Young John Sousa Conducts U.S. Band

Washington (UPI)—John Philip Sousa conducted the U.S. Marine Corps Band on the Capitol steps Wednesday night for the first time in 27 years.

Only this time it was 11-year-old John Philip IV—great-grandson of the immortal composer—band leader who made the Marine ensemble famous and gave the world a treasure of stirring marches.

An audience of 5,000 watched as Johnny, clad in the scarlet-coated bandman's uniform, led the band through "Semper Parvulus" and "The Washington Post March" two of the march king's most familiar pieces.

Afterward, the younger son, who lives with his family in Los Angeles, said he preferred a football or a baseball bat to a conductor's baton. However, he admitted to having had some training on the trombone and clarinet. Eventually, he said, he wants to play Souzaphone—a type of tuba invented by his great-grandfather.

His mother is a Los Angeles attorney.

Boston (UPI)—Records show that on June 24, 1858, a baseball game on Boston Common ended with the score 100 to 28.

Stocks End on Note Of Uncertainty

New York (UPI)—Stocks started today on a note of optimism with business and market news all favorable and ended on a note of uncertainty. Early dealings saw the oils and coppers move up easily. The oils responded to indications the Arab plan for a Middle East peace would be accepted. The copper stock rise followed news that Kennecott will step up its mining operations to a six-day week.

Oils moved up with the international issues prominent among the gainers. The group held fairly well despite some profit taking late in the day. The internationals showed gains running to more than a point.

Kennecott Steps Up Work Week

New York (UPI)—Kennecott Copper Corp., the nation's biggest copper producer, has stepped up the work week at its western properties from five to six days in its second production advance within a month.

On Aug. 4 the company increased the work week from four to five days at all its domestic mines which are in the states of Utah, Nevada, Arizona and New Mexico.

Prior to the August move, the company had cut into effect three cutbacks in U.S. mine production, which had reduced tonnage to around 259,500 tons annually. In 1957, domestic output was 387,291 tons.

Neither of the nation's other two major copper producers, Anaconda company, and Phelps Dodge Corp., have increased output yet as the result of Kennecott's step-up to six-day production. Officials said no increases were planned in the immediate future.

Court Authorizes Sale of Property

Baker (UPI)—The Circuit Court here Wednesday authorized the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation to sell three parcels of property owned by Clair Ritter to help make restitution for $99,000 he embezzled from the First National Bank of Halfway, Ore.

Ritter was sentenced in Federal Court last week to 2 1/2 years in prison after his confession of the embezzlement. He had signed over his property to the bank.

The Ritter assets authorized for sale total $56,375 and include the Paddock motel and 14 acres of land at Halfway, 158 acres of farmland, and two vehicles.

Two Pacifists Fined in Wyoming

Cheyenne, Wyo. (UPI)—Two pacifist demonstrators, fined a maximum $100 and court costs here Wednesday, will sit out their penalties in jail, a friend revealed today.

The rate is one day for each dollar of fine.

They are Mrs. Eleanor Calkins, 22, Chicago, and the Rev. Theodore Olson, Fallsington, Pa.

Mrs. Calkins' husband, Kenneth, 23, was in a hospital here with a fractured pelvis suffered when he was struck by a truck.

He was attempting to block construction of an Atlas guided missile launch site at Warren Air Force Base, 20 miles northwest of here.

Bradford Little, a friend of Olson, said he had informed that both Mrs. Calkins and Olson would "serve out their sentences at $1 a day."

Both said they would continue their "nonviolent demonstration at the missile site when they are released."

Sheriff Norbert E. Tuck said he will serve a warrant charging the same offense against Kenneth Calkins when he is able to leave the hospital.
