

Shaped for the New Silhouettes

by Allyn Rice

TRAPEZE, chemise, and Empire—all are important lines in the Fall fashion picture. And each silhouette requires the perfect foundation garment to show you to your best advantage. New garments are long and ever so gently persuasive as they round the bosom, mold the midriff and waistline, narrow the hips, and taper the thighs. Wonderful miracle fibers in lace, dulled satins, and jacquard elastics make easy-to-care-for, lightweight garments that are sturdy but delicately feminine.

For chemise or Empire styles, Perma-lift's full-length roll-on in Helanca stretch fabric; rounded bra cup ($7.50).

Trapeze and Empire modes need a high, waist-cinching girdle with gentle long-line control of hips and thighs. Fortuna's answer is a "rib-caged brief" pantie in nylon power net with front panel of nylon lace over sheer ($15).

The long, smooth line and rounded "lifted look" given by Playtex's strapless bra is meant for the high-waisted Empire style. It is delicately fashioned with embroidered nylon sheer ($8.95).
