

Campaign Chairman Announced

Mrs. Paul J. Dix has been named general chairman of the annual membership campaign of Jackson County Civic Music association according to Seth M. Bullis, association president. The annual campaign will be held October 6-11, and the workers' dinner is set for October 6.

Mrs. James Anicker will serve as headquarters chairman and Mrs. Leland Mentzer is secretary of the association. Division chairmen will be named in the near future.

It is expected that more than 200 music lovers in all parts of the county will take part in the annual campaign. Memberships equal to the seating capacity of Medford High school auditorium are sold, and after the end of the campaign, no memberships are available. No tickets are ever sold for single performances.

Four to six concerts are given each season and Mr. Bullis reminds those who enjoy music that the Civic Music series provides one of the few opportunities to hear fine artists in person in the Rogue valley.

Anyone interested in working in the coming campaign is asked to call Mrs. Mentzer.

Lively Rogues Announce Plans For First Party

Lively Rogue's Dinner club will hold their first party of 1958-1959 season at Rogue Country club Thursday, September 18, at 7:30 p.m. Host couples for the evening will be Mr. and Mrs. Austin King and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Blew.

New officers for the year include Bruce L. Blew, president; Harry S. Note, vice president; Mrs. Eugene Ray, secretary; and Mrs. Randall Gifford, chairman of the telephone committee.

Appropriate dress for the evening includes "after five" wear for the women and suits for the men. Decorations will be by Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Aldrich.

Former members of the club are particularly invited to attend this first dinner and dance. Former members and members not contacted and interested in attending may call Mrs. Eugene Ray, SPing 2-8176 for reservations not later than September 15. Reservations are mandatory, it is stated.

Hotchkiss school and Princeton university before taking up his career on the stage.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Graham Kirchner are shown following their wedding September 6 at St. Mark's Episcopal church, Medford. The bridegroom is widely known for his leading roles with the Oregon Shakespearean festival, Ashland. His bride, the former Mrs. Jane B. Schnittger, was box office manager this season.

Festival Actor Married In Rites Held Saturday

Ashland — Mr. and Mrs. Richard Graham Kirchner, whose wedding took place Saturday, September 6, in St. Mark's Episcopal church, Medford, have returned to Ashland after a brief wedding trip to Yachats, Ore. The bride is the former Mrs. Jane B. Schnittger, 451 Palm street, Ashland.

The bridegroom, of 288 Gresham street, Ashland, has been a leading actor, program editor and make-up director for the Oregon Shakespearean festival in Ashland for the past several years and is widely known by his stage name, Richard Graham.

The ceremony was held at 10 o'clock in the morning with the Rev. John L. Thompson III of Trinity Episcopal church, Ashland, officiating. The bride's two small daughters, Gretchen and Martha Schnittger, gave their mother in marriage.

The bride wore a teal blue wool tweed suit with black accessories and a black velvet hat with teal blue feather. Her corsage was three white orchids. She was attended by Mrs. Angus L. Bowmer, Ashland, who wore a royal blue dress with matching hat and white orchid corsage.

The bride's daughters wore blue dresses with identical blue velvet hats and corsages of miniature orchids. Bouquets of white gladioli and delphinium were on the altar.

A small group of close friends attended the ceremony and about 45 guests were present for a reception given by the bride at Mon Desir inn.

The newlyweds plan to leave about October 15 for New York City where they will make their home. The bride, who attended Southern seminary, Buena Vista, Va., was a secretary at Southern Oregon college and this season was box office manager for the Shakespearean festival. Mr. Kirchner attended

Hotchkiss school and Princeton university before taking up his career on the stage.

our Autumn Bride... fairest of all

For your shining hour, a gown of great romance. Our bridal collection is we do tradition in the grand manner. You'll enjoy a beautiful choice and a world of pampered service.

Traditional Gowns from $39.95
Dress Length Informals from $29.95

Make Your Selection early...
Use Our Lay Away Plan or Your Budget Account!

Rath's
MEDFORD FASHION CENTER
214 E. Main St. • Phone SP 2-7169

Mr. and Mrs. James Pond
(Brainerd Photo)

Pond-Henderson Rites Held Saturday

Miss Joanne Henderson became the bride of James Pond in a ceremony held Saturday, September 6, at Eagle Point Community Bible church. The Rev. Joseph Munshaw officiated at the double ring rites held at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence P. Henderson, 215 South B street. Mr. Pond is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Pond, 703 Kenyon avenue, Medford.

White gladioli, fern and blue delphinium, decorated the church for the event. Mrs. Ray Chamberlain played the organ wedding music. More than 150 relatives and friends attended.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white Chantilly lace over taffeta in ballerina length and styled on princess lines. Her shoulder length veil was held by a lace bonnet and she carried a cascade bouquet of blue shattered carnations and stephanotis. For something old she carried a handkerchief carried by her paternal grandmother at her wedding November 30, 1884, and for something borrowed a white linen handkerchief loaned by her maternal great-grandmother which she received recently on her 92nd birthday.

Miss Barbara Henderson attended her sister. She wore a white organdy sheath frock.

Daughter Here
Miss Suzanne Reichstein, student at the University of Oregon Medical school, Portland, is in Medford to spend a month's vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Reichstein, 7 Glen Oak court. Spending a week with the Reichsteins is Alan Keaton, Junction City, Ore., who is also a student at the medical school.

B-20.00 Week-ender

A-17.95 Juliet

Back To College with Skyway LUGGAGE

6 Colors — Many Styles
"BE PROUD OF YOUR LUGGAGE—HAVE 'SKYWAY'"

On the Balcony

Swen's BOOKS • GIFTS • RECORDS

C-25.00 Special Wardrobe

Newlyweds Make Home In Medford

Central Point — Mr. and Mrs. Francis Vernon Story are making their home at 13B Newtown avenue, Medford, following their wedding August 30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Bishop, 125 Laurel street. The Rev. W. H. Johnson of Pentecostal Church of God, officiated at the 10 o'clock morning ceremony attended by 30 relatives and friends.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Paxton, 745 Pine street, apartment 1. Mr. Story is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Story, 112 North Front street, Central Point.

Pink and white gladioli decorated the living room for the event.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white taffeta sheath dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink flowers. She carried a white Bible with forget-me-nots.

Miss Carole Kubat, Lakeview, attended the bride. She wore a turquoise blue knit suit with white accessories and white rosebud corsage.

Gary McKendree, Lakeview, served as best man and Alan M. Bishop, brother-in-law seated the guests.

Following the wedding a reception was given by Mr. and Mrs. Bishop.

The couple traveled to Lakeview on their wedding trip the bride wearing a blue and white chemise suit with white accessories.

The bride attended Lakeview school and is employed as a secretary with the Equitable Life Assurance company. Mr. Story also attended Lakeview schools and is employed by Ross Lumber company.

Visitor Leaves For Illinois Home

Mrs. Louise Schramm left recently for her home in Pekin, Ill., after spending three months with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Haskins, 228 North Holly street. She made the trip to Chicago by air. Mrs. Schramm and the Haskins made a trip to the Hawaiian Islands in August.

Other recent guests of the Haskins were Mrs. Lillie Nolte, also of Pekin, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burger and son, Douglas, Toledo, Ore., and Henry Helfenstein, Santa Monica, Calif.

Among the out of town guests attending were Mrs. Anna Van Ness, Ronan, Mont., grandmother of the bride; Mrs. Bert McMenomey, Malita, Mont., aunt of the bride; Mrs. Robert Lerum, Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Smith, Billings, Mont., cousins of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lambie, Klamath Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. John Silvestro, Hills, Calif.

Prior to the wedding the bride was honored at several showers. Mrs. Ray Chamberlain and Mrs. Edward Chamberlain of Eagle Point were hostesses for one event attended by more than 40 guests. Another shower was given by Mrs. Wallace Brill and daughter, Susan, with approximately 30 guests present.

Book Club Plans Luncheon, Show

A luncheon and style show Wednesday, September 17, will begin the fall program for Contemporary Book club. The event will be held at the home of Mrs. Ernest Barnes, 1906 East Main street, with luncheon to be served at 12:30 o'clock. Mrs. Raymond Miksche will be co-hostess.

The style show will be presented by Mrs. Robert (Jean) Hart, a member of the club, and she will discuss 1958 fashion trends and materials.

Congressman Guest in Valley

Congressman Chester Holifield, with Mrs. Holifield, Los Angeles, Calif., were guests in Jackson county last week end. The couple visited the congressman's mother, Mrs. Hazel Holifield, Central Point, and his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. E. LaVern Dungey, 3558 Table Rock road.

Congressman Holifield, who represents the 19th district of California, serves on two important committees of the House of Representatives. He is a ranking member of the joint Senate and House committee on atomic energy, and the house committee on government operations. A member of Congress for 16 years, he plans to run again this fall for his ninth term.

Administrator Honored Guest

Sister Luke of the Savior, newly appointed administrator of Sacred Heart hospital, was honored at a reception Tuesday, September 9 in the garden patio of the hospital.

The reception, held from 2 to 4 o'clock, gave the new administrator an opportunity to meet and visit with the employees of the hospital, many of whom were long-time friends.

Sister Luke of the Savior has returned to Sacred Heart hospital after an absence of eight years, during which time she served as administrator of both St. Vincent and Providence hospitals in Portland.

"STOP GETTING SO EXCITED ABOUT POLITICS AND DO SOMETHING ABOUT IT. GIVE A BUCK TO THE PARTY OF YOUR CHOICE!"

Want to keep politics clean? DON'T PASS THE BUCK—give a buck to the party of your choice!

ROBINSON BROS.
114 E. Main

OPEN MONDAY UNTIL 9 P.M.

A Gift You'd Love to Keep!

lovely STEGOR ARISTOCRAT OF STAINLESS

"Service for four" FROM ONLY $17.95

Special event! Make it extra-special — with a lovely gift of STEGOR, Aristocrat of Stainless. This beautiful 16-piece service-for-four comes complete with handsome wood storage unit in Colonial Walnut finish. Choice of 6 Stegor patterns. Truly handsome!

CONVENIENT TERMS IF DESIRED

LAWRENCE'S YOUR FRIENDLY FAMILY STORE

Specializing in Fine Silver, Diamonds and Watches
130 EAST MAIN EST. 1908
Now in Our Fiftieth Year!

Mann's NEW FALL MEDFORD

Corduroy PRINTS Famous Compton Combed Corduroy

Famous Compton corduroy prints in a large selection of new fall patterns. Tiny rosebud to campus plaids in the newest fashion colors. Completely washable as only cotton can be — 36" wide. See our selection today.

$1.69 yd.

Sew for Fall, for School

YARDAGE — MAIN FLOOR