

Garden Rites Marry Pair

A garden ceremony Sunday, August 17, wedded Edith Mae Besondy, Ashland, to Victor Basil Robb, Medford. The service took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond B. Dallaire, 1060 Crater Lake avenue, with L. Peers Wilmeth, Ashland justice of the peace, officiating.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Bertha Baughman, Ashland, and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. David Wallace, Corona, Calif.

Mrs. Frank Hoehner, Ashland, was matron-of-honor for the bride, and Eric Reich, Portland, was best man.

The bride wore a gown of soft pink chiffon fashioned waltz length with fitted bodice and bouffant skirt with drapery detail. Her feather hat matched her gown and she carried pink and white carnations. Mrs. Hoehner wore a pale blue voile afternoon dress with matching feathered hat and carried a nosegay of blue and white daisies. The bride's mother wore a pink and white printed voile afternoon dress.

A simulated altar banked with greenery, gladioli and fuchsias, and the blossoms of the garden provided a setting for the bridal party.

Fifty guests attended the ceremony and the reception which followed in the garden. Mrs. Earl Adams poured and Mrs. Harold Baughman completed the cutting of the wedding cake.

The newlyweds are spending a honeymoon at Lake Louise and other Canadian points and will live in Medford upon their return. The bride's travel dress was of blue silk with complementing accessories.

The bride, a long-time resident of Ashland, is office nurse for Dr. Harvey Woods, Ashland. The bridegroom is in the insurance business.

Here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Stapley, Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Baughman and family, Dunsuir, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Eric Reich, Portland.

Miss Sharon Hogan Wed To Kenneth Nils Mattson

A home ceremony held Saturday, August 16, wedded Miss Sharon Kathleen Hogan and Kenneth Nils Mattson. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin N. Hogan, 1512 East Main street, this city, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Mattson, Portland.

The wedding took place at two o'clock on the patio in the garden, with ivy and baskets of white gladioli forming a setting for the bridal party. Redwood planters filled with white petunias edged the patio.

Dr. George Roseberry of First Methodist church read the double-ring service, and Mr. Hogan gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of Alencon lace, floor length, with fitted bodice and bouffant skirt of silk organza over net. A wide sash tied in back. Her finger-tip length veil was held by a cap and she carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis with blue ribbons.

Matron-of-honor was Mrs. A. S. Monroe, Palo Alto, Calif., the former Carol Coleman of Medford, and Miss Lilly Marie Mattson, the bridegroom's sister, was bridesmaid. Their frocks were of white silk organza embroidered in blue and worn with wide blue satin sashes tied at the back. They wore garden hats of blue horsehair trimmed with narrow velvet ribbon and carried nosegays of white carnations and blue delphinium.

Teresa and Eric Hogan, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin B. Hogan, and cousins of the bride, were flower girl and ring bearer. The flower girl wore a frock of white organza over pale blue with white gloves and blue hat and carried a nosegay of white carnations. The ring bearer, wearing a white linen suit, carried the rings on a blue satin pillow.

Jerry Theiland, Portland, was best man for the bridegroom and Michael Hogan, Kenos, Ore., brother of the bride, seated the guests. Mrs. Kenneth Brown provided organ music.

For the event the bride's mother wore a dress of pink linen and lace with gardenia corsage. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a frock of aquamarine color with small matching hat and gardenia corsage.

At the reception which followed the ceremony the bride cut the wedding cake with the heirloom knife of the W. J. Warner family, used at many Medford weddings. Mrs. Robert Walker and Mrs. Charles Ashpole served the wedding cake. Pouring punch were Miss Sally Perrott, Arcata, Calif., Miss Marilyn Patterson, San Francisco, and Mrs. Eugene Gambee, Portland. Mrs. Henry Andrews and Mrs. Laura Rowan poured coffee. Miss Rebecca Rowan took charge of the guest book and Miss Jan Crawford distributed rice packets.

The newlyweds are spending their honeymoon at Carmel, Calif., and in the Bay area. The bride's traveling suit was of fall blue wool with taupe accessories and hat trimmed with pheasant feathers. They will make their home at 900 S.W. St. Clair street, Portland, after September 1. The bride attended

Oregon State college and the University of Arizona, and the bridegroom, a credit analyst for the Commercial Credit corporation of Portland, attended Portland State college.

Among the wedding guests were the bridegroom's parents and Eugene Gambee, Dr. and Mrs. Richard Sletter, Mr. and Mrs. E. Rasmussen, Miss Elaine Deal and Mr. and Mrs. H. Rasmussen, all Portland; Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Mueller, Port Townsend, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. James Shinn, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. James Dennison, Newport, Ore.; Mrs. Don Newbury, Phoenix, Ariz.; A. S. Monroe, Palo Alto, Calif.; O. B. Morrow, McMinnville, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Dean Gaily, Los Angeles, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Hogan, Bend, Ore.; Mrs. Michael Hogan and small daughter, Cynthia Kathleen, Kenos; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reverman, Roseburg, Ore.
