

Presbyterian Ceremony Weds Couple

An event of Saturday, August 16, was the wedding of Miss Ann Denman to Clarence W. Hultgren. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth G. Denman, 104 Geneva street, and Mr. Hultgren's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. Hultgren, Eugene. The ceremony was held at First Presbyterian church at three o'clock in the afternoon, with about 200 guests attending.

Dr. D. Kirkland West, the pastor, read the double-ring rites and Mr. Denman gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a floor-length gown of Alencon type lace and tulle over satin with long sleeves and fitted bodice with Sabrina neckline and bands of hand applied lace. The full skirt of tulle had front panels of lace. Her finger-tip length veil was held by a cap of sequins and she carried a cascade of white stephanotis and carnations.

gown of Paris blue lace with accessories of dusty pink. The bridegroom's mother wore gray lace over pink with pink accessories. Their flowers were small pink orchids.

Mr. Hultgren and his bride are spending a honeymoon at Payette Lakes, McCall, Ida., and will be at home at 10720 Southwest 30th, Portland 1. The bride wore a blue suit with white accessories for traveling. She is a graduate of Medford High school and Willamette university and is now a senior at the University of Oregon Medical School of Nursing. Mr. Hultgren is chief therapist at the University of Oregon Medical School hospital. He is a graduate of Eugene High school and the University of Iowa. He served in the United States Air Force as a second lieutenant.

In addition to the bridegroom's parents those here for the wedding included Leand E. Bolt, Emmett, Bardel Van Donge, Walla Walla; Mrs. Donald Moltzau, Eugene; Mrs. Fred Terrill, Mrs. Mildred Shady, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hannah, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Wylant and Mrs. Florence Hultgren, all Portland.

A dinner was served at the home of the brides parents Friday evening following the wedding rehearsal.

Forbes-Wikstrom Wedding Held in Medford Church

Among the many August weddings was that of Miss Carol Louise Wikstrom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin F. Wikstrom, 2216 Delwood avenue, to Donn G. Forbes, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Carlisle J. Forbes of Kirkwood, suburb of St. Louis, Mo. The ceremony took place Sunday, August 17, in First Presbyterian church with a reception following in the Wikstrom home and garden.

Mr. Forbes and his bride are spending a honeymoon in Victoria, B.C., and will live at 1443 Third avenue in Longview, Wash.

Their wedding ceremony was read at five o'clock in the afternoon, with Dr. D. Kirkland West officiating. Only family members were present, and about 70 guests attended the reception, held at seven o'clock.

The bride's gown of white chiffon styled on Grecian lines was ballerina length with a wide band of embroidered lace at the waist. Her shoulder-length veil of illusion was held by a tiara of seed pearls and the pearl necklace she wore was the bridegroom's gift. She carried a bouquet of gardenias centered with pink rose buds.

Miss Virginia Larson, Portland, was the bride's only attendant. She wore a sheath frock of pink silk and lace and carried a nosegay of carnations and stock.

Mr. Wikstrom gave his daughter in marriage, and James G. Forbes, Eugene, was best man for his brother.

Mrs. H. E. Marsh played the traditional organ music, and the church decorations were white gladiolus. Arrangements of pink and white gladiolus and roses decorated the Wikstrom home for the reception.

Mrs. Frank Coberly, Crescent City, Calif., aunt of the bride, cut the cake, with Mrs. James G. Forbes, assisting. Mrs. Henry Pence poured the punch.

Mrs. Wikstrom wore a lace dress of powder blue with white accessories and orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a gown of brown and beige embroidered cotton satin with beige accessories; her corsage was a gold and brown orchid.

Among the wedding guests were the bridegroom's parents and his 85-year-old grandmother, Mrs. John P. Bauer, who came from St. Louis for the event, the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Frank Berdahl, Warren, Ore., and her uncle, Frank Coberly, Crescent City.

Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Knight, Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. Kent Bonney, Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fish and Mr. and Mrs. Budd Franklin, Weed, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Reedy and Mr. and Mrs. William Mearns, Ashland.

Following the reception the Wikstroms were hosts for a supper for out-of-town guests and relatives. The rehearsal dinner was given by the bridegroom's parents at Mon Desir inn. Earlier this month the bride-elect was honored at an afternoon shower given by Mrs. Lloyd Wales, Central Point. Miss Wikstrom was presented gifts for her new home and a bride's cake was served.

The bride attended Southern Oregon college after graduating from Medford High school and was an entrant in the Miss Oregon contest for 1952. She is a member of Sigma Epsilon Pi, national honor society for college women.

The bride has been a legal secretary for the law firm of Benson and Davis in Portland.

Mr. Forbes received his bachelor's degree in business administration from Central Missouri State college and is a member of Kappa Sigma Kappa fraternity. He served with the United States Coast Guard for four years as a yeoman, and is now employed by the International Paper company in the Longview, Wash., office of Long Bell Lumber company as a lumber student.

The reception was held in the church reception rooms where the blue and white theme was repeated in the decorations. Mrs. Scott V. Davis arranged the bride's table and serving tables with white asters, blue delphinium and baby breath. The candles were white.

Aunts were Mrs. Leland E. Bolt, Emmett, Idaho, and Mrs. Bardel Van Donge, Walla Walla, aunts of the bride, cut the wedding cake. Serving punch and assisting with the serving were Mrs. Lewis Ulrich, Mrs. Justin Smith, Mrs. Allan Perry, Mrs. C. Weldon Kline, Mrs. V. Aubrey Norris and Mrs. Julian Hultgren. Mrs. Gaylord Hall, Portland, took charge of the guest book and Miss Carolee Van Donge, Walla Walla, cousin of the bride, served the bridegroom's cake. Miss Janet Perry was in charge of the rice packets.

The cake was cut with an heirloom knife loaned by Mrs. Allan Perry. It was first used for the wedding of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Perry 60 years ago, and also for the wedding of the Allan Perrys.

For the wedding and reception Mrs. Denman wore a gown of Paris blue lace with accessories of dusty pink. The bridegroom's mother wore gray lace over pink with pink accessories. Their flowers were small pink orchids.

In addition to the bridegroom's parents those here for the wedding included Leand E. Bolt, Emmett, Bardel Van Donge, Walla Walla; Mrs. Donald Moltzau, Eugene; Mrs. Fred Terrill, Mrs. Mildred Shady, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hannah, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Wylant and Mrs. Florence Hultgren, all Portland.
