The five girls were all married, and the attack occurred in the apartment of one of them for whom Miss Gemma was baby-sitting. Motive for the attack has not been disclosed. Miss Gemma was hospitalized for three days after the beating. Here she displays some of the hair that was cut from her head, and also the black eye she received in the attack.

UMC Workers To Be Recruited
Recruitment of workers in the United Methodist Crusade campaign's business divisions is being stepped up as the Sept. 15 "kick-off" date approaches, according to Dick Travis, general campaign chairman.
Solicitors for commercial, distribution, retail and service divisions still are needed, he said, and there are a few vacancies in the professional and public employees divisions.
A drive to obtain workers is being conducted, he said, so training sessions for workers may be held prior to Sept. 15.
Travis said that "experience has shown that solicitors who are recruited too late to meet with the regular division training sessions do not do as well as trained men."

Joan Dobrot Wins Fair Scholarship
Joan Dobrot, Central Point 4-H club member, became the winner of a $100 college scholarship awarded by Safeway Stores, Inc., to the champion senior dollar dinner contestant at the Oregon State fair this week. Marilou Garner, county 4-H home-economics agent, has announced.
Joan won the contest by serving a fried chicken dinner to four persons for an average price of 60 cents each. The award is based on planning, preparation and serving of the complete meal to herself and three guests, Miss Garner explained. The contestants are allowed four hours from the time of entering the kitchen-dining room booth until leaving it tidy for the next contestant.
Contestants furnish their own food, table linen and centerpiece to fit their menu. As Joan prepared her menu she was judged on her buyman-ship, the menu, the actual preparation of the food, her table, the way she served the dinner, her work habits, and housekeeping.
Joan is in her eighth year of 4-H club work in Jackson county. Last year she was awarded a trip to the National 4-H club congress at Chicago for her outstanding 4-H club work, the 4-H agent said. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Dobrot of 2044 Scenic ave., Central Point. She plans to attend Oregon State college this fall.
