

Cocktail Party Honors Couple

Mr. and Mrs. David Brainerd of Petaluma, Calif., were honored at a cocktail party given Friday evening by Mrs. Brainerd's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Littrell at their home on Greenway circle. About 100 guests attended.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Pickett, Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vannice and the Faye Bristols, all of Grants Pass. The Picketts are here to spend some time with Mrs. Pickett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Pickett, 206 Portland avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Brainerd and their daughters, Jan and Lyn, left yesterday afternoon. They also visited Mr. Brainerd's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Brainerd, and his mother, who lives in Grants Pass, while in Oregon. The David Brainerds formerly lived in Medford.

Three Honored At Informal Tea

An informal tea given Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Paul J. Dix and Mrs. H. Dewey Wilson honored Mrs. E. G. Silden, Mrs. Sidney Tickton and Mrs. Lawrence Buonocone. Mrs. Silden, from Florida, and her daughter, who lives in Great Neck, New York, are here to visit Mrs. Silden's second daughter and her son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Buonocone. The tea was given at the Wilson home, 508 North Berkeley way. Pouring were Mrs. William Duhaime, Mrs. Stuart McQueen and Mrs. Joseph Clark.

The tea table was laid with an heirloom linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of pastel colored garden flowers.

Returns

Mrs. Lilian Exline, 812 Taylor street, has returned from a vacation trip which took her as far north as Pt. Barrow, Alaska. Mrs. Exline traveled by plane and boat.

Wedding Announced

Miss Margaret Jean Alley and John Aris Bellack were married July 26 in a ceremony held in Reno, Nev. The Rev. Raymond Walters officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hadley Alley, 124 Greenway circle, Medford, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bellack, 1475 Crater Lake avenue. The bride was graduated from Medford High school and attended Stephens college, Missouri, for one year. Mr. Bellack also was graduated from Medford High school and will return to the University of Oregon this fall for his junior year in geology. Mrs. Bellack also plans to attend the university.

The bride was honored at a cocktail party and shower given Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Walter Graff and Mrs. O. J. Halboth at the latter's home on Hillcrest road. Twenty-four guests attended. The centerpiece for the serving table was a bride's bouquet of pink rosebuds and pink candles. The bouquet was presented to Mrs. Bellack at the end of the party. The presents were arranged in a doll house.

Two Now Home After Trip East

Mrs. H. L. Mooney and daughter, Marilyn, have returned to the Mooneys' home on Hillcrest road after spending the past two months in the midwest and eastern states. The two visited Mrs. Mooney's family in Carthage, Mo., and then continued east where they spent some time with the Mooneys' two older daughters, Mrs. Malcolm Sample, Demarest, N. J., and Mrs. M. F. Erieg, Garden City, Long Island.

While in New York they visited the United Nations and the United States Military academy at West Point, as well as other places of interest.

Allison-Botchek Wedding Held at Catholic Church

Miss Martha Botchek became the bride of Glen Allison in a ceremony held Saturday, August 9, at the Sacred Heart Catholic church, Medford. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Botchek, Rogue River. Mrs. Allison is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Allison, Gold Hill.

The Rev. John Ilg officiated at the 10 o'clock morning nuptial mass attended by 125 relatives and friends. White and pink gladiolus decorated the church for the event and Miss Carol Robinson played the organ wedding music.

The bride wore a white Chantilly lace over satin frock with lace train and her chapel length veil was held by a pearl crown. She carried a bouquet of white stephanotis and pink roses and the heirloom locket she wore—first worn by her great-grandmother—has since been worn by every bride in the family.

Mr. Botchek escorted his daughter to the altar.

Miss Carol Schmidt, Twisp, Wash., was honor attendant for her cousin while Miss Janet O'Malley, Portland, and Miss Ellen Swick, Seattle, another cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore pink chiffon frocks with white lace collars and pink chiffon picture hats. Their bouquets were of garnet roses and white daisies. Little Mary Hubbard, Riverside, Wash., was flower girl for her cousin. She wore a pink dress.

Richard Clark served as best man while Victor Hadley, Kenneth Walker and Robert Allison, Gold Hill, brother of the bridegroom, seated the guests.

Mrs. Botchek wore a white linen sheath dress with white accessories and a corsage of white stephanotis. Mrs. Allison chose a blue nylon organ-dress with pink accessories and pink rose corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church annex. Mrs. John Collins cut the wedding cake and Miss Darlene Allison served the cake. Miss Alexa Hibbard presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Orville Swick poured the coffee. Mrs. John Wall was in charge of the guest book.

The couple traveled to the California coast on their wedding trip, the bride wearing a beige linen sheath frock with matching accessories. They plan to return to the valley today and will make their home at 433 South Grape street.

The bride and bridegroom are both graduates of St. Mary's High school, Medford. The bride is employed as a clerk at the Big Y Market. Mr. Allison, who will be a senior at Southern Oregon college this fall, is employed

Here Mrs. Pearl Cowin and son, Orval Cowin, Seattle, Wash., have arrived in Medford to spend a couple of weeks at their home, 722 Newtown street. The Cowin family formerly lived here.
