

Milwaukee Breezing Along; Yanks Feel Like Sad Sacks

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International
Funny game, this baseball. The Braves are leading by eight games and feel like shooin; the Yankees lead by 11½ and feel like sad-sacks—but they'll have to go out and practice today whether they like it or not.

Everything is hunky-dory with the breezing Braves, who ran their winning streak to seven games Sunday by sweeping a pair from the Phillies, 5-1 and 4-1.

On the other hand, everything is all fouled up with the Yankees, who dropped a 6-5 decision to the Red Sox and now have lost eight of San Francisco took over their last 11 starts. Since Aug. 2, their lead has shrunk from 17 games.

The schedule says the Yanks have today off. Casey Stengel says differently. He called a practice session for 10 o'clock in the morning.

"I don't know what's-a-matter," he grumbled, "but I'm gonna find out in a hurry."

Sox Continue Streak

Anyway, the second-place White Sox, still entertaining notions of catching the Yankees, won their fifth straight by beating the Indians, 3-2. Baltimore nipped Washington, 2-1, and Kansas City defeated Detroit, 4-1.

Second place in the National league with an 8-6 triumph over Chicago. Cincinnati swept a doubleheader from Pittsburgh, 4-3 and 7-5, while Los Angeles earned a split by taking the nightcap, 9-3, after St. Louis won the opener, 12-7.

Juan Pizarro's four-hit pitching and Frank Torre's grand-slam homer off Don Cardwell gave the Braves their opening-game victory, and in the nightcap, Lew Burdette hurled a five-hitter for his 13th triumph. Wes Covington hit his 22nd homer and also scored the decisive run on Johnny Logan's perfect squeeze bunt in the fourth inning.

Six home runs were hit in the Red Sox-Yankee game but perhaps even more significant were the three singles and a double by Ted Williams that sent his average up to .316.

Homer Wins Game

Earl Battey's eighth-inning homer off Jim Grant broke a 2-2 tie between the White Sox and Indians. Lefty Billy Pierce gave up nine hits in his 13th victory.

Connie Johnson of the Orioles hurled a three-hitter and produced a sacrifice fly that brought in the winning run in the fifth inning. Brooks Robinson slid home with the deciding run after second baseman Herb Plews of the Senators caught Johnson's pop-up in short right field.

The four-hitter pitching of ex-reliever Bob Grim and a three-run homer by Harry Chiti helped the A's sweep their three-game series from the Tigers.

A total of seven home runs were hit in the Giants-Cubs game but it was Willie Mays' 21st homer with two on in the fourth that proved the payoff blow. The wallow gave San Francisco an 8-4 lead after which Ernie Banks clouted his 38th homer with one on in the sixth. Bobby Thomson hit two homers.

Pirate Hopes Drop

The two victories by the Redlegs dropped the Pirates into third place, nine games off the pace, and just about made them forget any possible pennant notions they may have entertained.

Jerry Lynch of the Redlegs, a one-time Pirate, was the man who hurt Pittsburgh most. His third hit in the opener was a ninth-inning single that drove in the winning run and he collected two more hits in the finale, including a two-run homer.

Stan Musial had four hits while Ken Boyer and Del Ennis each drove in three runs to help the Cards beat the Dodgers in the opener. Danny McDevitt, recently recalled from the minors, held the Cards to six hits in the second game.

Roy To Be Riled Texan In Tussle

BY ROY HARRIS
(Written For UPI)
Arrowhead Springs, Calif.—UPI—Some folks have been saying I'm not "mean" enough, but I promise you'll see a riled up Texan in the fight with Floyd Patterson. Floyd Patterson.

I want the heavyweight title, want it bad. And more than that I guess I've got to prove some things to the so-called "experts" who have made me such an underdog.

I am certain that I can lick Patterson and take the championship back to Cut'n Shoot. Ready For 15 Rounds

I've trained for the full distance, but I certainly can win it sooner. I know I have the punch to knock out Patterson or any other man alive if I land it right.

I think my right hand will give Patterson a lot of trouble. It is what's called in the boxing trade "sneaky" fast. I think Patterson is open for body punches from what I've seen of him on television, and I'm sure I can beat him to the punch if he tries that "gazelle" business—leaping off his feet to throw long ones.

Take What Comes

Actually, though, I'm not going into this fight with any hard and fast strategy. He's been a long time between bouts, and he may have altered his style, although it is pretty hard to make any real big change in the way you've learned to fight.

But it is better to adjust to the way your opponent fights. Then you can't get into a trap when he doesn't do what you expect.

People ask if I'm losing any sleep thinking about the fight. I can honestly say I've never slept so much or so well in my life as I have in the training camp.

Oh, I think and plan a little bit when I first lie down, but then I just "knock him out" and concentrate on getting to sleep. It seems I never have much trouble.

Of course, you can win 'em all when you're only mind fighting. But I think I can make it come out the same way when I get Patterson into that ring for real.

Riddle, Camp White Cop RVL Conflicts

ROGUE VALLEY BASEBALL LEAGUE

|---------------|---|---|------|
| Riddle        | 7 | 1 | .875 |
| Cave Junction | 5 | 3 | .625 |
| Camp White    | 4 | 4 | .500 |
| Butte Falls   | 3 | 5 | .375 |
| Prospect      | 1 | 7 | .125 |

Riddle stood alone at the top of the heap at the end of the regular Rogue Valley league baseball slate yesterday but still faces playoff trophy competition next week end with Cave Junction.

The South Douglas Trojans scored the winning run on an error in the ninth frame yesterday to tip Butte Falls at Myrtle Creek 12 to 11. In the other Sunday game, Camp White, with the help of a four-run canto, topped Cave Junction 8 to 6.

CJ's Outlaws retained second place in the standings despite the loss while Camp White wound up with unshared third spot in the final standings.

Tentative play-offs call for a 4:30 p.m. game Saturday at Myrtle Creek and for the second game, and third, if needed, at Cave Junction Sunday afternoon. Play would start at 1 p.m. Camp White has a non-league fracas billed Friday at Memorial stadium with the Klamath Falls Cubs.

Batting Title

Bob Smith, Camp White apparently clinched the league batting title with two hits in five times up Sunday but official confirmation awaits tabulation of statistics. Unofficial records show Smith with 10 hits in 20 times up in league games.

Matter of league pitching laurels rests in a meeting next Sunday at Cave Junction.

Original intention was to determine the top pitcher on the basis of wins and losses with other statistics to break ties. Four hurlers, Anderson and Cockrell, Riddle, Peterson, Prospect, and Wayne Saffer, Cave Junction, have 1-0 records and are the only chuckers without losses. However, none of these have been league workhorses and have pitched far fewer innings than the heavy duty twirlers. If the workhorse efforts are considered, then the pitcher trophy may go to Duane Miller, Riddle, with a 5-1 standing.

Ray Munyon, Riddle, and Bob Clark Butte Falls, paced swatters in their game yesterday with four hits in five times up. Mike Conley and Hank Tygart each had three for five for Butte Falls and Bill Rodgers had a homer. Riddle scored six of its runs in one inning while Butte Falls had a four-run stanza.

Takes Lead In Fifth

Camp White went ahead 7 to 6 in its tussle with the four tallies in the fifth panel on singles by Ed Reinking, Bob Smith and Don Wendt, a triple by Vern Parent, a walk and an error. Insurance was added in the eighth on a walk, stolen base and Don Sanford's single.

Cave Junction had a two-run hop in the mix in the second inning on singles by Lou Maurer and Jim Linderman, a walk, stolen base, passed ball and wild pitch. CW collected a singleton in the same stanza on Pete Hale's double. Don Wendt's one-baser and Parent's sacrifice flyout.

Hits by Ron and Lou Maurer and a steal by Ron got an Outlaw run in the third but the Writers tied it up at 3-3 in the same panel on a walk, error and Smith's double for two runs.

Cave Junction pulled to 6 to 3 in the fourth on hits by Bud Kaufman and Larry Maurer, an error, walk and ground out for three markers.

Lou Maurer had three hits in the tangle and Les Saffer, Ron Maurer, Larry Maurer and Kaufman for Cave Junction and Reinking, Smith Wendt, Parent and Chuck Mairchano for Camp White each two.

Mike Souchak St. Paul Victor

St. Paul, Minn.—UPI—Mike Souchak, 31-year-old former football star at Duke University, had his first golf title in two years today.

Souchak won the $25,000 St. Paul Open Sunday with a record-smashing 25-under-par 263 over the 72-hole route at Keller Golf course. It was in the St. Paul event in 1956 that he last won a tournament crown.

Souchak, who picked up $3,500 for his win, had a four-stroke bulge over Sam Snead, who led the event after 54 holes, and Julius Boros. Art Wall Jr., finished at 269.

Six players were bracketed at 270, 18 under par. They were Ken Venturi, Frank Stranahan, Cary Middlecoff, Dow Finsterwald, Ernie Vossler and Lionel Hebert.

Gunderson Defending Thornton Kipper Wins 20th Tilt For Lewiston

Darien, Conn.—UPI—Joanne Gunderson, a husky blonde from Seattle, Wash., begins defense of her women's national amateur golf title today against an international field sprinkled with British and U.S. Curtis Cup stars.

Lewiston's Thornton Kipper became the lone member of the 20 game club Sunday night as he tossed a seven-hitter for a 5-4 win over Tricity. The Bronco ace is the third Northwest league pitcher to win 20 games since the league was formed.

PCL Leaders Beaten In Sunday Twinbills

By GENE BRYANT
United Press International
The Pacific Coast League, embroiled in one of the tightest pennant races in its history, headed into the last three week of play today with little likelihood that any of the three clubs still in title contention will break away from the pack before the season ends.

Both Phoenix and San Diego, the loop's first two clubs, blew their chance to gain on one another Sunday by dropping double-headers to a pair of second division teams.

Cellar-dwelling Seattle, which had lost 14 straight through Friday, rose up to whack the Giants twice, 4-2 and 7-6, marking the Rainiers' third straight win over the league leaders. San Diego's Padres stumbled in their effort to overtake the Giants by dropping 5-3 and 3-1 decisions to sixth-place Spokane as the California club remained two games out of first.

Mounties Gain

Third-place Vancouver managed to gain a game on both clubs by dividing a pair with Portland. The Beavers smashed the Mounties with five home runs and a 12-1 victory in the opener, but the Canadians came back to win the second game, 8-6 and salvage the finale of their four-game series. The split moved Vancouver to within a game of the Padres and three of the Giants.

In other games, Salt Lake and Sacramento split a pair, the Bees winning the seven-inning opener, 2-1, and the Solons taking the nightcap, 13-4. Eddie Basinski singled home the winning run with two out in the eighth inning of the second game at Seattle to give the Rainiers a sweep for the day. The home club had knotted the score at 6-6 with a two-run burst in the seventh to send the contest into overtime.

Zanni Defeated

The Rainiers won the opener behind the six-hit pitching of Rookie Claude Osteen, who had a shutout going for 8 2/3 innings. The win gave Osteen a 2-3 record, while saddling Phoenix starter Dom Zanni with his ninth setback against 13 victories. Seattle won the series, three games to one.

Spokane led all the way in the first game against San Diego to give Art Fowler, the first of three Indian pitchers, his 13th win of the season. Hisel Patrick, who retired the 11 batters he faced, came on in the sixth to put down a Padre rally and preserve the win for Fowler.

Connie Grob smashed a two-run homer in the second inning of the abbreviated nightcap to win his own game. Grob allowed the Padres only three hits. The clubs split the series, two games each.

At Portland, the Mounties scored single runs in the sixth and seventh innings of the finale to win their only tilt of the four-game set with the Beavers, who now have taken nine of the last 11 games. The Canadians collected 14 safeties to Portland's 10. Bob Di Pietro, George Freese and Frank Kellert all homered for the losers.

The Beavers scored eight runs in the first three innings of the opener, then coasted to an easy victory as John Buzhardt scattered 10 hits to pick up his sixth win. Di Pietro smashed a pair of four-baggers, while Kellert, Alex Comidas and Jack Littrell hit one apiece.

George Perez turned in a three-hitter in the first game at Salt Lake to give the Bees their second win the last 10 starts. Jim McDaniel homered for the winners.

Sacramento retaliated with a 17-hit attack in the nightcap to take the series, three games to one. Pete Mesa went the route for the Solons, scattering nine hits, including Mc-

Daniel's 26th homer and R. C. Stevens' 10th.
