

TALL CORN—Frank Mejia planted a few rows of white corn seed, brought from Mexico for use in making tamales, in his backyard garden on Calpac's ranch No. Two in Sutter County, Calif. Now one stalk is already 15½ feet high.

Heart Attack Delays Testimony

Washington — (AP) — Barney Baker, burly 284-pound Teamsters Union handyman, was rushed to a hospital here on Wednesday with a heart attack about an hour before he was to undergo renewed questioning by the Senate Rackets Committee.

Baker was put on the "critical list" at Washington General hospital and placed in an oxygen tent. His wife was flying here to be at his bedside. Dr. Sanford J. Randall said that the 46-year-old union organizer had reportedly suffered chest pains in 1951 or 1952 and he considered Baker "a seriously ill" patient.
