

Mr. and Mrs. Donald D. Wallace

Bride's Father and Uncle Perform Wedding Ceremony

Shady Cove—Mr. and Mrs. Don Roger Claspill, married earlier this summer, are now making their home at 1094 Hollister street, San Francisco. The bride is the former Lois Elaine Evers, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Ernest Evers, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Claspill, Fresno, Calif.

The ceremony was held July 26 at Community Bible church, Central Point, at eight o'clock in the evening. The bride's father escorted her to the altar and gave her in marriage, and then assisted the Rev. Paul Kroon, pastor of the church and uncle of the bride, with the latter part of the service.

The bride wore a princess style gown of satin and lace with fitted bodice, wide ve-neckline and long lace sleeves. Her veil was fingertip length and she carried white carnations and pink roses set in a pink satin fan.

Mrs. Richard Abrams, San Francisco, a cousin, was honor attendant for the bride and other attendants were Mrs. Earl Evers, Santa Margarita, Calif., and Miss Grace Evers, sister of the bride, junior bridesmaid. Mrs. Abrams and Mrs. Evers wore pink taffeta frocks with scoop necklines trimmed with bows and long ribbons at the back. Their headresses were of white net and green bows. Miss Evers wore a long pink frock with white flower design. The atendants flowers were pink roses.

Floyd Evers, San Francisco, the bride's brother, was best man and seating the guests were Paul Evers, another brother, and Richard Abrams, San Francisco.

Miss Elaine Kroon was soloist for the wedding, and Mrs. Paul Kroon played the wedding music.

Mrs. Erma Cushman, Shady Cove, decorated the church with pink and white gladioli for the ceremony, and also took charge of all the other flowers for the ceremony and reception.

The reception was held at the church. Mrs. Wayne Ash cut the wedding cake, Mrs. Clarence Wagler poured punch and the Misses Claudia Ash and Joyce Collin took charge of the gifts. Miss Carol Scott attended the guest book.

Mr. Claspill and his bride, both employed in San Francisco, made the trip from that city to Medford and return by plane, the trip having been a wedding gift from Mr. Claspill's grandparents.

The bridegroom's parents, another son, Johnny and daughter Carol were in Shady Cove for the wedding.

Announcement Meeting
Medford chapter of Gold Star Mothers will meet Tuesday, September 2 in the courthouse auditorium. Dessert at 1:30 p.m. will be followed by a business meeting.

Wallace-Anderson Rites Read by Methodist Pastor

Miss Carole Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Anderson of route 4, box 465, Medford, became the bride of Donald D. Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wallace, Phoenix, in an evening ceremony August 12 at First Methodist church.

Dr. George G. Roseberry, pastor, performed the double-ring service, assisted by the Rev. Charles P. Anderson of New York City, an uncle of the bride.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of Chantilly lace and tulle over satin with a finger-tip length silk illusion veil held by a crown of pearls. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and a white orchid on a white Bible.

Mrs. Clifford Smith served as her sister's matron of honor and Miss Linda Wallace, Miss Helen Mason and Miss Carol Clark were bridesmaids. All four wore ballerina length dresses and carried white gladioli. Mrs. Smith's dress was of blue Chantilly lace and the bridesmaids' dresses were of blue net.

Larry Kusel was the bridegroom's best man and Perry Sneed, James Stout and Lester Schleigh ushered.

Diane Anderson, a cousin of the bride who served as flower girl, wore a long blue satin dress and a white carnation head piece. Robert Porter was ring bearer.

Other attendants included the bridegroom's sister, Sandra Wallace, and a niece, Arleta Steele, who were candle lighters. They wore identical blue ballerina length dresses of satin and net.

An aunt of the bride, Mrs. Charles Anderson was soloist. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Anderson wore a light blue knitted dress with white accessories and a white carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue dress with white accessories and a similar corsage. The chapel was decorated with white chrysanthemums.

Following the wedding a reception was given in the church by the bride's parents for about 100 friends and relatives. Mrs. Robert Porter cut the cake and Mrs. Oliver Yancy, an aunt of the bride served. Mrs. Vester Simmonds presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Harvey D. Beatty, another aunt of the bride, served coffee.

Mrs. James Hanscom was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Herbert Vessey was at the gift table.

For the wedding trip to the Oregon coast the new Mrs. Wallace wore a pink linen suit with white accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The bride was graduated from Phoenix High school and is now employed at Weisfields, and the bridegroom, also a Phoenix High school graduate, is employed by Reter Fruit company.

Out of town guests in addition to the Andersons were Mr. and Mrs. Eddy Steele and Arleta, and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Yancy and Clarence, relatives of the bride from Klamath Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Smith of Gold Hill.

Seattle Couple Parents of Son
Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Bender Jr., of Seattle are the parents of a son born August 27 in that city. Mrs. Bender is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Dwight Findley, Old Stage road, and the Findleys have left for Seattle to visit the couple. Mrs. Findley will remain for several days and Dr. Findley will return home the first of the week.

Mr. Bender's parents are Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Bender, 1941 Westlunder drive.

Two Betrothals Announced in Cave Junction
Cave Junction—Two engagements have been announced here in recent days.

*Dr. and Mrs. A. N. Collman have announced the engagement of their daughter, Judy Beth, to Gerald Lee Clayton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Clayton of Sutherlin, Ore.

Miss Collman is a graduate of Illinois Valley High school with the class of 1957, and was a Gladiolus Festival princess last year. She was employed by the Bank of Illinois Valley prior to entering Southern Oregon college last year. This summer, she has been an employee of the Rogue Valley State Bank in Medford.

Her fiancé, Gerald Clayton, is a student at Southern Oregon college and will enroll again for the fall term.

The wedding is set for late September at Cave Junction.

The engagement of Connie Lee Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jones, to William McVay, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. McVay, La Puente, Calif., has been announced.

The bride-elect, formerly a student of Illinois Valley High school, moved to La Puente last school term. Her fiancé, a graduate of the La Puente High school, is now employed by the Frigid Coil company of that city.

The wedding is planned for early next summer.

Gardeners Plan Workshop Session
Central Point—Central Point Garden club will meet at the home of Mrs. Donald E. Faber at 10 a.m. Wednesday, September 3, for a workshop and business session.

Mrs. A. C. Lewis, Phoenix, will instruct members in the use of dry materials for making plaques for the home. Persons attending should take materials to work with if possible, a sack lunch, and rooted plants to be potted for the October plant sale, it was reported.

Spicy Tomatoes
New York—UP—Next time tomato wedges are on the buffet menu, serve them sprinkled lightly with onion salt and oregano.

Betrothal Told Of Miss Edwards, Robert Bobbitt

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Edwards, 112 Morrow road, announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Ann, to Robert Eugene Bobbitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bobbitt, 1740 North Riverside avenue.

Miss Edwards was graduated from Medford High school and attended Roberston School of Business. She is now employed at Bate-man's cafe. Mr. Bobbitt was graduated from St. Mary's High school and is employed at Steven's Auto sales. He is a member of the active Army reserve.

The couple plans a spring wedding.

Group Attends Conference on Family Living

Several persons have returned to the valley after attending a four-day conference at the University of Oregon, Eugene, held by the Council on Family Relations.

The divorce rate has been stabilized in the United States but will remain high as long as we have early marriages, the family relations experts told delegates to the meeting.

It was also noted, according to reports, that much more research and study is necessary before adequate evaluation of the problems involved in education at the several levels can be made. These levels include family living, parent education, and religion.

This was the 20th national meeting of the council and it drew educators and other persons interested in family relation problems from many parts of the nation.

Among those attending the conference, August 20-23, from this area were Mrs. Leigh Gustison, Lindsay Vin- sel, Dr. Harry Danielson, Mrs. Herbert Sampert, and Mrs. Henry Fagham, all of Medford; Mrs. Chester Fitch and Mrs. Mabel Winston, Ashland; and Mrs. Walter Bish and Rolland Hartley of Talent.

Exhibit Changed At Piano House

The Maude Walling Wanker "water color" exhibit, which has been on display at Purucker Music house, will be replaced by the works from the Master Water Color Society of Oregon. It will be free to the public for viewing through the month of September.

Paintings by Daniel Tesch, Grants Pass, will be shown in October.

York-Russell Ceremony Held in Catholic Church

Central Point—Sacred Heart Catholic church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Carol Jean Russell to Thomas J. York on Saturday, August 23. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Russell, 2886 Beall lane, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. York, Concord, Calif.

The double-ring ceremony and nuptial mass were celebrated by the Rev. John Igg at 9:30 o'clock in the morning. Fred Thompson, cousin of the bridegroom from Tulare, Calif., and Donald Davy, Medford, were acolytes.

Mr. Russell escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore a gown of white imported Chantilly lace over satin fashioned with ve-shaped scalloped neckline, short sleeves and a full skirt with helmine scallops. It was designed and made by her mother. The bride's fingertip length tulle veil and pearl crown were loaned by Mrs. Richard Garrett, Medford, and she carried an heirloom handkerchief belonging to Mrs. B. L. Hunter, Medford. Her bouquet was white stephanotis centered with white carnations.

Miss Helen York, Concord, sister of the bridegroom, was honor attendant. She wore a ballerina length white nylon gown floored with maize colored flowers over maize taffeta with fitted bodice and ve-neckline in back trimmed with velvet ribbons. She carried white and maize chrysanthemums.

Two Bridesmaids
The bridesmaids, Miss Mary Kay Conroy and Miss Linda Lambeth, Vashon, Wash., wore light blue frocks fashioned as that worn by the honor attendant and carried nosegays of white and blue chrysanthemums.

Dennis Schmidt, Salem, was best man and Arthur York, brother of the bridegroom and James Serventi, a cousin, both Concord, were ushers.

Bruno Pellegrini was organist and Miss Nancy Conroy was soloist, assisted by Miss Mary Frances Zimmerman.

White gladioli were arranged on the altar and tall baskets filled with wood-wardia ferns and white gladioli stood at either side. Other bouquets were of white gladioli and blue delphinium.

The reception was held at the Rogue room of the Medford hotel. The wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. Fred Kuest and Mrs. C. H. Ault, with an heirloom knife belonging to Mrs. Clara Agee, Medford. The knife was given to Mrs. Agee's father 75 years ago on his 25th wedding anniversary and has been used at many weddings since.

Sister Here
Punch was poured by Mrs. B. J. Tomjack, sister of the bridegroom from Phoenix, Ariz. Miss Virginia Thompson, Tulare, Calif., cousin of the bride, took charge of the guest book and gift table.

The bride's mother was attired in a cocoa brown lace sheath dress with white accessories and white carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue flowered silk suit with yellow hat and gloves and a white carnation corsage.

Mr. York and his bride traveled to Portland on their honeymoon and visited Marylhurst college. The bride, formerly a student at Marylhurst, presented her bridal bouquet at the Virgin Mary's altar in the chapel, following a tradition of Marylhurst girls. The newlyweds later motored down the Oregon coast and to Lake Tahoe. For traveling the bride wore a royal blue cotton knit chemise dress with white accessories and the white carnation corsage from her bouquet.

The bride was graduated from Crater High school before attending Marylhurst. The bridegroom, who formerly lived in Medford, attended St. Mary's school here and later Mt. Diablo High school, Concord, the University of Portland and St. Mary's college, Moraga, Calif. He is now a student in business and economics at San Jose State college, and the couple will live in that city.

Here for the wedding were the bridegroom's parents and his sisters and brothers, Helen, Arthur, Harry, Claire and Noreen, all Concord; Fred Thompson, cousin of the bride, Tulare; Mrs. Vida McAuley, aunt of the bride, Santa Monica, Calif.; D. J. Dolmage and Miss Dorothy Hedgepeth, Grants Pass; B. J. Tomjack, Phoenix; Helen Wand, Troutdale, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Thiel, Idaho Falls, Ida.; Miss Irmina Farm, Spokane; Miss Mary Ann
