

Dairy Maids Tussle Florists Tonight in Regional Softball

Forest Grove—Rogue Valley Dairy Maids hope that the old adage, "third time's a charm," will be working for them here this evening.

The Maids, who won the Oregon championship (for teams outside of Portland) recently, oppose the Ery Lind Florists of the state's metropolis tonight in the first round of women's regional softball tournament.

It will be the third meeting in two seasons between the two clubs but the first in a tournament. Lind won the other two brushes, tipping Rogue Valley 3 to 0 earlier this summer and 3 to 1 in 1957.

While the southern Oregon nine takes a 17-5 win-loss record against ladies' teams into the tourney, the Florists will draw from the greater experience against generally tougher competition.

Four Other Teams
Four other teams are contestants in the double elimination tournament which continues into Sunday. Host Forest Grove Medowlarks, the 1957 state champs and this year's hostess club, plays the Tacoma, Wash., Grayettes in tonight's other game. The Port Angeles Eagles, Washington state champions, and Seattle Bellview Ramblers in a first round fracas on Friday. Tacoma and Forest Grove are foes at 7 o'clock tonight with the Maids and Florists to follow.

Winner of the regional will be eligible for the national meet in Connecticut.

COLLEGIANS UPSET LIONS—Gene Gedman (26) of the Detroit Lions makes a short gain before being dropped by two All-Star tacklers in first quarter of College All-Stars-Detroit Lions game at Soldiers Field in Chicago. The All-Stars won, 35-19.

New Era of Closed Circuit Television May Result From Patterson-Harris Title Bout

By JACK CUDDY
Los Angeles —UPI— Irving B. Kahn said today the financial success of the Floyd Patterson-Roy Harris heavyweight title fight will usher in a new era of regional, as well as national, theater television in boxing.

Kahn, president of the TelePrompTer Corp., predicted that henceforth the managers of champions and contenders in various divisions will investigate the possibilities of closed-circuit TV purses before signing for important matches.

He explained, "The Patterson-Harris fight at Wrigley Field Monday night was one that had been generally underrated by the public, sports writers and oddsmakers. Yet, Patterson's purse from all sources will approximate $311,000 and Harris will get his guaranteed $100,000."

Battled Handicaps
The fight was a "cold product" that was hard to sell because of champion Patterson's year-long inactivity and Harris' comparative obscurity. Roy never had fought outside of Texas and never on television of any kind. And the bookies made challenger Roy a 6-1 underdog.

"Because of the fight's success in the face of innumerable handicaps, I'm convinced that the time has come for TelePrompTer to try to establish a continuity of attractions by staging four or five big fights each year on a national closed-circuit basis and to put on several less important bouts on regional hookups," Kahn said.

Accordingly, Kahn said he would begin "immediate explorations" of possible matches involving Patterson, light-heavyweight champion Archie Moore, middleweight ruler Sugar Ray Robinson, welterweight King Virgil Akins, and lightweight champion Joe Brown.

Won't Promote Bouts
"Let me make it clear," he emphasized, "that we of TelePrompTer will not be the promoters of any fights; but we will cooperate with any promoter—including the International Boxing Club—that can make and stage big-time matches. And we will help with guarantees for the champions, at least."

Concerning regional closed-circuit rights, he explained that a bout like next month's Los Angeles match between welterweights Carmen Basilio and Art Aragon could have been piped to theaters in three or four Far-Western states "with good profit to all concerned."

West Selects Grid Captains
Pendleton —UPI—The West team has named four co-captains for Saturday night's seventh annual Shrine benefit football game at Round-Up stadium here.

Dennis Codd, Tillamook quarterback, and Leroy Noffsinger, Yoncalla tackle, will be offensive co-captains. Defensive co-captains will be Don Smith, Nehalem linebacker, and Bill Peterson, Powers guard.

Beavers Retain Tommy Heath
Portland —UPI— President Arch Kingsley of the Portland Pacific Coast League baseball team said today that Tommy Heath, manager and general manager Bill Brenner, assistant general manager, would retain their positions next year.

RON FAIRLY MOVED UP
Des Moines, Ia. —UPI—The Los Angeles Dodgers have moved bonus baby Ron Fairly from Des Moines in the Class A Western league to St. Paul in the Triple A American association. Fairly batted .297 for Des Moines and had 13 home runs.

Hunting & Fishing Southern Oregon

By MEL REES

Bob Sloan of Harriman's resort reports that the fishing continues very good with many Rogue Valley anglers on the big fish board with trout weighing over four pounds.

The fishing in Upper Klamath lake has had the longest sustained run of really good fishing in recent years. Part of this is probably due to the fact that the lake was kept high for the early part of the season while some work was being done on the dam. In the early season Sloan predicted that the mid-summer fishing should be excellent and this prophecy has certainly come to pass.

A partial list of the giant rainbows taken includes: Ed Kidwell, Portland, 8 pounds, 5 1/2 pounds; E. L. Niederman, Grants Pass, 7 3/4, 9, 7 1/2; Jerry Hamann, Gresham, Ore., 5 1/2 (this wife Helen showed who was the fisherman in the family with three fish, 8 1/4, 4 3/4 and 4); Darrel Smith, Medford, 4 1/2; Haward Ferns, Medford, 6 1/4; Don Braund, Central Point, 4 1/2, 5 1/2, 5 1/4; Fred Neal, Myrtle Creek, 6 1/4, 5 1/4; K. D. Jones, Medford, 4 1/2; Betty Ellis, Medford, 5 1/4; Ken Brown, Medford, 5; Dick Kenner, Medford, 5 1/4; Peggy McMillan, Portland, 5; Dave McMillan, Portland, 4 3/4.

Keith Henagin, Medford, 6 3/4; John Overand, Ashland, 8; Edwin Boardman, Central Point, 6; Pat Low, Central Point, 4 1/4; Arnold Aring 5 1/4 of Ashland; Dave Clover, Ashland, 4 1/2.

FISH TAKE IMPROVES
Lloyd Morris of Fish lake resort says that the fishing there is improving. There aren't too many fishermen but those who are going out are bringing back some nice fish. One rainbow of 5 pounds was taken using worms down deep. Most of the fish have been Brook trout in the 2, 3 and 4-pound class taken on trollers with green flatfish trailings.

Willow Creek reservoir is reported as better than fair and last report from Four-Mile lake was that it was producing pretty well.

FISH ON BOTTOM
Warm water has kept the fish on the bottom according to Johnny Koch of Diamond lake but with the weather cooling off this situation should improve. Some anglers have limited but the fishing has been somewhat on the slow side. Gang troll and flies or still fishing with worms has been the best method.

BEST FISHING COMING
It should be kept in mind that we are entering the best fishing time of the season for all these high lakes. Strange enough most folks will hang their rods

Buffalo laced four Toronto pitchers for 15 hits to defeat the Maple Leafs, 16-0, behind the five-hit hurling of Fred Hahn.

Havana and Richmond split a doubleheader. Rogilio Alvarez gave the Sugar Kings a 2-1 verdict in the opener with a two-run seventh inning homer and Richmond took the nightcap, 10-5.

Rochester and Montreal played a 13-inning 2-2 tie. The game was called by rain.

Rogue River Trout Luck Still Slow

Portland —UPI—The weekly report on fishing conditions by regions as prepared by the State Game Commission.

Southwest: Summer steelhead angling is fair to good in the Steamboat area with best results in the early morning or late afternoon. Trout angling in Lemolo, Toketee, and Soda Springs reservoir is fair. Trout angling in the north Umpqua is poor to fair. Salmon angling at Winchester bay is good.

Chinook angling is fair to good on the lower Coquille river from Prosper to Bullards bridge. Striper fishing at Coos Bay is fair in the north and Haynes inlets.

Trout angling is slow in nearly all parts of the Rogue river basin and no improvement is expected until cooler weather. Angling is slow at Fish lake in Jackson County.

Central: Good catches are being taken at Olallie lake by trolling deep and slow with spinner and worms. Lower Hood river is very good for small rainbow. Trout fishing on the Deschutes in the Maupin area is improved. Steelhead on the lower Deschutes is improved with good results reported from the mouth and at Kloan.

East and Paulina lakes have been fair with late evening trolling. Crescent lake is poor. Blue lake is very good. Late afternoon and evening fly fishing has been very good on the upper Deschutes river for river and rainbow and browns.

Steel pipes in the Pentagon building would reach from Chicago to Indianapolis or about 200 miles.
