

Salem Nabs State Title In Softball

Cos Bay —UPI— Salem defeated Corvallis 6-1 Tuesday night to win the state men's softball title.

Corvallis had defeated Salem 1-0 in an earlier game to set up the championship contest.

In the finale, Salem broke the game wide open with six runs in the fourth inning, knocking Lloyd Buettgenbach from the mound. Buettgenbach had pitched the earlier Corvallis win over Salem, allowing only one hit.

Don Carey got Corvallis' only hit in the final game.

Paul Waner Has Attack

Omaha, Neb. —UPI— Former Pittsburgh Pirate hitting star Paul (Big Poison) Waner, recently recovered from bouts with pneumonia and tuberculosis, today fought for his life following a heart attack.

Waner, a member of baseball's Hall of Fame was stricken here Tuesday.

Doctors said his condition was "satisfactory."

The ex-Pirate great is one of eight living 3,000 hitters, having collected 3,152 safeties in his 20-year baseball career. He was known as "Big Poison" to the opposition because of his big bat, and his brother, Lloyd, also a Pittsburgh outfielder, was dubbed "Little Poison."

Waner currently is a batting instructor for the St. Louis Cardinals.

Big Four Loop Talked

San Francisco —UPI— Representatives of four big colleges on the Pacific Coast will meet here Saturday to form a Big Four association to replace the Pacific Coast Conference, it was reported today.

The Big Four will include California, University of Southern California, University of California at Los Angeles and Washington. It may later be expanded to include Stanford.

Greg Englehard, athletic director at California, refused to confirm or deny the reports of the meeting. However, he said there would be a "newsworthy" press conference Saturday morning.

Oregon Champs Face Centralia

Billings, Mont. —UPI— Bend, the Oregon Junior Legion baseball champion, opens play in the regional tournament here Friday afternoon against Centralia, the Washington state champ.

Fairbanks meets Lewiston, Idaho, in another first round game. Billings drew a bye and meets the Fairbanks-Lewiston winner in an opening round game.

Winner of the tournament goes to Hastings, Neb., for the sectional crown Aug. 31-Sept. 4.

Orlando Cepeda Escapes Injury

San Francisco —UPI— Orlando Cepeda, 21, star rookie first baseman for the San Francisco Giants, escaped injury Tuesday night when his car collided with a taxicab.

The accident occurred two hours after Cepeda scored the winning run for the Giants against the Cincinnati Redlegs at Seals Stadium.

Neither Cepeda nor Henry L. Schwartz, 36, the cab driver, was cited.

Munro Strokes 149 in JC Golf

Tucson, Ariz. —UPI— David Munro of Portland paced three Oregon youths who qualified Tuesday for championship play in the annual International Jaycee golf tournament here.

Munro had a 77 Tuesday to go with an earlier 72 for a two-day total of 149.

Biff Lovett of Portland and Lynn Yturri of Ontario each fired 150. Mickey Shaw of Milwaukee had 159, while the qualifying score was 159.

There are one-third more married women from 15 to 44 years in the U. S. today than there were in 1933.

Royals Increase IL Leadership

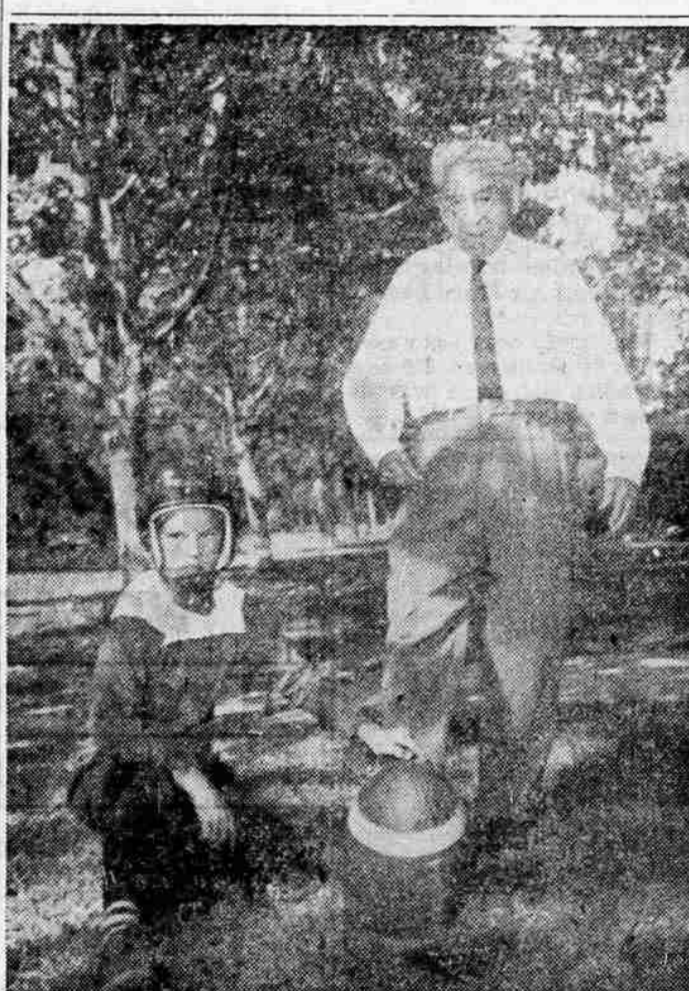

United Press International The Montreal Royals increased their first-place bulge in the International league to 3½ games Tuesday night by edging the Rochester Red Wings, 5-4, in 11 innings.

Second place Toronto could do little against the four-hit hurling of Walt Coleman as Buffalo took a 7-1 decision. Coleman won his seventh game as the Bison backed him with a 16-hit attack.

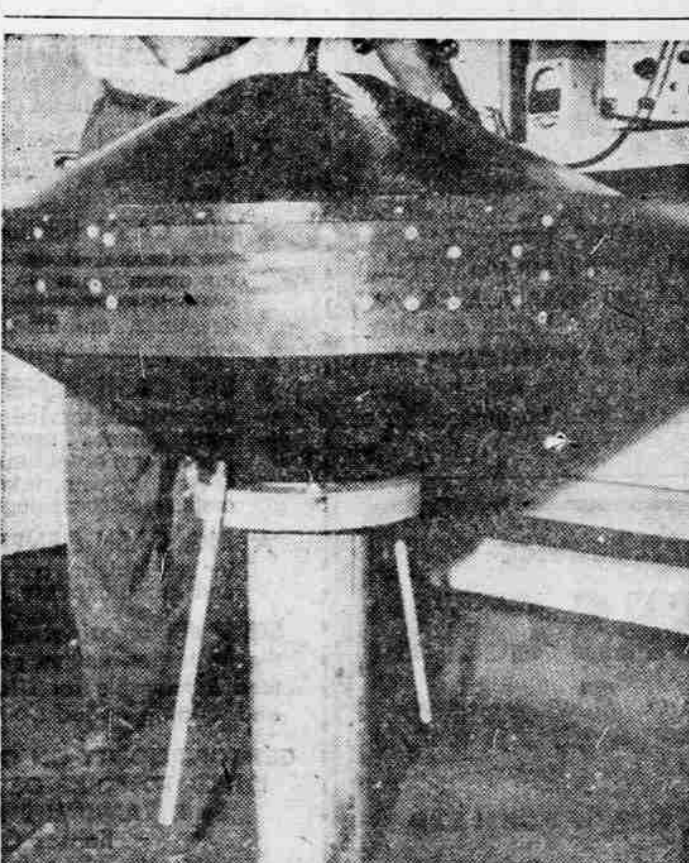

Columbus moved to within a game of fourth-place Miami by beating the Marlins, 6-2. Richmond scored two runs in the 10th inning at Havana to beat the Cubans, 7-6.

DODGING LIKE DANCER, Willie Kirkland, leftfielder, manages to sidestep St. Louis catcher Gene Green to score in San Francisco game. Giants went on to win, 11-2.

BIRTHDAY—Amos Alonzo Stagg, grand old man of football, celebrates his 96th birthday in Stockton, Calif., August 16. Last surviving founder of the Big Ten, Stagg is here shown demonstrating some of the fine points of the game with Steven Small, 11, of Lodi, Calif. Partial to youngsters and their aspirations, Stagg firmly believes that college football generates more spirit than the pro game.

INSTRUMENTATION COMPONENTS—Shown here is the terminal cannister of the lunar rocket unsuccessfully launched from Cape Canaveral, Fla. This cannister contained instruments intended to measure the magnetic fields of both the earth and the moon. The attempt ended in failure when the rocket exploded 77 seconds after launching.

Virg Akins Bout Choice

Chicago —UPI— Virgil Akins was a strong favorite to score his fifth straight knockout when he enters the ring tonight for the first time since winning the welterweight title in June.

Akins' opponent in the televised non-title bout is Charley (Tombstone) Smith, a 25-year-old battler from Los Angeles with big hopes of boosting his No. 8 ranking among the 147-pounders.

Golf Defender Wins 1st Tiff

Darien, Conn. —UPI— Joanne Gunderson, the happy-go-lucky defending champion in the Women's National Amateur golf championship, was heavily favored to win two matches today and move into the fifth round.

The 6,468-yard Wee Burn course, hilly and sprinkled with brooks and bunkers, is proving a man-size task for the girls.

But Miss Gunderson, a husky blonde who belts her tee shots a mile, should survive today's two 18-hole rounds.

Joanne, a 3 and 1 winner over ex-Curtis Cupper Marjorie Lindsay of Decatur, Ill., Tuesday, played Mrs. Charles Spalding of Greenwich, Conn., in the third round this morning. After lunch, if she defeated Mrs. Spalding, she was to play the survivor of a match pitting Betty Kirkby of Akron, Ohio, against Judy Darling of Hudson Heights, Que.

Eugene Tryouts Set By Giants

Eugene — San Francisco Giants will hold baseball tryouts and conduct a clinic at Bethel park here from 9:30 a.m. until 1 p.m. on Aug. 29 and 30.

The tryouts are open to boys 17 through 22 years of age. Youths are to provide their own gloves and shoes and should appear in baseball uniforms if possible.

Moose lodge and River Road Park and Recreation district are sponsors of the tryout camp. Further information may be obtained from Jim Dickinson director of RRPRD.

FRANCHISE PROPOSED
Washington —UPI— Ten senators, headed by Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.), today suggested a franchise should be granted to the Minneapolis-St. Paul area if the American league expands to 10 teams. In a letter written by Humphrey to Will Harridge, president of the American league, the senator pointed out "the Twin Cities have a vast trade territory, populated by avid sports fans and with a particular interest in baseball... where excellent stadium facilities are already available and are about to be expanded."

SPORTS

Offense 'Duty Scheduled for James, Baker

Portland —UPI— Dick James, a defensive specialist, and Sam Baker, the place kicking specialist, will play offense for the Washington Redskins against the San Francisco 49'ers here Saturday night, Coach Joe Kuharich said today.

Both James and Baker were standouts in offensive backfield play while at Oregon and Oregon State respectively.

The starting Washington backfield also will include Bert Zagers and either Ralph Guglielmi or Eddie LaBaron at quarterback.

The 49'ers arrive in town Friday afternoon.

Mexico Team In Semi-Finals

Williamsport, Pa. —UPI— Defending champion Monterrey, Mexico, seeking to repeat its rags-to-riches title triumph of last year, met Darien, Conn., today in the semi-finals of the 12th annual Little League World Series.

Kankakee, Ill., played Gadsden, Ala., in the other game.

Monterrey, with only one regular remaining from the band of little lads with big hearts who won the 1957 championship, followed tradition by trouncing Pearl Harbor, 11-0 Tuesday in the opening round.

Kankakee gained the semi-finals with a 2-1 triumph over Portland, Ore., in a game which saw homers account for all the scoring. Gadsden drew a bye in opening play. Portland was eliminated.

Darien gained the semi-finals by defeating Valleyfield, Quebec, 7-2.

Practice Shoot Planned Sunday
