

Banks, Kuenn Spark Cubs, Tigers With Potent Bats; Leaders Lose

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International
Ernie Banks of the Cubs and Harvey Kuenn of the Tigers have found a way to get a "World Series share" without even playing on a pennant-winner.

Impossible? Not the way Banks and Kuenn are going about it.

A winning World Series share was worth $8,924 last year and both Banks and Kuenn are good bets to equal that sum, if not top it, in the form of a pay boost this winter as a result of the way they're hitting now.

Banks hammered his 42nd home run Wednesday to help the Cubs beat the Phillies, 5-2. The slugging Chicago shortstop is only two home runs behind Babe Ruth's record 1927 pace.

And Kuenn collected six hits in a day-night doubleheader with the Red Sox to boost his average to .328 and wrest the American league batting lead from Pete Runnels of Boston. Kuenn had four singles and a pair of doubles as Boston won the opener, 3-2, and Detroit the nightcap, 7-2.

Yanks, Braves Lose
Kansas City defeated the New York Yankees, 11-7, trimming the Bronx Bombers' league lead to 1 1/2 games; Cleveland topped Baltimore, 8-5, and Chicago nipped Washington, 2-1.

San Francisco handed Milwaukee a 3-2 loss in 12 innings to cut the Braves' lead to seven games. Pittsburgh crushed St. Louis, 14-1, and Cincinnati outlasted Los Angeles, 8-7.

Tom Brewer held the Tigers to six hits, half of them by Kuenn, in pitching the Red Sox to victory in the afternoon game. Paul Foytack held Boston to eight hits in the nightcap while Gil Harris drove in four runs with a homer and a double.

Kansas City, taking advantage of Bobby Richardson's error, came up with seven runs in the first inning against the Yankees. The A's smashed out 18 hits, including four by Hal Smith.

Stems Oriole Rally
Reliever Don Mossi saved Cleveland's win over Baltimore when he stemmed a ninth-inning rally. Cal Mc-

Lish, credited with his 14th victory, had an 8-3 lead until the ninth when he loaded the bases and gave up one run. Mossi came in with the bases loaded and none out. He yielded one more run and then retired the side.

Southpaw Billy Pierce of the White Sox held the Senators to four hits in posting his 15th victory.

Banks' hitting and the four hit pitching of Bob Ander-

Faltering Phoenix Drops 4th Straight

By GENE BRYANT
United Press International
The faltering Phoenix Giants dropped their fourth straight game and second shutout of the week to Salt Lake Wednesday night but held on to a narrow one-game lead over second-place San Diego as the Padres ran into more trouble at Vancouver.

Fred Green put the Giants down on six hits while hurling the Utah club to a 5-0 victory, but San Diego stumbled in its chance to move into a first place deadlock by dropping a 5-3 decision to Vancouver.

The third-place Mounties, who almost dropped out of the Pacific Coast league race altogether last week, gained a full game on both teams and now trail Phoenix by only 3 1/2 games.

Seattle blanked Spokane, 3-0, and Portland rolled over Sacramento, 12-3, in the night's other games.

Shaky Start
Salt Lake collected only seven hits off three Phoenix hurlers, but bunched five of them for a pair of runs in the third inning and three more in the fifth. Green got off to a shaky start, letting the Giants get men on base in each of the first five innings, but settled down to retire the last 14 batters in a row. Sam Miley led the winners at the plate with a single and triple, sending home three runs.

San Diego broke loose for three runs in the seventh inning at Vancouver to tie the score at 3-3, but the Canadians came back with a pair of their own in the bottom of that frame to get ahead for good. Russ Heman, the last of three Vancouver pitchers, stopped the Padres over the last two frames to pick up his ninth win of the year. The visitors' third hurler, Pete Wojwoj, was charged with his eighth defeat. Both clubs had eight hits. The victory gave Vancouver a 2-1 series edge.

Osteen Coasts
Claude Osteen, 19-year-old Seattle lefthander, stopped Spokane on three singles while coasting to his fourth triumph of the campaign. The southpaw rookie didn't allow a runner to get past second base. The Rainiers scored a pair of runs in the fourth on a double and three singles, then added another tally in the seventh on a double and a pair of one-baggers.

Frank Kellert led Portland's 14-hit attack on four Sacramento hurlers, driving in four runs on three hits. Vic Lombardi went the distance for the Beavers to pick up his 10th win against five setbacks. Portland knocked Marshall Bridges from the mound in the five-run fourth after the Solon right-hander had struck out three to run his league-leading total to 190. Carlos Paula homered for the Sacs.
