

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Haines Underwood (Matson photo)

Underwood-Cooney Rites Held in Berkeley Chapel

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Haines Underwood, married August 21 in Berkeley, Calif., are in Medford to spend the Labor day week end with Mrs. Underwood's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Cooney, 717 Dakota avenue. The newlyweds are en route to Walla Walla, Wash., where Mr. Underwood will be on the faculty of Whitman college as associate professor of mathematics.

The Underwood-Cooney rites took place at Chapel of the Great Commission, Pacific School of Religion, Berkeley. The Rev. Daniel D. Walker of First Methodist church, Oakland, Calif., officiated for the evening ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of white satin and tulle with Sabina neckline scalloped with Chantilly lace. Her finger-tip length veil was held by a cap of pearls and she carried white roses with stephanotis and bouvardia.

Miss Elizabeth Gilbert, Salem, was maid of honor and other attendants were Miss Jacqueline Chalmers, Berkeley, and Mrs. Richard Underwood, the bridegroom's sister-in-law from Western Springs, Ill. Their frocks of pink chiffon over taffeta were ballerina style and were worn with pink net head-dresses. They carried deep pink roses and ivy.

Mr. Cooney gave his daughter in marriage, and Richard Underwood, Western Springs, was best man or his brother. The bride's brother, William J. Cooney Jr., Medford, and David Underwood, the bridegroom's brother from Hiram, Ohio, seated the guests.

Mrs. Alan Pierce was soloist. White gladioli and stock decorated the church.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Christensen, uncle and aunt of the bride, were hosts for the reception, held at their home in Oakland. The bride's mother wore a blue lace gown with matching accessories and orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a beige knit dress and orchid corsage.

League Plans Show

Medford Junior Service league will hold a fall fashion show Thursday and Friday, September 11 and 12 at the Rogue Valley Country club. The show, to begin at 12:30 p.m. both days, is open to the public.

"Back to school" will be the theme of the event and proceeds are to go to the league's kindergarten for hard of hearing children.

Mrs. Robert C. Taylor is general chairman of the show and will be assisted by Mrs. Robert M. Turner, co-chairman. Mrs. Fred A. Lewis is in charge of decorations, Mrs. Eugene V. Meyerding will plan the menu and Mrs. Robert R. Dickey will handle the invitations.

Commentators will be Mrs. Sam Richardson and Mrs. Don Wood.

Family Here

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin H. Hass and their granddaughter, Carol Hass, Glendale, Calif., are here to visit Haas' son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund E. Haas and children, Morgan, Elizabeth, Patricia and Grant, 1615 Crown avenue. The visitors will leave Tuesday for the return trip. They made the trip up by car, coming up the coast route.

Baby Corner

Infant's and Children's Wear
Corner 6th & Central
Phone SP 2-6253

Downstairs at Medford Pharmacy

This is the way she goes

To School

... So sweet and pretty in her fashionable new frock from Baby Corner! See our selection of school clothes for the little miss just starting school.

If you are looking for a birthday or shower gift—drop in on our convenient downstairs shop. We believe you'll find exactly what you are looking for from our excellent selection of infants' and children's wear. Your purchases gift wrapped without charge.

Byrne-Strader Ceremony Held at Episcopal Church

An event of Sunday, August 24, was the wedding of Miss Patricia Ann Strader and William E. Byrne, at St. Mark's Episcopal church in this city. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Vera Strader and granddaughter of Mrs. Arthur G. McMillin, 661 J street, Medford. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Byrne, Eugene, Ore.

The Rev. George R. V. Bolster read the double-ring ceremony at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and the bride was given in marriage by Harold Bunce, her guardian. Soloists were Mrs. Herschel Morris and John Drysdale, and Mrs. Ernest Conrad was at the organ.

For her wedding the bride wore a gown of white nylon tulle with Valenciennes lace bodice and embroidered applique. The bodice was designed with scoop neckline and cap sleeves, and the skirt with a brush train. Her finger-tip length veil was held by a crown of net and seed pearls and her pearl necklace was the bridegroom's gift. She carried the white heirloom prayer book which her mother had carried for her wedding, and stephanotis streamers.

Miss Sally Manary, Baker, Ore., was the maid-of-honor and Mrs. K. Ann Carswell, Corvallis, Ore., was matron-of-honor. The Misses Darla Moshberger, Molalla, Ore., Helen Rasmussen, Carlton, Ore., and Sandra Hubbard, Medford, were bridesmaids.

The honor attendants wore gowns of mint green chiffon with full skirts fashioned with drapery falling to the hem and velvet trim of matching color. The bridesmaid's frocks were of the same design in pale yellow chiffon; all the attendants wore head-dresses of daisies to match their gowns and carried nosegays of white stephanotis and pink rosebuds.

The bride's mother wore a gown of maize colored silk organza with harem style skirt and her flowers were yellow talisman roses. Mrs. McMillin wore a sheath frock of ecru lace with Eton jacket and chiffon cummerbund and her corsage was a lavender orchid. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a sheath of cocoa wool crepe and her corsage was also of talisman roses.

Michael Kelly, Salem, served as Mr. Byrne's best man, and Morris Jerome Simpson, Long Beach, Calif., was head usher. Richard Hille, Seattle, Wash.; Thomas Forte, John Forney and Walter Cummins, all Eugene, seated the guests.

The reception which followed in the Parish house was attended by about 100 guests. Mrs. William Clegg Jr., took charge of the guest book, Mrs. Irwin Keehn poured coffee and Mrs. H. E. Marsh served punch. Mrs. Paul G. Bauer served the wedding cake and Robert C. Byrne, young brother of the bridegroom, the bridegroom's cake.

Mr. Byrne and his bride spent their honeymoon on the coast and will live at 3511 Tyler street, Corvallis, where the bridegroom will enroll at Oregon State college to complete his senior year. For traveling Mrs. Byrne wore a sage green wool chemise suit with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The bride, a graduate of Medford High school and Oregon State college, is a member of Delta Gamma, collegiate fraternity for women. The bridegroom's fraternity is Beta Theta Pi.

The bride wore a gown of white nylon tulle with Sabina neckline scalloped with Chantilly lace. Her finger-tip length veil was held by a cap of pearls and she carried white roses with stephanotis and bouvardia.

Miss Elizabeth Gilbert, Salem, was maid of honor and other attendants were Miss Jacqueline Chalmers, Berkeley, and Mrs. Richard Underwood, the bridegroom's sister-in-law from Western Springs, Ill. Their frocks of pink chiffon over taffeta were ballerina style and were worn with pink net head-dresses. They carried deep pink roses and ivy.

Mr. Cooney gave his daughter in marriage, and Richard Underwood, Western Springs, was best man or his brother. The bride's brother, William J. Cooney Jr., Medford, and David Underwood, the bridegroom's brother from Hiram, Ohio, seated the guests.

Mrs. Alan Pierce was soloist. White gladioli and stock decorated the church.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Christensen, uncle and aunt of the bride, were hosts for the reception, held at their home in Oakland. The bride's mother wore a blue lace gown with matching accessories and orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a beige knit dress and orchid corsage.

For traveling the bride wore a dark blue wool jersey dress with corsage of white roses. She is a graduate of Medford High school and Willamette university and attended the University of California. She is a member of Delta Gamma sorority. The bridegroom is a graduate of Case Institute of Technology and the University of California.

Women's and teenage fashions from Mann's Department store will be modeled by members of the organization and their mothers. The show is open to the public.

The group will hold a formal initiation Wednesday, September 3 at the Masonic temple beginning at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. E. A. Goodnough of Eugene, grand guardian of the State of Oregon, will make her official visitation at that time.

Final practice for officers and chair members will be held at the temple on September 2 at 9:30 a.m.

Temple Queen To Visit Clubs

Mrs. E. Ronald Rice, queen of Zuleima temple, Daughters of the Nile, will make the Nile, will make the first of her fall visitations to the Nile clubs of her district Tuesday evening, September 2. She will attend a meeting of the Coos Bay-North Bend Nile club, Wednesday, September 3, she will visit the Coquille Valley Nile club. The following week on Tuesday, September 9 the officer will attend a meeting of Driftwood Nile club at Gold Beach and from there Mrs. Rice will travel to Roseburg for a meeting Friday, September 12.

Members of Zuleima temple from Southern Oregon who are planning to attend these meetings are asked to call Mrs. Rice, Spring 2-7521.

organza with harem style skirt and her flowers were yellow talisman roses. Mrs. McMillin wore a sheath frock of ecru lace with Eton jacket and chiffon cummerbund and her corsage was a lavender orchid. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a sheath of cocoa wool crepe and her corsage was also of talisman roses.

Michael Kelly, Salem, served as Mr. Byrne's best man, and Morris Jerome Simpson, Long Beach, Calif., was head usher. Richard Hille, Seattle, Wash.; Thomas Forte, John Forney and Walter Cummins, all Eugene, seated the guests.

The reception which followed in the Parish house was attended by about 100 guests. Mrs. William Clegg Jr., took charge of the guest book, Mrs. Irwin Keehn poured coffee and Mrs. H. E. Marsh served punch. Mrs. Paul G. Bauer served the wedding cake and Robert C. Byrne, young brother of the bridegroom, the bridegroom's cake.

Mr. Byrne and his bride spent their honeymoon on the coast and will live at 3511 Tyler street, Corvallis, where the bridegroom will enroll at Oregon State college to complete his senior year. For traveling Mrs. Byrne wore a sage green wool chemise suit with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The bride, a graduate of Medford High school and Oregon State college, is a member of Delta Gamma, collegiate fraternity for women. The bridegroom's fraternity is Beta Theta Pi.

Episcopal Rites Wed Couple

Prospect-Miss Suzi McKillop became the bride of Lester Gerald Namitz in rites held August 8 in Episcopal Church of the Good Shepherd here. The Rev. George R. V. Bolster, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church, Medford, officiated.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie McKillop, and Mr. Namitz is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerrald Namitz.

The service was held at eight o'clock in the evening, and Mr. McKillop gave his daughter in marriage. About 200 guests attended. The bride wore a gown of white lace over net and taffeta fashioned with train of lace and net ruffles. Her waist length veil was held by a coronet of seed pearls and she carried white carnations.

Miss Sally McKillop was her sister's honor attendant and bridesmaids were Miss Kathi Snyder and Miss Barbara Ashenurst, Medford.

Yellow and white gladioli and white candles provided a setting for the wedding party. Mrs. J. P. Richey played the wedding music.

The reception was held in the gardens of the Prospect hotel. Arrangements of gladioli in several shades provided a setting, white wedding bells hung from the trees and colored lights made the scene a festive one.

Mrs. C. Namitz, Portland, the bridegroom's grandmother and Mrs. L. L. Conger, Prospect, grandmother of the bride, poured. Mrs. Paul Doe, and Mrs. Thomas Rickard, both of Medford, cut and served the wedding cake. Miss Roma Shaffer took charge of the guest book.

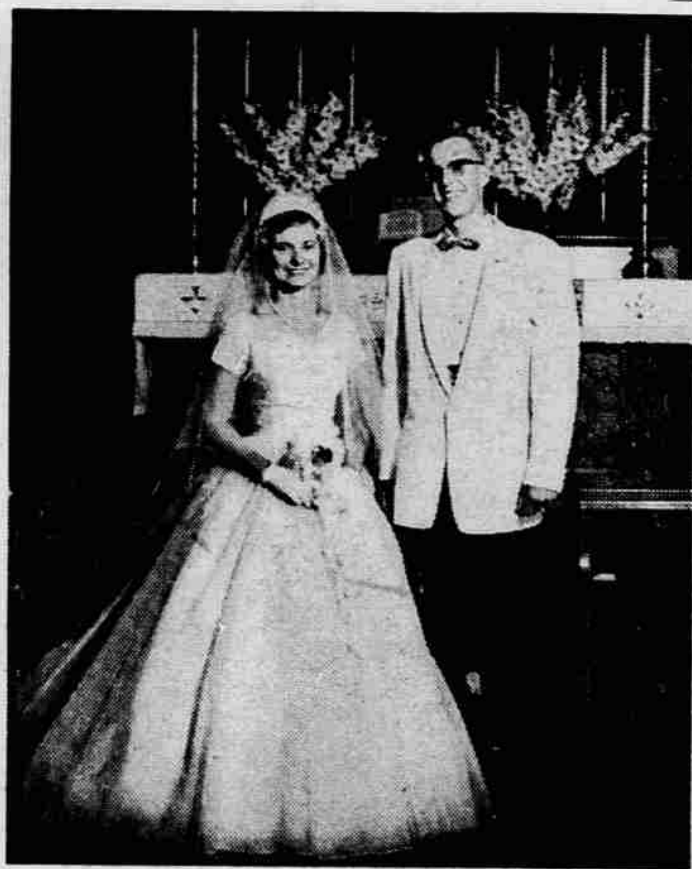

For the event the bride's mother wore a blue and white chemise frock with white accessories and white carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a yellow frock with white accessories and her corsage was also of white carnations.

Mr. Namitz and his bride spent their honeymoon on the California coast and are now at home in the Prospect Trailer court. The bride, a graduate of Prospect High school, is a secretary for the Hoag Logging company. Mr. Namitz who attended Sweet Home High school, is employed by Francis McKay as a logging loader.

Foreign Student Guest in Medford

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Claude Sparks were their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Francis C. Sparks and their son Lyle, and daughter, Peggy. Accompanying them was Ole Djurhuus, Copenhagen, Denmark, who will live at the Sparks home in Clatskanie while attending high school there as an exchange student to this country.

Mrs. Sparks who is on the faculty of the Clatskanie High school, states that the student is an interesting boy who is quickly fitting in with the customs of this country. The visitor speaks five different languages other than Danish and Mrs. Sparks said that his English, both written and spoken, is amazingly fine. This 17-year-old student is six feet and two inches tall and possesses a very pleasing personality, according to the Sparks family. A trip to Oregon Caves and Crater Lake were interesting to him.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Byrne (Landis photo)

Michigan Couple Visit in Medford

Mr. and Mrs. Fred F. Richardson, Alpena, Mich., have been in Medford as guests of Mr. Richardson's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Ball, 613 Catherine street. Mr. Richardson recently completed 30 years in the conservation department of Michigan, and is much interested in the natural resources of Oregon.

The visitors arrived here August 18 and later went to Grants Pass to visit friends. Saturday the Balls and the Richardsons left for a trip down the Oregon and California coast.

Jacksonville-Adalee chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will hold its annual homecoming potluck dinner at the Jacksonville Masonic temple on September 4 at 6:30 p.m.

Relatives Visit At Gray Home

A number of recent visitors to the valley have been guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Gray, Cherry lane.

Here were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Gray and sons, Michael and David, Salem, son and daughter-in-law of the Grays. Later Mrs. Gray's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Anstey, Portland, were guests here.

Mrs. Winifred Gray Wise, Sedona, Ariz., who comes to the valley each summer during the Oregon Shakespearean festival, was a guest of the Grays for 10 days.

Last of the visitors was the Gray's son, Lt. R. A. Gray, who came from New York City where he is on duty with the Strategic Air command. While in Oregon Lt. Gray also visited his brother in Salem.

October Rites Planned by Pair

Mrs. John J. Wilkinson, 726 South Keeneway drive, of this city announces the engagement of her daughter, Dolores Ann, to Hans Walter Mangold, St. Louis, Mo. Mr. Mangold is the son of Mrs. Hilda Mangold, Westfalen, Germany.

The wedding is set for October 18 in St. Rose church, St. Louis, and Mrs. Wilkinson plans to be present for the ceremony.

Miss Wilkinson is a graduate of Marylhurst college, Portland, and also attended Oregon State college, where she was a member of Kappa Delta sorority. She received her master's degree in psychiatric social service at St. Louis university in June of this year and is employed at St. Louis County hospital as a psychiatric social worker.

Mr. Mangold is with Stix, Baer and Fuller department store in St. Louis as a textile engineer.

Couple Observes Golden Wedding

Gold Hill-Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe H. Ladd, 793 North Second street, Gold Hill, are celebrating their golden wedding anniversary today and will be honored at a dinner given by their daughter, Mrs. Edna McCall, at her home in Ashland.

The Ladds came west from Nebraska in wagons when he was 11 and she was seven, and their families settled near Lewiston, Idaho. The couple was married in Lewiston. They have two sons, one daughter, twelve grandchildren, and two great grandchildren.

SALE TUBEROUS BEGONIAS IN BLOOM CHENAULT'S 1735 Orchard Home Court SP 2-2183

Eagle Point Club Announces Meeting
Eagle Point-Eagle Point Jayceettes will hold a business meeting Thursday, September 4, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Bert E. Simmons, South B street. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Mark W. Hoeft and Mrs. Pete Flury. Final plans will be made for the autumn, talent show scheduled Saturday, September 13, in the Eagle Point grade school gymnasium beginning at 8 p.m.

Stauffer Home Reducing Plan
Virginia Wickersham, Counselor
PHONE SP 2-9260

HERE IS YOUR CHANCE OF A LIFETIME!

25% OFF sale

THESE TWO FAMOUS PATTERNS IN STERLING SILVER BY LUNT

"WILLIAM & MARY" "AMERICAN VICTORIAN"

★ START your service... Now!
★ FILL-IN your service... Now!

A Limited Time Offer

SEPTEMBER 2-OCTOBER 15

We must advance these special sale prices to their regular normal levels on October 16. Both are carried as active open stock patterns.

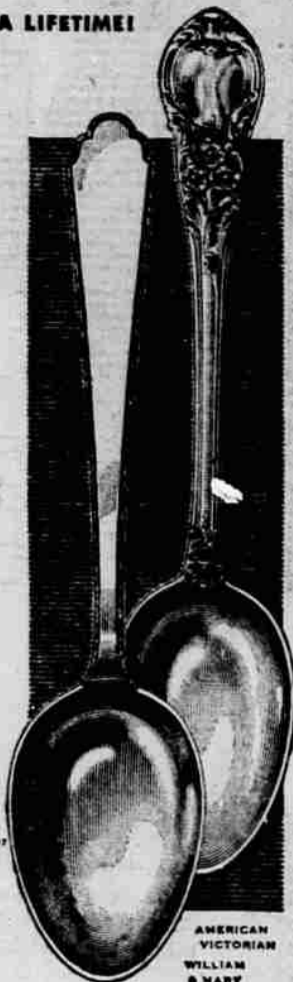

You may use our "CLUB PLAN"

CONVENIENT TERMS IF DESIRED!

LAWRENCE'S

YOUR FRIENDLY FAMILY STORE

Specializing in Fine Silver, Diamonds and Watches
130 EAST MAIN EST. 1908
Now in Our Fiftieth Year!

AMERICAN VICTORIAN WILLIAM & MARY

Only at...

Parker Woods' LEON'S

They Came by Air... They Came by Bus... They Came by Rail... They Came by Private Truck... (and the next ones may have to come by "Pony Express")...

But Now They are

HERE!

Your All New 1958 Frenchies

by Nathan... Mfg. by Mark Angelo

The only official shoe of the National Cheer Leaders Association and worn by Pep and Rally Squads all over the country. ... In genuine white buck and plus pigskins-with the "sharpest" styling of any of new back-to-school shoes. ... Hurry in and select your size and color!

10⁹⁵

There is only one "Frenchie" and sold only at...

Parker Woods'

LEON'S

Home of Beautiful Shoes
21 N. CENTRAL

Just look and compare these features against any other shoe of its type.

- 10 Beautiful Colors...
- New tapered toe...
- New ribbed sole...
- Lower cut—4 eyelets...
- New toe boxing...
- New heavier heel counters...
- Lined for better wear and fit...
- Nylon stitched...
- The finest wearing shoe in the "light weight" field...

ATTENTION RALLY and PEP SQUAD GIRLS!

You can have your own individual color combination made to order to match your outfits at no additional charge!