Registration Slated

By DORIS HUGHES
Central Point—Registration for first grade students at Jewett elementary school will be Monday, Sept. 15. George Johns, principal, asked that mothers accompany children to register for the first grade. They should bring her child's birth certificate. First graders will return home with their mothers after registering. First grade students will begin their first full day of school, Tuesday, Sept. 16, Johns stated.

The second grade students at Jewett elementary school will begin Monday, Sept. 15, and remain at the school all day. The cafeteria will be open Monday.

A picnic honoring Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sutherland was given Wednesday at Hawthorne park, Medford. Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland and children, Connie, Becky and Danny, are moving to Yangton, S.D. Sutherland, who is on the staff of Crater High school, has a year's leave of absence to attend the University of South Dakota.

Attending the picnic were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Miller, Mrs. Francis Willette, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Knapp, Colleen and Patricia, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Holbrook and Ronnie and Nancy, all of Medford; from Central Point were Mr. and Mrs. Don Miller, Cheryl, Marcia, Greg, Doug and Jimmy. With the Millers was Miss Jeanie Miller, who was visiting here from Sweet Home. Also from Central Point were Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Van Dolah and David, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Straus, Katherine, David, Carol and Freddie, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Obenchain, Mr. and H. P. Jewett, Mrs. Doreen Bradshaw and Mr. and Mrs. James Backen. Lee Anne and Ronnie Roundtree of Roseburg also attended the affair. They are visiting at the home of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Backen.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Zimmerman and children and Mrs. Mary Dye of Los Angeles visited Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Royal Greenman of Central Point. The visitors and the Greenmans, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Greenman and children of Ashland, picnicked on Evans creek near Wimer.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Griggs returned last week from a vacation at La Grande at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Griggs and at Scappoose where they visited Mrs. Grigg's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Richards.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill MacFarlane vacationed last week at the Lake of the Woods.

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Wilson reported that their son, Stephen, who was seriously injured three weeks ago in a logging accident, is recovering satisfactorily at Sacred Heart hospital.

Twenty three Junior Boys from the Community Bible church, Central Point, attended the McLaughlin camp at the Lake of the Woods. The boys went to the camp on the Sunday school bus. Last week 18 senior boys and girls attended the camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Obenchain and Mr. and Mrs. George Adams spent the Labor Day week end vacationing at Brookings. Last week end the Obenchains moved their daughter, Miss Linda Obenchain, to Forest Grove. Miss Obenchain will be the home making teacher at the Forest Grove High school.

Mr. and Mrs. James Stevens gave a birthday dinner recently in honor of their son, Wallace, who was 14 years old. Guests were Gary Wald, Jimmy Stevens, Peter Lynn Stevens, and Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Graham. The Grahams, who live at Happy Camp, are Wallace's grandparents. The birthday cake is one for which Mrs. Stevens had won first place on it at the Jackson County fair.

Mrs. Lewis Collins arrived in Tokyo, Japan, last week to join her husband, the Rev. Lewis Collins, who is ministering there to the missionaries. Mr. Collins' mother, Mrs. F. E. Collins, of Alberta, Canada, is staying with the Collins children, Arthur and Esther, while their parents are in Japan. The Collins' older daughter, Joyce, will leave here Sept. 21 to attend her senior year at Canadian Bible college at Regina, Saskatchewan.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Leroy and children, Blair and Mary, returned last week end from a week's vacation. After visiting Leroy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Leroy of McMinnville. The Leroy's visited other relatives in the Portland area. They came back the coast route visiting at Florence and other points. The family then went to Salem and took in the State Fair before returning to southern Oregon.

Last Tuesday, Mrs. Jenny Cummins gave a luncheon at her home on Laurel st. Guests were Mrs. Millie Johnson, Mrs. Royal Greenman and Mrs. Charles Hughes and sons, Sam and Jimmy.

A birthday party was given Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hughes, honoring Mrs. P. E. Simmons of Medford. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Johnson, and children Elaine and Larry, Mrs. Millie Johnson,

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Simmons, Burl C. Johnson and the Hughes family.

Mrs. Richard Wyatt gave a party Saturday honoring her son, Stevie, on his sixth birthday. The affair was a "firemans party." Each guest was presented a toy fire truck and the party began with a trip to the Medford city fire station.

Upon returning to Stevie's home the group had to climb a ladder and through the window to the dining room where a birthday cake awaited them. Attending were Mike and David Langston, Allan Quail, David Cavin, all of Central Point, Robby Johnson and Vickie Snyder of Medford, and Paul and Stevie Wyatt of Central Point.

Mr. and Mrs. John Blackford returned recently from a trip to Davis, Calif., where they visited Mrs. Blackford's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Don Morgan and daughter, Cynthia Anne. Don is a student at the University of California. He plans to be a veterinarian. This was the Blackford's first time to see their new granddaughter. The Blackfords also visited in Redwood City and San Francisco and went to the county fair at Redland.

Guests at the home of Mrs. Arthur Ayres over the week end were Mr. and Mrs. John Sharp and sons, Mike, Topper and Gary, of Eugene.

The Royal Neighbors of America met Sept. 2 at the home of Mrs. George Taeger of Forest Creek rd. The group had a business meeting and a dessert luncheon. Ten women attended the meeting. Mrs. Elsa Walker, district deputy from Medford was a guest. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Robert Hague or Mrs. Emma Collins, Oct. 7.

Guests Sunday at the A. D. VanHorn home in Central Point were Mrs. Walter Kirtley and her daughter, Mildred, of Kirby, and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Herther of San Francisco.

Intervene Only to Win Says VFW Commander

Chicago—(UP)—The national commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars said last night that if the United States must intervene in the Formosa crisis, it should be done "with determination" to give U.S. forces the "opportunity to win." John W. Mahan, Helena, Mont., said the VFW wants no more Koreans or "wars that cost thousands of American lives because we refused to use the weapons and techniques at hand to win the war." The American Bowling Congress was begun in 1895.
