Too Many Fires; Family Quits Home

Taliadega, Ala.–(UPI)–Calvin Tuck, his wife and six children have moved out of their log home. It caught fire 22 times in two days.

"It's really a mystery," Fire Chief S. H. Joiner said Thursday. "If it's not a chemical reaction or spontaneous combustion, then I don't know whati t could be."

Tuck said most of the fires started in the walls of the house, which was wired for electricity and has a metal roof. The interior has been gutted.

County Road Commissioner Leslie R. Hutto, who also investigated, said in his opinion a chemical reaction was to blame. He scraped a knife across the mantle and flames flared up.

"The flames were reddish blue, and it looked like sulphur burning," Hutto said.

Mexican Police End Demonstration

Mexico City – (UPI) – Troops and police used tear gas Thursday night to break up a mob of 30,000 students staging a demonstration at the university here. More than 100 persons were injured.

The demonstration was the latest of a series of disorders touched off during the past week by an increase of 4-10 of a cent in bus fares, ordered to offset a recent rise in bus drivers' wages.
