Fuller-Pingle Wedding Held in Medford Church

Butte Falls — Miss Julia May Pingle became the bride of Douglas W. Fuller in a double-ring ceremony held Saturday, August 16, at First Christian church, Medford. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Edward Pingle, Butte Falls, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Dillman, West Sacramento, Calif.

About 150 guests attended the wedding, held at four o'clock in the afternoon. Dr. Carrol J. Roberts, pastor of the church which the young people attend in Eugene, Ore., read the service, assisted by the Rev. William C. Piper, pastor of Medford First Christian church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace and taffeta. The lace bodice was made with portrait neckline trimmed with sleeves; the lace and taffeta skirt was fashioned with double bow and train. Her veil was held by a bandeau of iridescent sequins and she carried white shattered carnations and May Day miniature roses. She wore in her shoe a 100-year-old penny given her by Mrs. Fred Benner, Arcadia, Calif.

Mrs. Kerry Livingston, Medford, was honor attendant for her cousin and bridesmaids were Miss Mary Ann Hubbard, Prospect, a cousin, and Miss Mary Minor, Forest Grove. Mrs. Livingston wore a pink crystallene dress with picture hat and carried pink carnations encircled with blue daisies. Miss Hubbard's frock was yellow crystallene and Miss Minor was gowned in blue. Both wore picture hats and carried bouquets of pastel and white daisies.

Sherie Tygart was flower girl and Steve Tygart was ring bearer. Sherie wore a ring bearer's crystallene frock with a garland of pink rosebuds and white tulle. Richard H. Fuller, Redding, Calif., was best man for his brother and ushers were Robert B. Gates, Halsey, Ore.; Samuel Hartzler, Eugene, Allan E. Pingle, Butte Falls, cousin of the bride; and Kerry Livingston, Medford.

White gladiolus and white candles decorated the church. The bride's mother wore a pale rose colored sheath dress with blue accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a teal blue nylon gown with matching accessories. Their corsages were white shattered carnations with miniature pink roses.

The reception was held in the church parlor. Pouring were Mrs. Donald Jolliffe, Butte Falls and Mrs. Jack De Rosier, Prospect. Miss Pamela Boller, Arcadia, Calif., and Mrs. Donald Dillard cut the wedding cake, which was encircled with pink and white gladiolus. Miss Gloria Haggard, Medford, and Miss Cathy Olson, Butte Falls, assisted Mrs. William Bowen, Butte Falls, with the gifts. Miss Janice Gleason took charge of the guest book.

The newlyweds spent their honeymoon in southern Oregon and California and are now at home in Eugene where Mr. Fuller is manager of the University Fruit and Produce company. The bride attended Southern Oregon college and the University of Oregon, and Mr. Fuller attended Northwest Christian college and the university.

In Medford for the wedding were the bridegroom's parents and their daughters, Miss Sharon and Miss Gloria Dillman; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Donegan, Redding; Mrs. Florence Pingle, Los Angeles, the bride's grandmother; Mrs. William Benner, Arcadia, Calif.; Miss Elaine Pingle, and Raymond Pingle, cousins of the bride from Los Angeles; Mrs. Eleanor Pittman, Los Angeles; Mrs. Samuel Hartzler, Mrs. Robert B. Gates, Mr. and Mrs. O. Elliott, Jack Rainer and Mrs. Carrol Roberts, all Eugene.
