McLaughlin-Barnes Rites Held at Catholic Church

Miss Susan Ankeny Barnes became the bride of Donald Dean McLaughlin in a nuptial mass held Saturday, August 23, at Sacred Heart Catholic church. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barnes, 2895 Hillcrest road, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis McLaughlin, 3384 Jacksonville highway.

The mass was celebrated at groom.

Arrangements of white gladiolus, fern and blue delphinium decorated the church. The reception was held in the garden at the Barnes' home. Pouring coffee were Mrs. Robert Sleeter, Mrs. John S. Day, Mrs. Ben Day and Mrs. Norris Porter. Mrs. H. D. Christensen, Mrs. Otto J. Frohnmayer, Mrs. Harvey Robertson, Mrs. Charles Walker and Mrs. Robert Shepherd served. The Misses Diana Getchel, Ann Garner and Verity Day poured punch and Mrs. William Barker cut the bride's cake.

The bride's gown was of white embroidered organza designed with round neckline, short sleeves and full bell-shaped skirt with chapel train. Her veil was held by a coronet and she carried pink roses with stephanotis.

Miss Susan Collins, Pasadena, Calif., was the bride's attendant and bridesmaids were the Misses Linda Robertson, cousin of the bride; Dee Ann Barnes, her sister; Mira Jean Frohnmayer, and Jane Barker. They wore white pique sheath frocks with blue sashes and large blue bows, white hats and carried pink chrysanthemums with blue delphinium.

Robin Barnes, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Her full-skirted frock was of white over blue and she carried rose petals in a blue ribbon cup.

Carl Mohr was head usher and others were Michael Painter, San Francisco, Robert Shepherd and Patrick McLaughlin, brother of the bride.

Presbyterian Rites Wed Judith Hall, Gaynor Huck

First Presbyterian church of Medford was the scene of the wedding of Miss Judith Allyn Hall to Gaynor David Huck on Sunday, August 24. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Melvin H. Hall, Route 2, Medford, and Mr. Huck is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Huck, Klamath Falls.

Dr. Norman K. Tully, Central Point, former pastor of Jacksonville Presbyterian church, which the bride attended, officiated for the double-ring ceremony. It was held at three o'clock in the afternoon, and more than 300 guests attended. Miss Arlieta Knowles, Ashland, was soloist and Mrs. Gerald Sherman was at the church organ.

The cross on the church altar was made for the occasion by Roy Martin, Jacksonville, and will be given by the bride to the Jacksonville Presbyterian church. Baskets of pink and white gladiolus decorated the church, and the pew bouquets were of white gladiolus.

Wears Taffeta

The bride's gown of white silk taffeta was designed on empire lines with lace off-shoulder bodice and sequin trim. Her illusion veil was held by a Juliet cap of lace, sequins and pearls and she carried pink rosebuds and stephanotis. The bride had designed and made her gown with the assistance of a friend, Mrs. John Niedermeyer, and also made her cap. She wore a bracelet worn by her grandmother on her wedding day 50 years ago.

The bride's attendants were Mrs. Donald Ferguson, matron of honor, Miss Mary Jo Hall, her sister, Mrs. Darold Verley, Castro Valley, Calif., and Mrs. George Trahern, Grants Pass. Their gowns, patterned after the bride's, were of pink flocked nylon over pink taffeta worn with picture hats of net. Mrs. Ferguson carried an arm bouquet of pink and white gladiolus, and the other attendants carried white gladiolus. Lori Metler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Metler, Klamath Falls, was flower girl. She also wore pink nylon. Dickie Niedermeyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Niedermeyer, was ring bearer.

Lyle Schoppert, uncle of the bride, gave her in marriage since her father was ill and unable to attend the wedding. Best man was Gerald Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Selby, Mr. and Mrs. Leiland Clark, Dr. and Mrs. Billy Blackstone, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Woods.

Serving on the committee Friday night were Dr. and Mrs. D. Bruce Stanley, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Frisbie, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hart, Dr. and Mrs. Darrall Miller, Dr. and Mrs. Earl Yoakley and Mr. and Mrs. James E. Schell.

Last night Mr. and Mrs. Manville Heisel were chairmen of the committee and tonight Mr. and Mrs. Edward Milne head the committee. Serving with them will be Mr. and Mrs. Berg Marten, Mr. and Mrs. James Sheldon, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hall, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Mitchell and Dr. Mrs. Stanley.

Many of the tournament players have been attending the event for many years. One of these is Lucian Clement, "Lute" since he lived in Medford before going to Portland where he is a member of the Rose City Golf club.

Mr. Clement, a brother of Harold Clement, Mrs. Chester Guches and Mrs. J. W. Clogston, learned to play golf at the local club and as a boy served as caddy for H. Chandler Egan, well known golfer who planned the Rogue Valley club course. Mr. Clement's wife and daughter, Sherry, who will be 16 years old next month, accompanied him to Medford. Sherry is serving as his caddy during the tournament. Mr. Clement has missed a few tournaments throughout the years, but not many.

Another entrant of many years is Raymond Scott, who also lived in Medford before moving to Portland where he belongs to the Eastmoreland club. Mr. Scott, who was on the staff of KMEM when he lived here, has played in at least eight tournaments. Mrs. Scott accompanied her husband to Medford.

Among other visitors here for the tournament are Mr. and Mrs. James Roberts, Anaheim, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bullock, Portland, who are guests of the Milnes. Mr. Roberts and Mrs. Bullock are entered in the tournament.

The Guileys were particularly interested in a tour of the museum maintained by the University of Alaska near Fairbanks. From Fairbanks the couple went to Anchorage by Alaskan airline where they visited a cousin. They also spent some time at Juneau and took a tour of the Mendenhall glacier. The couple found the lakes and mountains of this region also especially beautiful and visited a log chapel erected by the Presbyterian church which has large picture windows with a view of the spruce forests and lakes. The Guileys were impressed with the modernness of the Alaskan cities, and with the extensive military development.

Their visit to Fairbanks coincided with one made by Governor Holmes of Oregon, and they met the governor during a dinner at the Traveler's inn.

En route home the Guileys spent some time in Seattle with friends. After arriving home they learned of the birth of a daughter to Lt. and Mrs. Smith on August 26.

Overson, Klamath Falls, and ushers were Edward Zarazinski, Jack Metler and Ronald Wilkerson, all Klamath Falls.

Bill Hall, brother of the bride, and Bruce Niedermeyer lighted the candles.

Garden Reception

The reception, held in the garden at the Hall home, was in charge of Mrs. Lyle Schoppert, the bride's aunt. The color theme was pink and white. Miss Susan Schoppert, cousin of the bride, took charge of the guest book at the church, and Miss Nancy Niedermeyer during the reception. Serving cake were Mrs. Viola Wilcoxon, Miss Darlene Hvall, Mrs. Wayne Paulson and Miss Roberta Wade. Pouring punch were Miss Sydney Sutherland and Miss Karen Johnson; Miss Esther Smith and Miss Velma Mayfield poured coffee. All are college friends of the bride. The knife used to cut the cake was a wedding gift.

For the event the bride's mother wore a sheath gown of aquamarine blue tuckered nylon with white accessories and pink rosebud corsage. The bridegroom's mother was gowned in ice blue satin with lace trim worn with matching hat and rosebud corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Huck traveled down the Oregon and California coast for their wedding trip and will live at 160 Laurel street, Ashland, after September 1. For traveling Mrs. Huck wore a beige chemise dress with pink hat and gloves. The bride was born and reared in Jackson county. She attended Jacksonville High school and Southern Oregon college, graduating with the 1958 class, and will teach second grade in Walker school, Ashland, this fall.

The bridegroom attended Oregon State college after graduation from Klamath Union High school and is now

Golf Tourney Attracts Visitors; Parties Held

Cocktail parties and dinners, both in homes and at Rogue Valley Country club, are being given this week end to entertain visitors here for the 30th annual Southern Oregon Golf tournament.

The bride has been honored at a number of showers. One was given by women of the Jacksonville Presbyterian church August 8. A dance and shower was given by the bridegroom's friends at the Yacht club in Klamath Falls for the couple, with more than 50 guests attending. The bridegroom's father was host for the rehearsal dinner, given at the Medford hotel.

Forty-five persons attended the ceremony and the reception which followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Garrison in Central Point.

The bride attended Medford High school prior to her marriage and the bridegroom, employed by White City Plywood company, is a graduate of Grants Pass High school.

The couple is at home at 122 1/2 North Ivy street.

Master Point Game Planned

Medford Duplicate club will hold its September master point game Tuesday evening. Mrs. Frank Baker and B. L. Sanderson were high scorers last Tuesday for the north-south hands with 111 points. Mrs. Leland Clark and Paul Hatton topped the east-west players with 135 points.

Other north-south high scorers were held by Mrs. Paul McDuffee and Mrs. Berg Marten, 110 points; Dr. George Dean and George Rode, 105 points; and Mrs. Howard Boyd and Mrs. Jhon Dougherty, 100 points.

East-West players who placed high were Ray Wise and Al Gilhousen, 123 1/2 points; Mrs. William Hendryx and Mrs. Josephine Clark, 111 1/2 points; and Mrs. Fred Purdin and Mrs. Alto Pruitt, 110 1/2 points. Mrs. Hendryx was a visiting player from Portland.

Couple Married in Garden Ceremony

Ashland - One of the valley's largest late summer weddings was that of Miss Beverly Ann Barksdale to Leon Ralph McDougall, held last Sunday, August 24. The double-ring ceremony took place in the garden at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arch Barksdale, 463 Palm avenue, with about 300 guests attending.

The bridegroom is the younger son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McDougall, 315 Perrydale avenue, Medford, and the guests were from both Medford and Ashland.

Two ministers, the Rev. George R. V. Bolster of St. Mark's Episcopal church, Medford, and the Rev. John Thompson of Trinity Episcopal church, Ashland, participated in the service, held at 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon. Mr. Barksdale escorted his daughter to the improvised altar and gave her in marriage.

Mrs. Charles Forrest played the wedding music and soloist was Mrs. Gordon Serpa.

The bride's gown was of lace fashioned with short sleeves, square neckline and billowing skirt of lace ruffles. Her short veil fell from a small cap and she carried baby pink rosebuds and feathered carnations on a white Bible.

Mrs. Jack Coffin was matron-of-honor for the bride and Miss Judy Bone, Salem, was the bridesmaid. Junior bridesmaids were Miss Donald Ann Braze and Miss Nancy Edwards, Medford. Mrs. Coffin and Miss Bone wore gowns of pale pink dotted Swiss, with three-quarter length sleeves, necklines dipping low in the back and bouffant skirts. Their hats were of pink ruffled nylon net and they carried white and green carnations with white prayer book.

The junior bridesmaids' frocks were of pale green dotted Swiss worn with matching ribbon headbands. They carried pink carnations with white prayer books.

The bride's mother was gowned in pink lace made princess style and her corsage was of white gladiolus and feathered carnations. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Lloyd Selby, wore a blue lace dress with white gladiolus and carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a green print nylon frock and her flowers were pink gladiolus and feathered carnations.

Jerome A. McDougall, Medford, was best man for his brother and his small son, Scott, was ring bearer. Ushers were Richard Barksdale, the bride's brother, Vincent Swinney, Reno, Nev., and Duane Franklin, Medford.

Pink and white was the color theme of the wedding. The garden had been planted with these colors in preparation for the wedding and the borders and flower beds were filled with masses of pink and white petunias and zinnias. White gladiolus and a cross of white chrysanthemums and greenery provided a setting for the bridal party.

The bride's table was covered with a pink cloth and decorated with pink candles and white wedding bells. Mrs. Jerome A. McDougall served the bride's cake and the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Selby, the bridegroom's cake. Mrs. Carlos Van Vleet, Eugene, Miss Peggy O'Keefe, Mrs. William Allen and Miss Toby Fox poured punch.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Sallee and son, Richard, Corpus Christi, Tex.; Mrs. Mildred Page of Burbank, Calif., aunt of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Selby and Carlos Van Vleet, Eugene; Mrs. Harry Tozier, aunt of the bridegroom from Klamath Falls and Mrs. Vincent Swinney, Reno, Nev.

The newlyweds will live in Stayton, Ore., where the bridegroom will teach dramatics, speech and English in the public schools. The bride was graduated from Ashland High school in 1955, attended Cotley college in Nevada, Mo., her freshman year and then attended Oregon State college, Corvallis. The bridegroom is a graduate of Medford High school and Southern Oregon college, Ashland.
