

Nadine Rue Married to James Woods

Hornbrook—Baskets of multi-colored gladioli decorated Hornbrook Bible church for the wedding of Miss Nadine Rue and James Woods, which took place August 2 at 8 o'clock in the evening. The Rev. Gordon Titus, pastor of the church, officiated at the ceremony in the presence of a small group of relatives and friends.

The bride, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rue, was given in marriage by her father. The Rues are former residents of Hornbrook, but are now making their home in Seiad Valley, Stillwater, Okla. is the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Woods.

Preceding the ceremony, the Rev. and Mrs. Titus sang a duet, and Mrs. W. A. Rudge played traditional wedding music on the piano.

For her marriage, the bride wore a muted beige faille suit with white accessories and an orchid corsage. Attending the bride and bridegroom as best man and matron of honor, were Mr. and Mrs. Essel Woods of Grenada, Calif. They are the bridegroom's brother and sister-in-law.

The new Mrs. Woods attended Hornbrook and Yreka schools, and her husband attended school in Stillwater and in Yreka. He is with the U. S. Navy on the U.S.S. destroyer Brinkley Bass. When he returns to his home base at San Diego, his bride will join him to make their first home there.

A reception, held at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gosney, followed the wedding ceremony. Following a family tradition of many years' standing, the bride's cake was baked for her by an old family friend, Sergeant Sambo, who has baked the wedding cakes for every bride in the Gosney family for several generations. What makes this tradition unique is the fact that Sergeant Sambo will be 98 years old next October, and he is one of the very few Indians.
