for both schools.
