

Woodling Hits the Orioles to Win

United Press International
Baltimore Orioles' Manager Paul Richards admits frankly, "We just live for the times Gene Woodling comes to bat," and now the Kansas City A's are among those who know what he means.

Maidens Set For Opener Thursday

Rogue Valley Dairy Maids will play Lind Florists or Pennant shop of Portland at 9 p.m. Thursday in their opening game of the women's regional softball tournament.

The tourney at Forest Grove will continue through Sunday, Aug. 24. Other first round games are Port Angeles, Wash., versus Anaconda, Mont., at 6:30 p.m. and Forest Grove versus Tacoma, Wash., at 7:45 p.m. Thursday.

A victory for the Dairy Maids would send them against the Seattle, Wash., entry at 8:30 p.m. on Friday and first round loss would give them a bye until Saturday afternoon. Seattle has a first round bye.

Eugene Players Join
The Maids will leave Wednesday for the meet and will stay at a Pacific university dormitory at Forest Grove. On the squad for the trip are Pat Barron, Shirley Hanson, Ellen Callaghan, Nadine Brood, Mary Ellen Atterbury, Jean Main, Jean Bitterling, Irma Penwell, Diane Wall, Arlene Hoffmann, Doris Hickson, Bernice Bigham and Jan Bateman.

Linda McKay, all-state catcher of Eugene McCulloch Chain Saw, will join the Dairy Maids for the tourney. Daria Logan, pitcher for Eugene, may be with the Maids Saturday.

Rogue Valley was the champion in the recent Oregon state tourney at Camp White.

The Maids are playing the Camp White baseball nine in a benefit softball game at 8 o'clock this evening at Camp White. A collection will be taken and the money added to the funds for regional tournament expense.

Woodling, who turned 36 years of age last Saturday, has been belting the ball at a 374 clip since Aug. 4 and has been just about the Orioles' whole batting attack since Bob Nieman was sidelined by an injury. The Orioles win when Gene hits, and that was the story again Monday night.

Ex-Yankee Woodling broke a 1-1 tie with a two-run homer off Ralph Terry in the sixth inning at Baltimore and that touched off a seven-run rally. When the dust cleared the Orioles went on to an 8-2 victory.

It was the only game played in the major leagues Monday. The victory, the Orioles' third straight, was just another dividend on Richards' ability to admit he made a mistake. Back in 1955 Richards traded Woodling away to Cleveland Indians. He got him back last winter and now says, "Trading Gene away in 1955 was one of the worst mistakes I've made."

Pressure Bill Appears Dead
Washington—UPI—A first-step bill aimed at curbing attempts to put political pressure on federal regulatory agencies appeared dead today—a victim of the congressional adjournment rush.

The bill hit at abuses uncovered by the House influence-investigating subcommittee before it turned to the alleged influence-for-favors relationship between Presidential Assistant Sherman Adams and millionaire Bernard Goldfine. Chairman Oren Harris (D-Ark.) of both the influence-investigating subcommittee and its parent House Commerce Committee told United Press International he believed the bill was shelved for the year because of lack of time to act on it.

Rep. John E. Moss (D-Calif.) a subcommittee member, said the bill can just as well be included in "a comprehensive attack on the problem" next year. Other subcommittee members agreed.

The first-step bill—approved last month by the subcommittee—would have affected only the Federal Communications Commission.

Its principal provision would have banned any contacts with FCC members about a case under adjudication unless all interested parties were notified. Violators would be subject to a maximum sentence to one year in prison and a $10,000 fine.

J. Paul Getty's Son Dies of Tumor
Los Angeles—UPI—The body of Timothy Getty, 12, son of this country's wealthiest man, will arrive tonight by air from New York, where the boy died Sunday.

The boy was unable to realize his last wish, that of speaking to his father, J. Paul Getty, who was traveling abroad and could not be located by phone.

Timothy had been suffering from a brain tumor for the last five years. He had two operations last October and seemed to be progressing, but last Thursday he returned to the hospital in New York for more surgery, and his condition became poor.

His oilman father invariably called Timothy frequently when he was traveling. Private funeral services are pending at Forest Lawn. Getty is divorced from Timothy's mother, Louis Dudley Teddie Lynch. She was his fifth wife.

Not enough to dampen the All-Stars.

PCC Dislvelment Reported As Good, Sound Business

By JACK CUDDY
United Press International
Los Angeles—UPI—You may argue all you want that the breakup of the Pacific Coast Conference is a black eye for college football, but the big powers of the Far West feel it was either "bust up" or be driven out of the entertainment business by the pro Rams and the Dodgers.

Out here where fans think nothing of driving a few hundred miles to a sports event, willingly shell out $4 to $5 a seat, and have become accustomed to the festive atmosphere for 100,000-seat stadiums, there's little mourning for the demise of the old PCC.

The four big California schools—UCLA, Southern California, California and Stanford—and the University of Washington figure eventually to wind up making nothing but money as a result of the dissolution of the conference.

Seek Gate Appeal
If they had not taken this drastic step, their football games almost certainly would have wound up as second-rate attractions to the tremendous popular pro Rams and the newly-acquired Dodgers. And say what you will, a successful college football team pays the bill for the rest of the entire athletic program, keeps influential alumni happy, and generally maintains the popularity of an educational institution.

The bickering, recruiting scandals, FBI-checkup practices on certain schools, and the poor gate appeal of conference weak sisters like Idaho, Washington State and Oregon made the breakup necessary if the big colleges were to maintain their big-time football programs. "Southern California football fans are entitled to see the best teams," says athletic director Jess Hill. "And 100,000-seat stadiums are attractive to the best teams. Our athletic program must be built along lines that will enable us to meet the best opponents."

UCLA and Southern Cal play their home games in the 103,000-seat Los Angeles Coliseum; Stanford's stadium seats 89,000, California's 82,000 and Washington's 55,500.

To fill these parks Saturday after Saturday when they begin "free-lancing" in 1959, the West Coast powers have ditched their weaker PCC rivals which often failed to attract much more than an audible cheering section and replaced them with the biggest "name" schools in college football.

Giants Face Crucials During Next Ten Games
San Francisco—UPI—The San Francisco Giants, back in second place after sweeping a three-game series with the Chicago Cubs, now take on the rejuvenated Redlegs for five sessions beginning this afternoon.

The Redlegs have won three out of four games since manager Birdie Tebbetts resigned, taking their series from the Pittsburgh Pirates and helping the Giants regain second place for the first time since Aug. 12.

However, the Redlegs will not be concentrating on helping the Giants this week. Manager Jimmy Dykes will lead off today with his ace, Bob Purkey, who has been tough for the San Franciscans all year.

Giant manager Bill Rigney will counter with Johnny Antonelli, his ace southpaw. Purkey has a 14-7 record this year since being traded by Pittsburgh to Cincinnati. Antonelli is 13-10 for the season.

The Giants and Redlegs play Tuesday through Saturday with all games except Friday's scheduled for afternoon.

Argentina Bows To U.S. Team
Rye, N.Y.—UPI—The United States Davis Cup tennis team completed a 5-0 sweep over Argentina Monday in the final round of the American Zone eliminations.

The victory qualified the U.S. to meet Italy or the Philippines in the interzone finals in Australia in December.

Ham Richardson of Arlington, Va., needed only 70 minutes to beat Eduardo Eoiano, 6-4, 6-2, 7-5. Then Barry McKay of Dayton, Ohio, concluded the series by crushing Enrique Morea, 6-2, 6-2, 6-2.

135 Bodies Taken From Village Rubble
Tehran, Iran—UPI—The Iranian relief organization Red Lion and Sun announced today that 135 bodies have been removed from the rubble of 40 villages hit by earthquakes.

Director Hussein Khatibi said figures on the number of injured were not known but that they would be very high.

Tents and relief supplies were being rushed to the devastated areas.

Upsets in Women's Golf Seen

Darien, Conn.—UPI—Defending champion Joanne Gunderson meets Marjorie Lindsay of Decatur, Ill., today in the second round of what promises to be the most "upsetting" Women's National Amateur golf tournament in years.

Joanne, a husky blonde from Seattle, Wash., had to battle for a 3 and 1 victory over Sherry Wheeler of Glasgow, Ky., Monday while three unheralded U.S. players upset two British Curtis Cup players and the highly touted Philomena Garvey of Ireland in the first round.

Judy Bell of Wichita, Kans., and Evelyn Sawyer of Stratford, Conn., surprised the Britons in the first round. Miss Bell, 22, ousted Elizabeth Price, of England, a member of five Curtis Cup teams, 2 up. Miss Sawyer upset Dorethea Sommerville, of Scotland, 4 and 2.

Mrs. Norman Woolworth of Norton, Conn., pulled the first round's biggest surprise. She was 2 down to Miss Garvey, 10-time Irish champion and former British champion, and rallied to win, 1 up, in 20 holes.

Sixty-seven players, including five U.S. and three British Curtis Cup players, drew first-round byes and join Monday's 61 survivors in today's second round.

'Security' Arms Sent to Indonesia
Washington—UPI—The United States announced today it is air-shipping "internal security" arms to the Indonesian government under an agreement signed secretly in Djakarta last Wednesday.

A State Department spokesman disclosed the agreement after U.S. Air Force Globemaster transports were reported flying into an Indonesian airport with small arms for the Indonesian army.

Another U.S. decision marked another turn in relations between Washington and the neutralist government of President Sukarno.

For a year the U.S. has refused to permit the Indonesian government to buy about 700 million dollars worth of U.S. arms and military equipment it wanted primarily for use against the Sumatra rebels or encouraging its Asian allies to support them.

The State Department spokesman said the current sales are limited to small arms, trucks, jeeps, communications equipment and similar items needed by the Indonesian army for internal security operations.

He refused to disclose the amount or value of the shipments.

Women working in U.S. households as maids have declined in number from about two million in 1940 to less than one and one-half million in 1950, the decrease continuing.

Parsons and Studs Victors in Jackson County Softball

Parsons Motors and the Cheney Studs crushed the Dairy Maids and the Eagle Point Merchants last night in the final round of Jackson County Softball association league play at Memorial Stadium, Camp White.

Parsons knocked in 10 runs on 10 hits for the victory but the only long hit of the game was a homer by Dale McKay of the winners. Winning pitcher Weatherford limited the Maids to only three runs on three hits.

The Studs were even more emphatic in their 18-2 win over the Merchants. Pitcher
