

Close Competition Observed In 4-H Beef Showmanship

Marsha Watson, West Side Club and Steve Stewart of Sis-Q club topped the Beef Showmanship at the Jackson County 4-H and F.F.A. fair held at the County fairgrounds in Medford this week.

In what was very close competition, Marsha, with her jet black Angus, topped all comers in the steer division of the showmanship contest according to Glenn Klein, county 4-H agent.

Steve, with his white faced Hereford cow, had some stiff competition as he beat out Ronnie Anderson and Georgia Hubbard of Antelope for the female showmanship trophy.

Beef Fitting found Judy Bradshaw of Antelope, Nancy Lusk of Sis-Q and Jon Jennings of Central Point topping their respective classes as they showed their skill with the curry comb and brush while they fitted their animals in the ring before the watchful eye of the judge.

NEARLY DIED—Construction worker James Blake, 41, struggles for breath after a heavy crane boom fell on him, pinning him face down in wet cement. Blake was trapped for about 30 minutes before the five-ton boom could be raised to free him, but he remembers practically nothing from the time the boom knocked him down until he was on the table in an Atlanta, Ga. hospital. His condition is described as "fair."

California Woman Injured in Crash

Mrs. Ruth L. Hendricks, 27, San Francisco, Calif., was taken to Sacred Heart hospital Saturday morning by Medford Ambulance service following a one-car accident on Highway 99 north of Gold Hill.

She suffered an injured back, extent of injury undetermined, and lacerations of the legs, according to reports. Hospital authorities reported Saturday afternoon that her condition was good.

State police said Mrs. Hendricks was northbound when her vehicle went off the east shoulder of the highway about a mile north of Rock Point bridge. The car skidded for more than 200 feet along the side of the road, went back onto the highway and slid for 40 feet sideways along the pavement, and then rolled over and came to rest on its wheels, officers said.

Mrs. Hendricks was the only occupant of the heavily damaged car, police said.

Two Youths Arrested On Check Charges

George Stacy Nelson, 22, of Wilderville, and Arnold Linden Olden, 18, who gave his address as the Crater hotel, were arrested Friday on a charge of "making a false statement to procure benefit," city police reported.

They were arrested in connection with cashing a post-dated check on a non-existent bank account Thursday at Kimmy's Corner, 630 Crater Lake ave., according to police.

One and one-half million gallons of cod liver oil are supplied by Norwegian fishermen in an average year.

Man Arraigned in District Court Friday

Charles O. Cox, 38, of 210 South Elm st., is being held on a charge of rape of a minor following an arraignment before Judge James Main in district court Friday.

Cox waived a preliminary hearing and is lodged in the county jail in lieu of $25,000 cash bail. He was arrested

Thursday night by state police.

Three out of four traffic accidents occur in clear weather and on dry and straight highways.
