

In the Day's News

By FRANK JENKINS

At his press conference in Washington, President Eisenhower said he will:

1. Do some campaigning this summer.
2. In his campaign talks, he will stress the necessity for cutting the deficit and putting the economy on a sound, healthy basis.
3. Study every major item of a forthcoming governmental budget to see if it can be CUT for the benefit of America.

HMMMMM.

He must have been reading Charles Dickens' David Copperfield, in which Mister Micawber offers this irreproachable fiscal advice:

"Annual income twenty pounds, annual expenditure nineteen six (meaning 19 pounds, 19 shillings and sixpence) result HAPPINESS."

"Annual income twenty pounds, annual expenditure twenty pounds ought and six, result MISERY."

IF YOU are familiar with David Copperfield, you will recall that Mister Micawber was an IRREPRESIBLE SPENDTHRIFT who talked ECONOMY every time he could get anybody to listen.

That's about the pattern of our modern fiscal politics.

AT HIS press conference, Ike said he felt there was a tendency in the recent congress to spend more money generally than he had recommended.

Let's hew to the line and let the chips fall where they may. It is undoubtedly true that in the recession period of this year of 1958 the tendency of the congress has been to spend more than the President has recommended.

But—Throughout his second administration Ike has tended to recommend more spending than conservative thinkers have felt to be sound and wise.

THE period covered by the session of the congress that has just adjourned has been a period of recession. In periods of recession, there is a general desire to MAKE BUSINESS BETTER so that the recession will end and prosperity will return. There is a widespread belief in CALIFORNIA BEAUTY QUEEN—Dark-eyed Raquel Tejada of La Jolla was crowned Maid of California by Governor Knight at the opening of the State Fair in Sacramento. Miss Tejada is 17 years old, weighs 117, is 5'6" tall, and measures 35-23-35. She won over other entrants from 43 California counties.

THEY'D PREFER DONKEYS

Jackson, Miss. — (UPI) — Leaders of Mississippi's "Dollars For Democrats" drive are planning to change the wallpaper in a local hotel room they are using for headquarters. The paper is decorated with elephants.

The town hall at Shakespear's birthplace, Stratford-on-Avon, records all town officials since 1553.

These days that big government spending makes business better.

It's an intriguing theory. But don't forget this fundamental fact:

Heavy government spending means heavy government taxing. The money government takes out of your pocket in the form of taxes is no longer in your pocket FOR YOU TO SPEND.

Multnomah Fire Chief Collapses

Gresham, Ore. — (UPI) — Glen Harold Ferrington, chief of Multnomah county fire district 14, collapsed and died Thursday while fighting a barn fire east of here.

The 54-year-old Ferrington, of Springdale, died of a heart attack while running from a Gresham fire truck to the blaze, which was on the Harvey Anderson farm about three miles east of Gresham.

He is survived by his wife, Aino, two sons, and three brothers.

First drive-in auto service station was believed to be one established in St. Louis in 1905. It was at the plant of the Automobile Gasoline company in St. Louis.

Feeding the Family

Try These New Green Bean Ways

Green beans are a snap to do in so many good ways. They're very low in calories, too. Cook them quickly. Whole snap beans cook in 15 to 30 minutes; cut beans cook in 10 to 15 minutes, and French style (sliced lengthwise) cook in 8 to 12 minutes.

For a simple but delectable sauce, saute one-fourth cup chopped onions in two tablespoons of butter. Add two tablespoons sour cream and stir into hot green beans.

For a different flavor, stir a little horseradish into the buttered beans and sprinkle with chopped hard-cooked eggs.

Stir a little dill, rosemary or other favored herbs into mayonnaise, add a generous squeeze of fresh lemon or lime and top each serving of green beans.

A thin cheese sauce with or without diced pimientos gives flavor excitement to green beans.

Simply dress green beans with seasoned sour cream and sprinkle a few slivered almonds over or add sliced mushrooms. If canned mushrooms are used, be sure to add their liquor to the cooking water for extra flavor.

Spiced Lemonade
No one ever heard of a picnic without lemonade. Here's a spicy one. To dress it up, freeze some of the lemonade in refrigerator ice cube trays with whole cloves afloat.

For each six to eight glasses of lemonade, boil three-fourth cup sugar and three-fourth cup water about five minutes. Combine one cup of this syrup with 12 whole cloves, one three-inch stick cinnamon; cook five minutes, then strain. Add juice of six lemons and one quart water. Chill. Pour over ice cubes in glasses.

Cinnamon Peaches. These are both pretty and delicious. Make a syrup with sugar, red cinnamon candies and syrup drained from canned cling peach halves. Heat the peaches in the cinnamon syrup until they're bright red.

Seasoned Baked Beans
Simple but savory fixings make a main dish feast of canned baked beans to serve with a salad and crisp rolls followed by fresh fruit. Mustard, catsup, molasses, Tabasco and pan drippings from the fried pork make a medley of spicy flavor. Thrifty, too! Six servings.

1/4 pound salt pork
2 1/2-pound cans baked beans
1 tablespoon prepared mustard

1/2 cup catsup
1/4 cup molasses
1/8 teaspoon Tabasco

Cut salt pork into six slices and fry over medium heat about 15 minutes. Combine two tablespoons of the pan drippings, baked beans, mustard, catsup, molasses and Tabasco. Turn into individual casseroles or big baking dish.

Arrange salt pork slices on top. Reserve remaining pan drippings for cooking fat. Bake in moderate oven, 375 degrees, 30 minutes to an hour dependent on size of casseroles or casserole.

Peach Fluff
Success of this otherwise quick dessert depends on its being thoroughly chilled when served. Another good way to enjoy plentiful luscious peaches.

Add one-half cup powdered sugar to one cup thick cream; stir until sugar is dissolved. Add two stiffly beaten egg whites. Place sliced peaches in a dish, sprinkle with another half cup powdered sugar; cover with cream mixture and chill thoroughly.

Versatile Franks
There's many a good thing to do with frankfurters besides sticking them in a bun.

Mix sliced frankfurters with macaroni for a savory bake. Cook frankfurter slices with green beans in lieu of salt pork. Halve and grill them with baked beans. Put franks through meat grinder, add relish and mustard for a good sandwich. Cut them into slices and add to any thick soup. Dice them into potato salad.

Practical Paper Products Are Labor Savers

A little planning and considerable do-it-yourself on the part of the rest of the family can make this a holiday from labor for Mother, too. Biggest time saver we know of is to banish dish washing by simple expedient of putting in a good supply of pretty, practical, inexpensive paper plates, dishes, cups and other paraphernalia for quick disposal.

Paper products come in all sizes, now appear on the best dressed tables morning, noon and night and at snacking time, expertly engineered for every use.

Least expensive are uncoated hard-surfaced round paper plates in several sizes, in gleaming white, in gay colors and in colorful designs; perfect for sandwiches, cookies, cakes and other non-moist foods.

For steak, spaghetti, baked beans and similar food, the answer is sturdy plastic-coated high style plates that are moisture and grease-proof. Then there are compartmented rectangular trays for cafeteria-style meals and foil-covered "silver" plates of elegance.

Put in plenty of cups for hot beverages, cold beverages and stacks of paper napkins.

Poultry Popular. There's certain to be chicken and/or turkey in week-end menus; fried, barbecued, broiled or grilled. Roast turkey will make several good meals with little effort.

Other Meats. Beef prices are lower all along the line. Hamburger will make one or more good week-end meals; frankfurters another. A cold meat platter of sliced cold cuts and canned luncheon meats makes a satisfying supper one night, sandwiches the next day.

Corn-on-the-cob will lead the vegetable parade with baked potatoes, potato salad and potato chips close behind. Salad greens are at peak of production and perfection with tomatoes, green peppers, cucumbers, celery and all other salad makers plentiful.

Melons of all kinds are at flavor peak, bargain priced; need only chilling and serving. You'll want peaches, nectarines and Bartlett pears for eating out-of-hand, for dessert-making and for offering with cheese. Gravenstein apples if you've time to make a pie or two.

Ice cream and imitation ice creams. Buy the half gallon for best value, convenience.

Bottled and canned beverages, along with extra lemons, lemon or lemonade concentrate.

West Los Angeles—(UPI)—Two of tennis promoter Jack Kramer's children were carried to safety by a nurse Wednesday when a two-alarm fire gutted part of Kramer's Bel-Air home.

Military Airplane Crashes on Takeoff

Big Springs, Tex. — (UPI) — A military plane from Hill Air Force Base, Ogden, Utah, crashed on takeoff after refueling at Big Springs today, killing one of eight men on board.

The name of the victim, who was hitching a ride, was withheld pending notification of next of kin.

The others were not hurt. Capt. Allen R. Robertson, public information officer at Webb AFB here, said the plane's "propeller went wild and went through the cabin."

The craft plunged to the ground, crashing in a plowed field about three miles south of Webb.

Robertson said the plane was en route to San Antonio, Tex., and was carrying military personnel from three services.

Albany Girl Dies As Result of Wreck

Newport—(UPI)—Mary Judith Rogers, 18, of Albany died Thursday in a Newport hospital from injuries sustained Saturday night in a traffic accident on the Albany-Waldport highway about 10 miles east of Waldport.

Miss Rogers was a passenger in a small foreign car driven by Heide Weber, also 18, of Albany. Police report that the car skidded on a grade and collided with a car driven by Tom Hockema of Alesia.

Miss Rogers suffered a broken neck and a severe concussion in the accident. The Weber girl was released Tuesday after treatment for cuts and bruises.

Brownsville, Tex.—(UPI)—An explosion in a freezing and storage plant Wednesday injured three workmen and ripped open ammonia pipes. The ammonia overcame about 30 women.

Surviving Miss Rogers are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Rogers, two brothers, and three sisters, all of Albany.
