

FAMILY TROUPE—The Borden family, Wally Borden and his wife, Ruth, and their children, Dick, 16; Mike, 15; Sandy, 12; Gary 11, and Sherry, 10, will be entertainment features during the Friday and Saturday matinees at the Kiwanis County fair. The family, now of Medford, has made a number of television appearances and recently entertained at the Manhattan Beach hotel in New York. The children are talented singers and each member of the group plays one or more instruments.

Borden Family Will Entertain At Fair

The musically inclined Borden family, seven strong, will be one of the entertainment features Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 23 and 24 at the Kiwanis County fair.

Each member of the family plays one or more musical instruments and all of the youngsters are talented singers. Dick, 16, and Mike, 15, formed the nucleus of the troupe about eight years ago when they started singing in school programs. From singing they both turned to playing musical instruments.

Dick now specializes on the accordion, but plays the trombone and cornet as well. Mike plays a number of stringed instruments.

Musically Inclined

Wally Borden and his wife, Ruth, were also musically inclined and soon joined their sons in public entertainment, he playing the guitar and she the piano. The rest of the family joined the group as soon as they were old enough.

Eleven-year-old Gary handles the drums and the accordion; and Sandy, 12, and Sherry, 10, are both talented singers and also play several instruments.

The Borden family, originally from Bemidji, Minn., are now residents of Medford, having moved here from Prineville. Recently they appeared on the NBC-TV show "Two for the Money" and entertained at the Manhattan Beach hotel in New York.

They will perform at the matinees beginning at 3 p.m.

Government Worker Turnover Listed

Washington—(UPI)—Nearly one-fourth of the employees who were working for the federal government in January, 1957, weren't around by the end of the year.

Civil Service Commission statistics show that more than 22 per cent of the government workers went off the payroll—voluntarily or involuntarily—during the calendar year.

The total governmental turnover was 23.5 per cent. This was still only about half the turnover rate for private industry.

Forty per cent of those who left jobs with Uncle Sam quit. But the rate was dropping sharply toward the end of 1957, when the recession took hold.

Boy Caught Between Elevator Doors

Gulfport, Miss.—(UPI)—Eleven-year-old Craig Jones probably will think twice in the future before trying a solo flight in an elevator—and then undoubtedly will decide against it.

Craig sneaked into an office building elevator Monday, anxious to rise in the world. Alone, he pushed the operating button. But then he had qualms about his trip and tried to jump out before the doors closed.

He got past the inside door, but the outside door slammed in his face. He managed to clutch the outside door, where he remained clinging terrified for 15 minutes while the self-operated elevator soared past him.

Firemen finally rescued him unharmed.

Boredom May Get Best Of Flagpole Sitter

Indianapolis, Ind.—(UPI)—Mauri Rose Kirby, 17, confessed today "boredom" might thwart her quest for a new record by spending six months atop a 71-foot flagpole.

Mauri Rose completed 48 hours on the pole with the help of books, a radio and a book-writing project, but pinned her hopes on a telephone that "rings so often" she has no time for reading.

Newsman Retires After 53 Years

Metamora, Ill.—(UPI)—William (Uncle Will) Ryan, 80, has retired after serving 53½ years as editor and publisher of the oldest newspaper in Woodford County, Ill.

Ryan, who was orphaned at the age of 5, started his newspaper career as a printer in Avoca, Minn. Later he worked as a printer in Montana and California.

He bought the Herald for $400 in 1904 and was proud of the fact that he has printed more than 2,800 issues of the paper without a miss—despite one fire that destroyed his type and subscription list.

Circulation has jumped from 480 in 1904 to 1,400 at present. The weekly has been sold to a group headed by Illinois State Rep. Paul Simon.

Woodshed Burned In Local Orchard

Central Point—Fire at the 401 orchard east of here destroyed a large woodshed and damaged a frame apartment structure Saturday night.

Central Point rural firemen, who were called about 10:15 p.m., said that the blaze started in the woodshed and spread to the other building by radiant heat. The fire extended slightly into one of the three apartments in the former Camp White structure but otherwise was confined to the attic.

The two buildings were not attached. Five Central Point rural fire department vehicles were dispatched to the blaze.

Story on Pears in Valley in Magazine

A special feature story of the pear harvest in the Rogue valley will appear in the September issue of the SP Bulletin, according to a spokesman for the Medford Pear Shippers association.

The publication, published by the Southern Pacific company, receives wide distribution in six western states.

The article, written by Bill Robertson, assistant editor of the SP employee magazine, will cover all phases of pear production locally as well as information on the Pear Blossom festival.

Robertson, accompanied by Francis Hanson, staff photographer for Southern Pacific, spent several days in the Medford area last week securing information and pictures for the story. They visited several orchards, toured local packing plants and interviewed many shippers and growers as well as the county agent.

Broker Wants Moon Office for Sales

If there is a man in the moon, Pauline Riggs Haines wants to sell him a house.

A Downey, Calif., broker, Mrs. Haines recently wrote the State Division of Real Estate: "Enclosed please find $1. I wish to be the first to apply for a branch office on the moon."

"My children insist this will come in my time. It is hard to believe, but I want to be ready."

Real Estate Commissioner F. W. Griesinger showed that his imagination was at least equal to Mrs. Haines'.

He decided that pending annexation of all or part of the moon's surface to the state of California, her application for a branch office will be kept on file under "Moonbeams."
