

Neuberger Assured of Green Peter Dam
Washington (AP) — Sen. Richard Neuberger (D-Ore.) said Thursday he had been assured by the chairman of the Senate public works appropriations subcommittee that funds will be provided next year for start of construction of Green Peter dam in Oregon.

The Twentieth Century Fund estimates that the U.S. would have had to spend nearly 2.5 million dollars more on education to bring its schools up to minimum standards.

Positions are now available in five more categories, according to an announcement from John M. Young, regional director, 11th U. S. Civil Service region.

These include general maintenance mechanic, general maintenance mechanic (equipment operator), meat or poultry inspector, storekeeping clerk, and telephone operator.

Additional information may be obtained at major post offices or from the office of the 11th U. S. Civil Service region federal office building, Seattle 4, Wash.

The San Francisco Chamber of Commerce estimates that each ship that docks at the Golden Gate spends about $150,000 for food, wages and supplies.

House conferees had refused to accept a one million dollar start on construction as passed by the Senate. A sum of $310,000 was allotted to finish planning the project.
