Locals

Meter Down - An unknown vehicle knocked over a parking meter on South Front st. between Main and Eighth sts. early Monday morning, Medford police reported.

Peach - Someone threw a peach through the window of the Chapel Mortuary's business office early Sunday morning, Medford police reported. The mortuary is located at 1 King st.

Theft - A tire and wheel belonging to Warren Chester Moody, 1313 West 10th st., were taken Friday night from his car, parked in his driveway at that address, Medford police reported.

Collision - A vehicle driven by Stanley Lorrain Hogenson, 1913 Birch st., struck one operated by James Ralph Dewees, 430 DeBarr st., Saturday evening at Highway 99 and Table Rock rd., according to Medford police.

Inspections - Fire Marshal Truman Nelson yesterday inspected a fruit packing plant, a public garage, two business occupancies and one complaint in a residential area. Eight orders of recommendations were issued for removal of fire hazards.

Collision - Susan Griffiths, 1106 Niantic st., suffered a stiff neck after the vehicle in which she was riding, driven by Clifford Coleman Griffiths, was struck by one driven by Barbara Joyce Wood, 1926 Table Rock rd., on Saturday evening on South Riverside ave. between Main and Eighth sts., Medford police reported.

Purse - A purse belonging to Vera Francis March, Riverside, Calif., was stolen Sunday morning in the lady's washroom of the Greyhound Bus Terminal, 212 North Bartlett st., according to Medford police. The purse reportedly contained $18 plus personal papers.

Siren Heard - The Medford fire department yesterday afternoon dispatched two pumps and aerial ladder truck to the Morton Milling company, 10 West Jackson st., when the siren at the plant sounded. Firemen found the siren had accidentally been turned on.

Grass Fire - Two pumps were dispatched to a grass fire on property owned by Paul Shear, Washington, D.C., on West Vilas rd., about 8:25 a.m. today, the Central Point Rural Fire Protection district reported. Cause was unknown. The fire covered about an acre, firemen said.

Foiled - Two young men were observed early Sunday morning attempting to siphon gas from the tank of a logging truck parked in front of 515 Liberty st., according to Medford police. But, police reported, the tank was empty. The two men departed, reportedly taking the tank's cap with them.

Enterprising - Mrs. N. D. Wells, 418 King st., was busy chopping wood at 5:25 a.m. Saturday morning, according to Medford police. A patrolman reportedly told the enterprising woman she would have to wait till 7 a.m., since a city ordinance prohibits such disturbances before that hour and it was disturbing the neighbors.

False Representation - Two young men who said they represented a national magazine and were engaged in a survey of families with small children, aroused the suspicions of at least one local resident Sunday night, according to Medford police. The men reportedly said they represented Colliers magazine. Colliers ceased publication early in 1957.
