

CREPE DRESS—Soft, fluid draping, dramatized by an Empire bow, marks this crepe dress. In Avisco rayon.

Soft, Lofly Look Prevails in Fall Millinery Styles

The soft and lofty look prevails in fall millinery, and among the many interpretations of this look are costume-completing hats for each of the season's new silhouettes. Textures, colors and trimmings add to the effect of made-for-each-other luxury.

The soft slouch hat makes a perfect costume mate for the new walking suits, while the lofty, high-crowned fedora is particularly effective with easy, long-jacketed suits.

Casual tailoring of fall suit hats echoes the casual lines of the unfitted suit jacket. Textures and colors also match clothing, with wool jersey, mohair and other "bearded" wools, iridescent effects, bold plaids, buttons, bows and leather trimmings making style harmony easy to achieve.

Bouffants Suggested
For the chemise and the blouson, milliners suggest bouffant, ballooning silhouettes in high, gently-rounded cloches and turbans. Fluffy, long-napped velours, shaggy tweed fabrics and long-haired furs make these bloused hats cloud soft and light-looking.

With the increasing importance of fur-trimmed fashions, fur hats become more appealing than ever, in every known variety of pelt from sable, chinchilla and mink to broad-tail, beaver, leopard and a wealth of novelty furs.

Wig hats, a summer favorite play a return engagement for fall. Beautiful plumage in stained glass colors and tweed like color combinations makes attractive head coverings. Fur wigs are cosy as well as fashionable.

Empire Influence Seen
Appearing in fashion, along with the trend to high-waisted dresses and coats, are tall-crowned bonnets inspired by the Napoleonic era. Inflated pillboxes, soaring turbans and high hats with small forward-reaching or ruffled brims are designed to settle comfortably over tiny chignons and clusters of curls worn Empire-fashion high on the crown of the head.

The colors of fall hats are as exciting as their textures. Jewel-like tones and color combinations as vivid as those of stained glass are favorites, while jet blacks are a striking contrast to the color-drenched autumn palette.

COLORED EMBLEMS—Heraldic emblems take to color this fall in jewelry designed for teens. They show to good advantage on turtle-neck dresses. Jewelry by Coro.
