

Schoendienst Clubs Four Hits as Braves Blank SF

BY TIM MORIARTY
United Press International
 With the San Francisco Giants packed away in cold storage, the Braves flew back to Milwaukee today fully confident of shutting the same freezer door on the Pittsburgh Pirates this week end.

The "icemen" from Milwaukee just about eliminated the Giants from the pennant race during their latest hop to the West Coast-winning four of five games, including a 3-0 victory in Thursday's only major league game.

Now it's the Pirate's turn to "fish or cut bait." They open a three-game set at Milwaukee tonight, trailing the defending National League champions by 7 1/2 games. So they must shoot for a sweep because, like the Giants, time is running out on Danny Mur-

Salt Lake Continues To Harass Phoenix

By GENE BRYANT
United Press International
 Salt Lake City isn't going anywhere in the Pacific Coast league race this year—but the unpredictable Bees have done their best to see to it that Phoenix doesn't either.

The Utah club handed the Giants their fifth straight loss Thursday night, 6-4, to sweep the four-game series with the league leaders. The defeat shaved the Arizona's margin over second place San Diego to only a half game. It also gave the Bees a 14-8 season mark against the Giants, who hold an edge over all other PCL clubs this year.

Roger Osenbaugh went the route for Sacramento as the Solons salvaged the finale of their three-game set with Portland. The Sacs pushed across the winning runs in the fifth on a walk, sacrifice, single and bunt. The Beavers scored their only run in the ninth on two singles and a double. The win gave Osenbaugh a 12-7 record. Portland starter John Buzhardt was tagged with the loss.

Vada Pinson slammed five straight singles at Spokane as Seattle took the series, two games to one. The Rainiers opened up with five runs in the first inning, added a singleton in the second, then closed out the night's scoring with a four-run burst in the sixth. Jim Davis went all the way for the decision, allowing eight hits.

Sacramento shaded Portland, 2-1 and Seattle buried Spokane under a 16-hit attack for a 10-2 win in other games.

The resurgent Bees, who dropped out of flag contention during a disastrous losing string earlier this month, pushed across a pair of runs in the bottom of the seventh to break a 4-4 deadlock and go on to victory. The Hive had opened the scoring with a four-run burst in the second, but the Giants came back with single runs in the third and fourth frames, then knotted it on Bill Wilson's two-run homer in the top of the seventh.

Don Kildoo, with help from Eddie O'Brien in the ninth, gave up seven hits to post the win. Joe Shipley, who also gave up only seven safeties, went the distance for Phoenix to lose his first game of the year.

Gothenburg, Sweden—UPI—Australia's Herb Elliott has earned a well-deserved rest after setting two world records in less than a month. From now on, my man must get some rest," Elliott's coach, Percy Cerutti, declared Thursday after watching his protegee lower the world record for the 1,500 meter metric mile run to three minutes, 36 seconds. The listed world record is 3:38.1.

Paul Giel 4-3, has been tapped by Manager Bill Rigney to start for San Francisco against the Dodgers' Don Drysdale, 9-11, who rapidly is finding his old class after a bad start.

Ez Charles Bout Victor

Fairmont, W. Va.—UPI—Former heavyweight champion Ezzard Charles was one step further along his "serious" comeback trail today after defeating Johnny Harper of Steubenville, Ohio, in a slow-moving bout here.

The 37-year-old Charles, who had trimmed down from a pudgy 234 last January, to 198 at weighin time, was given a unanimous decision in the 10-round bout at East-West Stadium Thursday night.

The former champion did most of the leading throughout the bout, scoring well to the body. He opened a deep cut over Harper's left eye in the third round and the wound bled freely throughout the remainder of the fight.

Williams Turns 40 On Saturday

BY BOB SALMON
 Boston—UPI—Ted Williams, one of baseball's greatest sluggers, turns 40 Saturday.

He's still hitting like a 25-year-old and—at times—still acting like a 10-year-old.

However, the temperamental Boston Red Sox star has begun showing some signs of age. True, he is currently making a bid for his sixth American league batting title. He's just a few percentage points off the pace with a .315 average. He's whacked 21 homers this season, with a month to go. And he's still a fearsome sight at the plate, his tanned, muscular arms holding the bat as if it were a swizzle stick.

But Ted ain't what he used to be. A good many of his hits this season have lacked the old zing he was noted for. He has hit and attempted to hit to left field, against the over-shifted infield, more often than ever before. And his batting mark, though plenty healthy, is far below his 350 lifetime average.

What about Williams' future as he heads into his fifth decade?

First of all, he'll undoubtedly be back next season. He hasn't said so in as many words, but Ted has stated often that his last big target is still 500 home runs.

Only three players in history have ever topped the 500 figure. Babe Ruth leads with a fantastic 714. Jimmie Foxx clouted 534, and Mel Ott still leads the National League with 511. Even Lou Gehrig missed, collecting 494 during his career with the New York Yankees.

Williams is fifth man in the standings with 477.

Discovery Life Taken Because Of Long Illness

Baltimore—UPI—With the death of Discovery, Native Dancer took over today as the No. 1 sire at Alfred Vanderbilt's Sagamore Farm.

Discovery, who made his mark as a racer and stallion, was put to death Thursday after a lingering illness. He was 27 years old — an age comparable to about 100 years with humans.

Purchased for $25,000 by Vanderbilt as a two-year-old in 1933, Discovery set two world records during his racing career. He won 27 of 63 starts and finished out of the money only 16 times.

Butcher Wins

Richmond, Calif.—UPI—Heavyweight Bob Butcher's unblemished string of victories stood at 21 today after his easy win over Tommy Harrison of Los Angeles in the Richmond auditorium. Referee Jack Downey halted the one-sided scrap in the ninth round Thursday night after Harrison was unable to defend himself against Butcher's potent combinations.

SWIM MARK SET

Los Angeles —UPI—Lance Larson, teen-age athlete from El Monte, Calif., swam the 100-meter butterfly event in 59.6 Thursday night to better the recognized world mark for the second time in a week. Larson, swimming for the Los Angeles Athletic Club, broke by 1.1 seconds the listed world mark of 1:00.7 held by Pakshi Ishimoto of Japan. Ishimoto set the record here last June.

Surgery Puts Tornado End Lowell Dean on Sideline

One of Medford High school's top prospects for the forthcoming football season was lost to the Black Tornado today, at least until the Southern Oregon conference season opens.

End Lowell Dean, who was being counted upon heavily this year, underwent hernia surgery today, Head Coach Fred Spiegelberg reported.

The ailment was said to have resulted from a summer baseball injury.

The squad of some 70 Tornado aspirants is otherwise intact, the mentor reported.

First regular scrimmage of the season was conducted yesterday and Spiegelberg stated that it was "pretty good" for a starter. Four offensive teams were put into motion and players were running, tackling and blocking hard and eager.

Workouts otherwise have stressed drills on fundamentals and some plays have been given. Offense has been given some of the concentration but there has been some defensive work as well. A squad scrim-

Four Pace Centennial

Vancouver—UPI—An international quartet of par-busters from Canada, the United States and Japan today paced the field into the second round of the $50,000 British Columbia Centennial golf tournament.

Japan's Koichi Ono, the smallest player in the field of 112 starters, helped give the richest golfing event in Canadian history a United Nations touch when he carded a four-under-par 68 during Thursday's opening round. Then two Canadians—Jerry Magee of Toronto and Al Balding of Markham, Ont.—and Texan Freddie Hawkins battled soggy greens and a driving rainstorm to match Ono's score.
