

Chisox Gain 6th Straight Victory; Slumping Yankees Suffer 4th Defeat in Row

By JOHN GRIFFIN
United Press International
Say now, can the New York Yankees possibly blow this American League pennant after all?
Sounds fantastic, because the Yankees still have a 10½ game lead over the Chicago White Sox with just 35 games to go. But it's just an outside possibility today because the White Sox are on a winning streak that now has reached six games and the Yankees are on a four-game losing streak.

vito and Vic Wertz helped the Cleveland Indians hand the Yankees their ninth loss in the last 12 games, 8-6.
Happened Before
The greatest flopperoo of modern times was staged, of course, by the Brooklyn Dodgers of 1951. They blew a 13½-game lead in the last 44 games of the season in a tailspin that started on Aug. 11 and then lost to the New York Giants in a three-game pennant playoff on Bobby Thomson's historic homer.
New York had a 6-3 lead until Colavito blasted a three-run homer for the Indians in the fifth inning, his 28th, to tie the score. Wertz then won the game for the Tribe with a two-run homer in the seventh.

At Boston, Donovan missed a shutout only when Jackie Jensen hit his 33rd homer for the Red Sox in the fifth inning. It was Donovan's seventh win in the last eight starts and his 11th complete game of the year.
Braves Lose Two
In other AL games, the Kansas City A's swept a twin bill from Baltimore, 4-1 and 6-4, and Washington handed Detroit its fifth straight loss, 3-1. In the National League, San Francisco nipped Cincinnati in 10 innings, 4-3; Pittsburgh downed the Chicago Cubs, 4-3; St. Louis edged the Philadelphia Phils, 5-4; and the Los Angeles Dodgers swept a twin bill from Milwaukee, 4-1 and 7-2, to end the Braves' seven-game winning streak.

Y Natators To Contend At Portland

Medford YMCA team travels to Portland Aug. 25-26, for the annual Oregon Junior Olympic Swimming Championships on Aug. 25-26.
The "Y" team will enter the short course (25-yards) meet at Woodrow Wilson High school pool with 15 swimmers vying for individual honors.
Four classifications of competition will be run according to age groups. The mid-level divisions will be open to all registered swimmers 10 years and under. Junior field swimmers will include 11 and 12 year-olds and the intermediate division takes in the 13 and 14 year-olds. Swimmers 15 and 16 will compete in the senior division.
Junior Olympic national champions will be determined on the best performances returned from the various Junior Olympic meets throughout the nation.
Roster Told
The following swimmers will be making the trip from Medford: Linda Hess, Rhonda Hess, Bruce Hess, Shirley Hopkins, Suzy Thompson, Don Thompson, Vicky Enders, David Schott, Jerry Selleck, Merle Hampton, Dale Vaughn, Rusty Vaughn, Linda Nelson, Linda Wilkes, Becky Rowan.
Gene Cronin, diver, will compete at the Oregon Invitation AAU championships, at The Dalles Aug. 23-24. Gene will compete against the best divers in the far west at this meet, which has international recognition. There are to be no diving events at the Junior Olympic meet.

ARRIVING AT NEWPORT, R. I., Sceptre, British challenger for America Cup, is undergoing trials. Sixty-nine-foot sloop will race against one of four U. S. craft.

Phoenix Continues Home Field Success

By GENE BRYANT
United Press International
That old baseball maxim for pennant success — break even on the road, while winning at home — looked as sound as the 1939 dollar today in the case of the Phoenix Giants.
The Arizonans, who have had the Pacific Coast League's top spot all to themselves for the past two weeks, made it 40 wins out of 62 starts at home Tuesday night by rallying for a 6-5 victory over Spokane. A three-run burst in the eighth inning put the Giants ahead to stay and kept them two full games in front of second-place San Diego.

a 7-2 victory over Salt Lake's foundering Bees, but third-place Vancouver fell four games off the pace by dropping a 6-5 decision to Sacramento.
The rejuvenated Seattle Rainiers took their fifth straight in another close contest, edging Portland, 5-4 on the strength of a three-run eighth inning.
San Diego combed three Salt Lake pitchers for 14 hits including two-run homers by Dave Rope and Gene Lary, while handing the Bees their third straight setback. Lary throttled the visitors on eight safeties to pick up his eighth triumph.
Bamberger Drops One
At Sacramento, the Solons handed Mounie starter George Bamberger his ninth loss against 14 victories with a three-run spurge in the fourth inning. The Solons' Marshall Bridges, who needed help from Bob Ross in the seventh, got the win, his 13th of the season. Bridges struck out four to run his league-leading total to 176.
The Sacs put together three hits, a walk and sacrifice in the three run fourth frame.
Seattle touched three Portland pitchers for 12 hits, but the Beavers made it close by bunching their seven safeties in three innings. Rainier starter Chuck Churn, who gave way to Jim Davis in the ninth, was credited with his seventh win. The Beaver's Al Lary was charged with the seventh defeat against eight wins. Len Neal and Bob DiPietro homered for the losers.

Ned Garver won the opening game for the Orioles, his 11th victory, with a five-hitter in which he allowed only one earned run. The A's slammed out 15 hits to take the night-cap.
Roy Sievers paced the Senators with a 4-for-4, driving in two of Washington's three runs with his 34th homer and a single.
Win In Last Frame
The Giants gained their 15th last inning victory of the season when Orlando Cepeda reached first base as Johnny Temple dropped his pop fly in a collision, and then came all the way in on Willie Kirkland's triple.
Two-run homers by Bill Mazeroski and Dick Stuart gave the Pirates their victory over Chicago, with Stuart's sixth-inning wallop off Taylor Phillips being the winner.
Hobie Landrith's eighth-inning homer broke a 4-4 tie to give the Cards their win over the Phils. Stan Musial and Gene Freese also homered for the Cards and Wally Post and Solly Hemus for the Phils.
Don Drysdale pitched a five-hitter for the Dodgers' opening game win and also hit his fifth homer of the season. Charley Neal's short homer over the leftfield screen in the second inning was the deciding blow. Johnny Podres allowed the Braves only four hits in the night-cap.
