Judith Gayle Davis Wed To David Boyce Parker

Central Point—Miss Judith Gayle Davis became the bride of David Boyce Parker in a ceremony held Thursday evening, August 28, at First Methodist church in Medford. Dr. G. G. Roseberry officiated at the 8 o'clock double-ring ceremony attended by more than 200 guests. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard G. Davis, 444 Manzanita street, Central Point. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester L. Parker, Lampman road, Gold Hill.

The church was decorated with giant-size daisies in shades of orange, tangerine and yellow in white baskets, and white candelabra held lighted white tapers. Bows of white satin and white Ester Reed daisies were at the new ends.

Soloist was Mrs. C. Norman Gail, Gold Hill. Mrs. Alice Boardman, Medford, played the organ.

Gowned in Lace

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white imported French Chantilly lace and tulle over white satin. It was fashioned with a scalloped bateau neckline, long sleeves and close-fitting bodice. Lace panels formed the billowing floor-length skirt that fell into a cathedral train. The bride designed her gown. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion, held in place by a Princess Grace crown of rhinestones, seed-pearls and sequins, was loaned by Mrs. Gordon Iekvold, Central Point, whose second wedding anniversary was that day. The bride's white brocade satin shoes with rhinestone buckles were a gift from her aunt, Mrs. A. M. Hubbard, Whittier, Calif.

Her pearl and filigree gold necklace was a gift from the bridegroom. She carried a white orchid and stephanotis on a white Bible, loaned by the bridegroom's nine-year-old sister, Linda Parker.

For "something old" the bride wore an heirloom wedding band on her right hand with diamonds that have been worn by four generations of the bride's family. The ring was loaned by her mother.

The bride was married in the church of which she is a member and where she taught Sunday school.

Mrs. George Juveland, Central Point was matron-of-honor. Mrs. Richard Davis, Medford, was bridesmaid and Linda Parker, sister of the bridegroom, was junior bridesmaid. Mrs. Juveland wore a pale orange-ice chiffon frock over matching taffeta, designed with short sleeves, a neckline dipping in back and bouffant ballerina skirt with matching chiffon cummerbund and long sash. Her headdress of tangerine tulle matched her gloves and slippers and she carried white Ester Reed daisies.

Mrs. Davis and Linda Parker wore identical tangerine taffeta frocks styled similar to Mrs. Juveland's, with cummerbunds and sashes of orange-ice chiffon, and tangerine headdresses and gloves. They carried white Ester Reed daisies.

Two Candlelighters were Miss Sandra Guss and Miss Carole von der Hellen, Central Point. They wore tangerine taffeta frocks, styled as the other attendants, with cummerbunds of orange-ice chiffon and a bandeau of tangerine taffeta. Their wrist bouquets were white daisies.

The attendants wore the bride's gifts of pearl and gold necklaces.

Ring bearer was Jack Deltion Pullins, cousin of the bride.

James Byrnes, Gold Hill, served as best man for the bridegroom. Ushers were George Juveland and Robert Lance, Gold Hill.

A reception was given in the social room of the church. The white lace-covered table was centered with an arrangement of miniature lemon yellow chrysanthemums, which encircled the wedding cake and lemon yellow tapers in crystal holders flanked the centerpiece.

Bouquets of miniature daisies in shades of orange and yellow completed the decorations. Mrs. L. C. Gordon, assisted by Mrs. Steven Benson, were in charge of all floral arrangements for the wedding and reception.

Aunt Cuts Cake
Mrs. A. M. Hubbard, Whittier, Calif., aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake, assisted by Mrs. J. D. Peters, Castroville, Calif., great-aunt of the bridegroom. Mrs. John Cogswell, Gold Hill, and Mrs. Earl Remsen, Butte Falls, presided at the punch bowl. Pouring coffee were Mrs. A. M. Vonder Sommen, Long Beach, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. George Dorman, Gold Hill. Miss Joan Morris, Gold Hill, attended the guest book. Mrs. O. L. Morse, aunt of the bride and Mrs. Frank Josephson, were in charge of the gift table.

The bride's mother wore a princess style aquamarine lace frock over matching taffeta with a white feather hat. Her corsage was white and pink roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a two-piece dressmaker silk print suit of royal and navy blue with velvet trim and navy blue velvet hat. Her gold and turquoise earrings were brought to her from Paris for the wedding by Mrs. E. J. Reed, Alameda, Calif., great-aunt of the bridegroom who returned in August from a tour of Europe. Her corsage was pink and white roses.

Guests included A. M. Hubbard and son, Peter, Whittier, Calif., A. M. Vonder Sommen and daughter, Diane, Long Beach, Calif., two great-aunts of the bridegroom. Mrs. L. D. Peters, Castroville, and Mrs. E. J. Reed, Alameda; his cousins, Mrs. J. D. Jeters Jr. and children Lynn and David, Pleasant Hill, Calif., and Mrs. Noel Kellogg, Salem, Ore.

The newlyweds traveled to Portland and Salem for their wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a white shark-skin chemise dress with red accessories and the orchid from her bridal corsage.

The couple will reside at Route 1, Box 92 J. Gold Hill. The bride is a 1938 graduate of Crater High school where she was a member of the National Honor society for two years, member of Quill and Scroll and for two years was Comette drill leader. She is now employed as secretary and clerk for the city of Central Point.

The bridegroom was also graduated from Crater High school and attended Shasta
