Miss Norma Jean Kerns Bride of Robert Parker

Ashland—Miss Norma Jean Kerns became the bride of Robert R. Parker in a ceremony held Saturday, August 30, at the Ashland Nazarene church. The Rev. E. E. Crawford officiated at the double ring rites held at eight o'clock in the evening.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Burnell Kerns, 447 North Main street, Ashland. Mr. Parker is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond W. Parker, Eugene.

Baskets of pink and white chrysanthemums decorated the church and a white arch covered by ivy formed a background for the wedding party. Miss Meredith Williams played the traditional organ music and accompanied Mrs. Clarence M. Litwiller, soloist.

The bride wore a white chantilly lace gown fashioned with fitted bodice and bouffant shirred tulle skirt which terminated in a chapel length train. The apron tunic was also of chantilly lace. Her fingertip length veil was held by a cap of lace, sequins and pearls and she carried a bouquet of red rosebuds and stephanotis. The gown was designed and made by the bride's mother, Mr. Kerns gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Ruby Keating, Colfax, Wash., was honor attendant for the bride while Miss Janet Kellom, Nampa, Idaho, and Mrs. James Kerns, sister-in-law of the bride, Mountain View, Calif., were bridesmaid and matron. They wore dresses styled on princess lines of aquamarine taffeta trimmed with velvet ribbon of darker blue. They carried bouquets of pink and white chrysanthemums. The Misses Caroline and Barbara Parker, sisters of the bridegroom, were candlelighters. They wore dresses styled as the attendants in a darker aquamarine and wristlets of pink and white chrysanthemums.

The Misses Linda and Gina Fountain, cousins of the bride, Redding, Calif., were flower girls. They wore dresses of pink nylon over satin and carried white baskets filled with rose petals.

Kenneth Reeder, Roseburg, served as best man while Lauren Ellis, Portland, and James Kerns, brother of the bride, Mountain View, Calif., seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Kerns wore a beige lace sheath dress with coffee colored accessories and a corsage of bronze chrysanthemums.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Masters and Mr. and Mrs. Al Lawson, Grants Pass.

Mr. and Mrs. William Murphy and children, Ruth, Patricia and Mike; Mr. and Mrs. Gary Elmslie and daughter, Rondi; and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kenneth Elder, parents of the bridegroom, all from Redding.

Mrs. Parker chose a green silk dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of pink chrysanthemums.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church parlors. Mrs. Dale Hoover was in charge of the event. Mrs. Arth Watrus cut the wedding cake which was served by Mrs. Virgil Jackson. Mrs. George Zickefoose Jr. presided at the punch bowl and Miss Myrna Dean poured the coffee. Mrs. Bruce Malpass was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. H. W. Dixon and Miss Judy Howard were at the gift table.

For her traveling attire the bride chose a white silk sheath dress with red accessories and red rose corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Ashland High school and attended Northwest Nazarene college at Nampa, Idaho. During the summer she was employed by the Oregon Shakespearean Festival in Ashland. The bridegroom is also a student at Northwest Nazarene college. They will make their home in Nampa.

Among the out of town guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Reeder and Faye, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Reeder, all Roseburg; Miss Muriel Levos, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. James Kerns, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Fountain, David and Mark, all Mountain View, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fountain, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Lappin, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rawlings, and Miss Myrna Dean, all Medford.

Elder-Rausch Ceremony Held in Cave Junction

Cave Junction — Immanuel Methodist church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Ronine Ruth Rausch to Howard Kenneth Elder Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kenneth Elder of Redding, Calif. The Rev. Harold Mackey read the double ring ceremony by candlelight on Saturday, August 31.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Rausch, was given in marriage by her father. She wore a full length gown of white Chantilly lace over crystalite and taffeta made with train and trimmed with mother-of-pearl sequins. Her veil of silk illusion fell from a rhinestone tiara and she carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid.

Miss Millicent Wray, maid of honor, wore a princess style dress of yellow lace over yellow taffeta with a matching tulle headress held by a circlet of velvet, and carried a nosegay of white and yellow gladiolus.

Miss Nancy Chase and Miss Judy Collman were bridesmaids. They wore identical dresses of aquamarine crystalite over pastel green taffeta with matching tulle headress held by a circlet of green velvet and carried nosegays of yellow gladiolus.

The candlelighters, wearing identical yellow and white flocked nylon dresses, were Miss Jackie Williams and Miss Ruth Murphy.

William Murphy was best man and ushers were Gary Elmslie and Robert Burrows. Richard Buckendahl sang, accompanied by Mrs. Alice Beem.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Rausch chose a gown of black Chantilly lace and chiffon with pink accessories and wore a corsage of pink gladiolus. Mrs. Elder, mother of the bridegroom, wore a dark brocade dress with white accessories and a white gladiolus corsage.

The church was decorated with baskets of white and yellow flowers and the aisle was marked by six standards covered with greenery and topped by flowers and candles.

The reception was held in the parlors of the church. The couple cut the maltese cross wedding cake and in keeping with tradition, pledged their troth by drinking from the bride's cup.

Mrs. Walter Hunting and Mrs. Raymond Heidenreich served punch and cake. Mrs. William Murphy and Mrs. Lester Chase presided at the gift table and Mrs. Betty Webb was in charge of the guest book.

For her going away costume, the new Mrs. Elder wore a soft gray suit with red accessories and the orchid from her wedding bouquet.

The young couple went to Reno and Lake Tahoe for their wedding trip and will make their home in Redding, Calif., where they are both attending Shasta Junior college.

The bride was graduated as valedictorian of her class in 1957 from Illinois Valley High school. The bridegroom is a graduate of Shasta Union High school in Redding, and is employed by California Division of Highways.

Out of town guests attending included the bride's two grandmothers, Mrs. Florence Swaney and Mrs. Pauline Rausch, of Hollywood, Calif.; Miss Millicent Wray, Northridge, Calif.; Mrs. Lester and Nancy Chase of Dorris, Calif.
